

PLAN TO REINSTATE POOLE AS ASSISTANT POLICE CHIEF SEEN

POLICE COMMITTEE PUTS DETECTIVE DEPARTMENT BACK

Unanimously Approves Reestablishment of Department and Creation of Chief of Detectives Post.

POOLE IS BELIEVED IN LINE FOR PLACE

Would Be First Assistant Chief and In Line To Succeed Beavers at Head of Force.

Initial steps looking towards reinstatement of A. Lamar Poole, deposed head of the Atlanta detective force as chief of that recreated department, with the title of assistant chief of police were believed to have been taken Wednesday night at the first session of the 1927 police committee of city council.

The committee approved unanimously a recommendation of Chief of Police James L. Beavers to reestablish the detective department, which was abolished at the beginning of the Walter A. Sims administration in 1923, and the selection of a chief of detectives to be known as first assistant of the police department. This political observers declare, will mean the rise to power again of Poole, who, since he was fired, has served as patrolman and later traffic signal box operator before installation of automatic controls. He later was placed in the plain clothes squad.

Although Chief Beavers maintained a non-committal attitude, he did not deny that he will recommend Poole for the post in the event council passes the paper. He stated that anything he would say at this time would be premature and might be misconstrued. It is known, however, that Chief Beavers regards Poole as one of his most trusted lieutenants, and one of the most efficient members of the department.

Chief May Retire.

Following the chief's reinstatement to the position from which he was ousted by the police committee, he recommended Poole as his first choice for promotion in the department. The 1926 committee declined to follow his recommendation, and named another man.

Persistent rumors are that the chief plans to quit his post this summer and accept a pension, to which he is entitled under the law, and that he is grooming Poole for the chief's position. If Poole were elevated to the post of first assistant chief he would be the logical nominee as head of the department in the event a vacancy occurred there.

Harmony pervaded the entire session of the police committee Wednesday night, and in the future, executive meetings are taboo unless a matter in which secrecy is of vital necessity arises, according to announcement of Alderman Charles Murphy, chairman.

To Revise Rules.

Revision of rules of the department will take place at an early date, and the chief's hand is expected to be seen in many of the changes which it is expected a special subcommittee will recommend. Dr. C. J. Vaughan, A. J. Orme and Chief Beavers compose the rules revision committee.

Just as soon as council passes the recommendation regarding reestablishment of the detective bureau, and the paper is signed by Mayor L. N. Ragsdale, the committee is expected to abolish the plain clothes squad of the department, and organize the detective department with Poole as head.

Superiority That Counts

Many a man has thought and some have said: "I may not be practical, but I wouldn't wear knee trousers and then spend half my time trying to pull them down over my knees." Having satisfied himself of his superiority in this matter, he goes on his way happy—but of what avail is superiority in such a matter?

Consider this same man in the matter of buying clothing for the family, household supplies, food, and keeping the home running smoothly—matters of real importance—and his superiority fades into the ether of nothingness.

The woman knows what to buy, when to buy, where to buy, how much to buy, and what she should pay. And conducts the home affairs so smoothly that her husband thinks it runs itself.

She reads The Constitution advertisements every morning, and from their wealth of splendid offerings she buys judiciously and economically during the day. The afternoons may be used for engagements with her woman friends and in the evenings she is ready to join her husband in entertainment and amusement.

ADVERTISING IN THE CONSTITUTION PAYS THE ADVERTISER AND SAVES THE BUYER.

BANKS BAR LOANS TO SCHOOL BOARD, MORE CASH ASKED

Committee Asked To Increase Education Fund From 26 to 30 Per Cent of All Revenue.

Clearing house officials Wednesday put the city school board and members of the citizens' committee appointed to supervise expenditures of the department of education for the year on notice that under no conditions will that organization advance money to operate the school department this fall. The information was conveyed to the city finance committee Wednesday afternoon by Harold Hirsch, chairman of the citizens' committee.

Responsibility for raising adequate funds to continue to operate Atlanta's sixty-six schools this year was placed on the finance committee. Mr. Hirsch's address was supplemented by speeches from W. D. Hoffman, chairman of the current expenditures committee of the board, and Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of schools.

Although the citizens' committee has not yet agreed on any definite budget, it will ask of city council and the mayor, Mr. Hoffman and other speakers appealed for 30 per cent of the city's group revenue instead of the 26 per cent as provided by law.

Members Nonplussed.

The finance body took the appeal under advisement, but members expressed themselves as being unable to see how the 30 per cent could be granted schools and at the same time operate other departments of the city government. All were deeply interested in the task of reaching a solution of the financial crisis which the department will face during the year.

"Officials of the clearing house association notified me today that its members will advance no further funds to operate the schools," Mr. Hirsch said. "This statement puts the matter squarely up to us, and we must in some way solve the problem of raising enough money to keep them running. We cannot go to the association for another loan this fall."

"It will take $3,130,000 to operate the school department this year, excluding the deficit which must be made up," Mr. Hoffman said. "We are asking you to agree to pay into the school fund 30 per cent of the city's group revenue instead of the 26 per cent which must be paid under the law. We will do our best to cut out every penny of expense possible, and are here to guarantee that we will live within our income whatever it is. If Atlanta wants a good school system, we will give it to her on condition."

Action in Harris County.

Action in Harris county followed continuance of all criminal cases in that county (San Antonio) yesterday as a result of the flood of pardons issued by Mrs. Ferguson. There was no let-up today in the stream of pardons that have been issued from the executive office. Twenty-seven full pardons and one conditional pardon were granted by the governor, the total of her clemency acts amounting to 3,205.

In less than two years Mrs. Ferguson has exceeded by 765 the clemency record for Texas established by her husband, James E. Ferguson, before he was impeached as governor in 1917. Governor Ferguson's statement was in reply to action in Bexar county, where District Attorney C. B. Chambers asserted the executive's pardon policy has made "life and property unsafe."

Ma Defends Record.

"There never has been a pardon issued to a convict from Bexar county that did not bear the indorsement of most if not all the jury and many of the county officials of the county," the governor said.

"It has only been a few weeks since Mr. Chambers himself wrote a letter to the governor stating that he had no objection to the issuance of a certain pardon, and while Judge McCrory has joined Mr. Chambers in casting these stigmas and insinuations at me, as governor, I will be glad to have Mr. Chambers and Judge McCrory explain how it was that Dan Morgan, an escaped convict from the state of Indiana, who was arrested in San Antonio, and while behind held, was granted bond by Judge McCrory, which bond had not yet been paid, and the said man Morgan has left for parts unknown? I will be glad to have Judge McCrory explain to the lawyers of this state under what law he could grant bond to an escaped convict."

GAS PRICE HIKED BY 2 COMPANIES

Standard Oil and Sinclair Add Two Cents to Retail Price, Effective at Once; Others Expect Rise.

With gasoline prices increased two cents per gallon by the Sinclair Refining company Wednesday, announcement was made by the Standard Oil company that a similar advance would be effective in its retail and wholesale prices today. At the same time the Standard Oil of Indiana corporation and the Wofford Oil company declared that gasoline would remain 21 cents at their service stations today, though they anticipated a rise in the near future.

Officials of the Reed Oil corporation stated they expect the price to advance in the next few days but were unable to name the definite date. A two-cent increase in its price, to take effect this morning, was also announced by officials of the Gulf Refining company.

The reason for the increase of two cents on the gallon was generally said to be due to the fact that the former price of 21 cents retail and 18 cents wholesale was too low to permit operation on a profitable basis.

M. C. Smith, assistant division manager of the Pan-American Petroleum corporation, while stating the price of gasoline at the companies' filling stations would not be advanced today, said that crude oil prices have been increasing, a probable sign for an increase in gasoline prices, but he did not know whether his company would advance its prices in the near future.

G. A. Beattie, secretary and treasurer of the Wofford Oil company, declared that the company's filling stations will open up today with gasoline at 21 cents. An increase in the next few days was expected, however, he stated.

Officials of the Standard Oil company, in announcing the two-cent boost in prices effective today throughout Georgia, declared the price of 21 and 18 cents to be too low based on present crude oil prices.

CYRUS WOODS TURNED DOWN FOR I. C. C. POST

Unfavorable Report on President Coolidge's Nomination Is Voted by Eight to Six.

WEEK-OLD FIGHT GOES TO FLOOR

Subcommittee Is Also Directed To Draft Report on Intimations by Senator Steck.

Washington, January 12.—(P)—An unfavorable report on President Coolidge's nomination of Cyrus E. Woods, of Pennsylvania, to be a member of the interstate commerce commission, was voted today by a senate committee, 8 to 6.

As a result, the now week-old battle waged before the interstate commerce committee against the former ambassador to Spain and Japan will be taken to the senate floor within a few days, with the senators from Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee opposing confirmation and those from Pennsylvania supporting Woods.

Besides acting adversely on Woods' nomination, the committee directed a subcommittee to draft a report to the senate on the intimations last Monday by Senator Steck, democrat, Iowa, and withdrawn yesterday before the committee, that Senator-elect Brookhart, republican, Iowa, was a "paid lobbyist" for Woods in his effort to have the senate confirm his nomination.

To bear out his statement to the senate that newspapers had published reports that Brookhart was lobbying for farm relief legislation before congress and was in the pay of farm organizations, Senator Steck presented to the committee an article from the St. Paul Pioneer-Press charging that Brookhart's expenses were being paid by such organizations.

Denial Is Made.

The Iowa senator-elect, who was ousted from the senate at the last session in favor of Steck and who was reelected last November, promptly denied that even his expenses were being paid by farm organizations and demanded to know whether Steck "backed up" the charge.

"No, I present it for the consideration of the committee," Steck replied. "Committee members predicted that the final report to the senate would exonerate Brookhart on all of the charges and intimations that he is a paid lobbyist, which were presented by Senator Steck."

The chief grounds for opposition to Woods' nomination were that he formerly was counsel for the Pittsburgh Coal company, interested in the Lake cargo coal rate case now before the interstate commerce commission and was appointed at the behest of Senator Reed, republican, Pennsylvania, who repeatedly has stated that the business and commercial interests of the Keystone state should have representation on the commission.

Lita Tries To Cut Edna Off Pay Roll

Attaches of Chaplin Studio Fear Loss of Jobs as Suit Nears.

BY GEORGE SHAFER.

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Hollywood, Calif., January 12.—The first conflict between Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chaplin to get a legal airing is likely to center in Mrs. Chaplin's efforts to cut Edna Purviance off the Chaplin studio payroll, assert attorneys for the comedian's suing wife here tonight.

Edwin T. McMurray, of counsel for Mrs. Chaplin, said: "In pursuance of the court's order for a receivership over the Chaplin properties we served processes at the studio today."

"We have been informed that Edna Purviance, who at one time was Chaplin's leading woman, has been on the Chaplin payroll for $250 a week for some years. In this time Miss Purviance has not been working for Chaplin films, we are informed."

"This matter is being investigated. If our information is correct it is the opinion of Mrs. Chaplin's counsel and this will be recommended to the receivers, that this sum of $250 a week should be paid for the support of Mr. Chaplin's two children, who have not received anything from their father in the last month, instead of going to Miss Purviance."

The Chaplin studios were a scene of dismay after two squads of process servers, deputy sheriffs and private detectives invaded the gates this morning.

Continued on Page 4, Column 5.

SACASA DENIES CHARGES MADE FOR ADMINISTRATION

Special Message of Coolidge To Congress Is Declared Tantamount To Declaration of War.

REPORT OF MEXICAN AGREEMENT DENIED

Sacasa Asserts First Arms Bought for Uprising Came From U. S. With Official Sanction.

Puerto Cabezas, Nicaragua, January 12.—President Coolidge's special message to congress and Mexico is tantamount to a declaration of war against the Nicaraguan people if it is confirmed by the United States government, Liberal President Juan B. Sacasa told the United News tonight in an exclusive statement.

Sacasa declared sections of the Coolidge message were "erroneous" and "inaccurate." He denied charges regarding Mexican support of the revolutionary movement and said that the first arms bought for the present uprising came from the United States with the sanction of the American state department.

Alliance Feined.

"In order to divert American public opinion," said Sacasa, "extraneous reasons without foundation are given to explain intervention. Among these are claims by an alliance between Nicaraguan liberals and Mexico, the need for protection of American canal rights and the need for justice to American lives and property. There exists no motive or menace of any kind against the United States."

Sacasa's statement opened with categorical denial of any agreement with Mexico or any other government. "We bought arms first from the United States and then wherever we could get them," he said. "We were encouraged in our attitude by declarations of the United States department and its minister to Central America, made after the Chamorro-Diaz coup d'etat."

"The assertion of President Coolidge that Mexican officers fight in our army and that the Mexican government is helping the revolution is untrue. Not a single Mexican agent was on our shores, but many more warships from the United States are announced to arrive shortly, and are being sent to Nicaragua to sustain the Diaz government against the constitutional president and the Nicaraguan people."

Sacasa expressed surprise that President Coolidge insisted the United States government should uphold the Diaz regime in Managua.

"If this statement is confirmed," said Sacasa, "it would be tantamount to a declaration of war against the Nicaraguan people whom I legally represent. Such confirmation would leave me no other course than to resign, abandoning my posts to economize for Nicaragua if for nothing else."

"It is inaccurate to state that liberal representatives refused to attend a conference known here as J. H. Gilbride, said that his real name was Warren P. Sprague, and that he was an advertising solicitor for a New York newspaper, according to the sheriff. He also said that they were not married, the sheriff stated.

No trouble is anticipated here when they arrive, though numerous charges are to be preferred against Sprague by the Lowe family. The Loves indicated early this morning that they would press kidnapping charges. Officers are considering, also, the placing of a federal charge of violating the Mann white slave act against Sprague.

The sheriff said that Sprague in his story of his career said that he was married and the father of five children in New York.

Miss Lowe refuted previous statements concerning her marriage and the interview in which she acquiesced in statements made by Sprague.

On the trip from Camden county Sprague after disclosing what he said was his real identity said that he was "violently in love with Georgia Lowe and was willing to give his life for her, and was not afraid to pay the penalty for his crime," according to officers.

At dinner while the couple were eating dinner some one put on a record on a talking machine, "I want to go where you go," etc., exclaimed Sprague as he tried to plug his ears.

The story that the girl cried all night in a hotel room in Macon stands up. Georgia Lowe said that that was the truth. She said that they went from here to Macon; then to Lake City, Fla., to Tampa, then to St. Petersburg and on to Miami and then came back to White Oak, Ga., where they spent a day and a half.

They left there hurriedly, the girl stated, when Mrs. Lula Baker, proprietor of the little hotel, became suspicious of them.

They tried to hide out, the story goes, and driving away from White Oak they drove on to a little-used road.

Governor Walker was not in the city at the time the report was filed in his office. He will return Thursday and will set a date for a final hearing of the plea for a commutation of Swain's sentence.

Continued on Page 4, Column 4.

SUPPORT OF CONGRESS FOR ADMINISTRATION POLICY IS PREDICTED

Browning Trial Evidence :: SECRET HEARING OF SCANDAL CASE LIKELY :: May Never Become Public

Edward W. Browning and his bride, Peaches Heenan Browning, photographed at a time when they proclaimed their undying love for each other.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., January 12.—(P)—Allegedly scandalous details of the charges brought by Edward W. Browning, New York real estate agent, against his wife, Frances Heenan (Peaches) Browning, and those filed by her against him in their mutual suits for separation, may never become public. The suits may be heard "in chambers," it was announced today, when decision was made to transfer the cases here from Carmel, N. Y., to Poughkeepsie for January 24.

The decision to shift the scene of the trial from Carmel, which had made elaborate preparations for the proceedings, was reached at a conference of counsel for Mr. and Mrs. Browning with Supreme Court Justice Seeger at White Plains yesterday. The court, it was said, approved the change because of the comparative inaccessibility of Carmel.

Intimations that the testimony would be taken in Justice Seeger's chambers were heard here today, although there was no confirmation of the reports. Justice Seeger has already indicated that he will bar photographers from the trial, and it was recalled further that Supreme Court Justice McHugh, in denying recent petitions for a preliminary examination of the papers, expressed the opinion that the "alibi" as he termed the details of the actions, should be kept from the public.

THOMSON GIRL'S WEDDING DENIED

Couple Who Left Georgia 10 Days Ago Returned to Thomson; Marriage Denied by Both.

Thomson, Ga., January 12.—(P)—Georgia Lowe, who disappeared from here December 23, was returned to Thomson early this morning and is spending the night at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Esther Jones.

J. H. Gilbride, alias Sprague, is being held in the city jail on a charge of kidnapping, and he will be taken to Augusta later in the day to be held there until the March term of McDuffie county superior court.

On the way from Jessup, Ga., Miss Lowe told Sheriff Norris that they had not been married.

The man who accompanied her and who had been known here as J. H. Gilbride, said that his real name was Warren P. Sprague, and that he was an advertising solicitor for a New York newspaper, according to the sheriff. He also said that they were not married, the sheriff stated.

No trouble is anticipated here when they arrive, though numerous charges are to be preferred against Sprague by the Lowe family. The Loves indicated early this morning that they would press kidnapping charges. Officers are considering, also, the placing of a federal charge of violating the Mann white slave act against Sprague.

The sheriff said that Sprague in his story of his career said that he was married and the father of five children in New York.

Miss Lowe refuted previous statements concerning her marriage and the interview in which she acquiesced in statements made by Sprague.

On the trip from Camden county Sprague after disclosing what he said was his real identity said that he was "violently in love with Georgia Lowe and was willing to give his life for her, and was not afraid to pay the penalty for his crime," according to officers.

At dinner while the couple were eating dinner some one put on a record on a talking machine, "I want to go where you go," etc., exclaimed Sprague as he tried to plug his ears.

The story that the girl cried all night in a hotel room in Macon stands up. Georgia Lowe said that that was the truth. She said that they went from here to Macon; then to Lake City, Fla., to Tampa, then to St. Petersburg and on to Miami and then came back to White Oak, Ga., where they spent a day and a half.

They left there hurriedly, the girl stated, when Mrs. Lula Baker, proprietor of the little hotel, became suspicious of them.

Continued on Page 4, Column 4.

KELLOGG CHARGES BOLSHEVIST PLOT AGAINST AMERICA

Sacasa Accused of Making Deal With Calles for Support of Nicaraguan Revolution.

SOVIET INFLUENCE CHARGED IN MEXICO

Communists Seeking Destruction of "American Imperialism" in Caribbean, Kellogg Claims.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Washington, January 12.—Sensational disclosures of the Mexican government's activity in arming the Nicaraguan revolutionists and in anti-American plotting in that region of bolshevist penetration of Mexico and Central America aimed at the United States were made by Secretary of State Kellogg to the senate foreign relations committee today.

The secretary left with the committee a mass of reports purporting to show that the communists are seeking to enlist Mexico and other Latin American countries in the movement for overthrow of the government of the United States by force, and that they have proclaimed the destruction of "American imperialism" in the Caribbean as a necessary preliminary to that undertaking.

Communist Plot.

The support of the Nicaraguan revolution by President Calles of Mexico, who is working in close harmony with the Russian soviet government, is viewed by the Coolidge administration as the fruition of the communist plot against the United States in a region of vital importance by virtue of the situation therein of the Panama canal and the Nicaraguan canal route.

Mr. Kellogg gave the committee the names of the ships which carried the Mexican government arms and ammunition to Dr. Sacasa, leader of the Nicaraguan revolution against the Diaz government which has been recognized by the United States.

All of these ships flew the Mexican flag and all but one sailed from Mexican ports. The state department has photographs, Mr. Kellogg said, of the boxes and rifles, cartridges and other munitions showing by the labels that they emanated from Mexican government stores.

The department also is in possession of documentary evidence of the directions issued by the Mexican government for the shipment of the arms to Sacasa. Other information supplied by Mr. Kellogg related to the conference Sacasa had with President Calles of Mexico during the month the Nicaraguan revolutionist spent in Mexico City last summer arranging for the shipment of arms.

Continued on Page 3, Column 1.

The Weather

INCREASING CLOUDINESS.

Washington—Forecast: Georgia: Increasing cloudiness and warmer followed by rain in west and north portion Thursday afternoon or night; Friday rain and warmer.

Local Weather Report.

Highest temperature ..... 40
Lowest temperature ..... 23
Mean temperature ..... 31
Normal temperature ..... 42
Rainfall in past 24 hours, ins. .... .03
Deficiency since last of mo., ins. .... .352
Total rainfall since Jan. 1, ins. .... .192
Deficiency since Jan. 1, ins. .... .192

7 a.m. N.T.P.M.
Dry temperature ..... 23 34 36
Wet bulb ..... 20 30 30
Relative humidity ..... 55 66 47

Reports of Weather Bureau Stations

STATIONS AND STATE OF WEATHER	Temperature (F.)	Rain (in.)	High (in.)	Low (in.)
ATLANTA, clear	36	0.00	40	23
Augusta, clear	38	0.00	40	23
Birmingham, cloudy	40	0.00	40	23
Boston, cloudy	34	0.00	38	20
Buffalo, cloudy	26	0.00	30	18
Charleston, clear	38	0.00	40	23
Chicago, snow	28	0.00	30	18
Denver, snow	14	0.00	23	14
Des Moines, cloudy	34	0.00	38	20
Galveston, cloudy	62	0.00	64	60
Hatteras, clear	32	0.00	34	20
Hartford, clear	32	0.00	34	20
Indianapolis, clear	48	0.00	50	36
Kansas City, rain	30	0.08	32	18
Memphis, cloudy	42	0.00	44	30
Mobile, cloudy	48	0.00	50	36
Montgomery, cloudy	42	0.00	44	30
New Orleans, cloudy	54	0.00	56	40
New York, clear	30	0.00	32	18
North Platte, snow	10	0.00	12	08
Oklahoma City, rain	30	0.08	32	18
Phoenix, clear	60	0.00	64	60
Pittsburgh, clear	38	0.00	40	23
Raleigh, clear	48	0.00	50	36
San Francisco, pt. cldy.	56	0.00	58	50
St. Louis, rain	32	0.08	34	20
Salt Lake City, rain	38	0.00	40	23
Savannah, clear	48	0.00	50	36
Tampa, cloudy	58	0.00	60	40
Toledo, cloudy	28	0.00	30	18
Vicksburg, cloudy	52	0.00	54	40
Washington, clear	30	0.00	32	18

C. F. von HERRMANN, Meteorologist, Weather Bureau.

RESCUE VESSELS ON ROCKS FREED

Newport, R. I., January 12.—The government boats Triton and the L-49 and the range boat 528, which piled on a ledge in Narragansett bay while trying to refloat the freighter Pomham, were hauled clear late Wednesday.

The naval tug No. 77 and two private tugs pulled the two ships clear of the Rose Island ledge after more than a four-hour battle.

The Pomham, however, was still fast on the rocks and it was indicated no further effort would be made to right her.

All men had been removed from the Pomham after they had assisted in clearing her cargo.

The three ships, carrying a total of 18 men, went on in an unsuccessful attempt to free the Pomham. The triple accident occurred during a heavy swell that battered the craft continuously.

The L-49 was soon freed, however, and stood by. The range boat 528 had succeeded in getting alongside the Pomham and removing Captain Richard Windsor, when it suddenly piled on the ledge. Hardly had this occurred when the other two government boats also were grounded.

BANKERS BAR LOANS TO SCHOOL BOARD

Continued from First Page.

that the money to maintain it is furnished. If, on the other hand, an insufficient amount is provided, we will have a crippled system."

Sutton Voices Appeal.

"I appeal to you as representatives of the citizenry of this city to provide adequate funds to maintain the high standard of Atlanta's public schools," Mr. Sutton said in outlining the importance of getting enough money to pay for an adequate educational program for the youth of the city.

"Our young people are the most important part of our city, and we should be loathe to adopt a policy of retrenchment such as we will be forced into unless enough money is raised. I feel kindly to Georgia Tech and believe it is one of the state's greatest assets. I feel that the money the city pays annually to help maintain it could be used to advantage in the school department, and that this, augmented by the amount the county allocates for the same purpose, would pay half the salaries of kindergarten teachers of Atlanta."

Tech was given $50,000 by the city last year, and has made a similar request several years.

"Whether it is sentiment, or what not, my only purpose is to give Atlanta children every educational advantage possible," continued Mr. Sutton. "We can't do that if our finances are too limited to permit us to house them properly. At present there are school buildings within the city limits worse than those I attended in 1880. We must do something. Southern boys and girls are a part of the world, but if we fail to provide adequate educational facilities, they will face the world handicapped."

In a voice shaken with emotion, Mr. Sutton stressed the importance of raising money to place the school department on "a sound basis." He outlined the progress of the school system, and told of phenomenal increases in school population due to great industrial strides Atlanta has taken in the past several years.

He blamed this for the crisis in the department, saying that although the population has increased by large percentages, school revenue has not kept an even pace, thus forcing the department into debt in an effort to maintain equal advantages to all students.

Conference Is Held.

Preceding the appearance of the joint committee from the schools before the finance committee Wednesday, a conference was held at noon in the office of Mayor E. N. Ragsdale. In addition to the mayor, those who attended included Alderman J. Allen Couch, chairman of the schools committee of city council; Dr. R. M. Eubank, president of the board of education; R. R. Ritchie, assistant superintendent of schools; George Powell and W. V. Gaines, members of the board of education; Mr. Hirsch, Mr. Sutton and Mr. Hoffman.

Although Mr. Hirsch emphasized the fact that the school department must have additional funds to retire the deficit, he promised that his committee stands ready to enforce such rigid economy as to keep expenditures within the amount of money that is finally agreed upon.

"The school department must face the fact," he said, "that expenditures during the past few years have been increased in a greater proportion than is necessary to the growth of attendance. It will, therefore, be necessary to cut all items of capital expenditure from your budget in order to remedy this situation."

"My committee has taken the position that its sole duty this year is to keep expenditures within whatever funds the school department may receive, and we expect to enforce the policy with whatever means we may have. I have no criticism with the manner in which the schools have been operated, but it is our duty to keep the schools from running into debt again."

"My committee has met with the clearing house banks at their own request and the banks have asked us to say to the board of education and the general council that they will under no circumstances agree to lend money to the schools to relieve a deficit similar to that which occurred last fall."

The appeal from the school department consumed the entire afternoon session of the finance committee, and Mr. Hirsch announced that his committee would submit some recommendation about Saturday. It is supposed that it will be the budget on which the school board and the citizens' committee agree.

During the morning session many other requests for funds were filed with the finance committee.

TURNER IS OUSTED FROM ALMSHOUSE

Continued from First Page.

county health chief; F. B. Davis, chief engineer of the courthouse; J. S. Heard, Jr., county bond clerk; R. E. L. Brown, county agricultural agent, and Hughes Robert in charge of the sale of confiscated automobiles.

Employees will be paid monthly, according to a motion voted. An appropriation of $250 per month was voted to defray expenses of the Atlanta convention bureau. The commission voted to contribute $75 per month to the American Rescue Workers and to the Volunteers of America, and $50 per month to the Holmes institute.

The board voted to furnish labor and materials valued at $25,000 toward widening of East Fair street from Capitol avenue to Pearl street. A contribution of $10,000 has been made by the Georgia Railway & Power company for this purpose. Widening of East Fair street will entail the expenditure of approximately $50,000, the citizens pointed out.

The street is now carrying seven different lines of trolley traffic in addition to vehicular traffic, the citizens pointed out, and if the project is completed it will provide a thoroughfare 57 1/2 feet wide, which will serve the entire section.

Materials and work estimated at $7,842 will be given toward paving Glenwood avenue from the A. & W. P. belt line to South Moreland avenue. This will aid the citizens in securing the paving of the street with the cooperation of the city.

To Furnish Labor.

The county will furnish labor for resurfacing The Prado from the north entrance of Ledmont park to South Prado, if the city will furnish the materials and other necessary funds, according to a motion unanimously passed by the board.

A petition to declare as a public road a strip of land running from Fulton avenue to Peachtree road, thence to railroad and to the Chesapeake bridge road was ordered filed and advertised as required by law. Oakdale road from Wesley avenue to Peachtree-Dunwoody road will be paved. The grading and paving of Mobile avenue and Fairchild circle in Peachtree Hills was referred to the public works committee. Temporary relief, calling for scraping and placing of rock and gravel on Wesley avenue in College Park and Wilson Mill road, was voted.

Grading and paving a road running from Piedmont road to Palmetto road was referred to the public works committee. A request for the commission to pay a mortgage on the community home for delinquent girls was denied after the county attorney ruled that the board had no legal authority to take over the property and to operate it as a county institution.

To Remove Dirt.

Mrs. Julia O'Keefe Nelson asked the board to remove a quantity of dirt and to grade around the O'Keefe Junior High school and the Joe Brown Junior High school. This was referred to the public works committee.

The public works committee was given authority to act after investigating the advisability of opening Techwood drive.

Oil Man Ends Life.

Little Rock, Ark., January 12.—(AP) E. M. Telle, 50, said to be an oil man, shot himself in a room in a local hotel late today. In letters to his wife and family, the management of the hotel, he gave financial difficulties as the reason for his act.

Two Boys Killed In Auto Accident

Waycross, Ga., January 12.—(Special.)—The details of the gruesome tragedy in which Alton Rigdon, 16, and Troy Buchanan, 17, were killed Monday night on the highway 11 miles north of here, were told in Waycross today, revealing horrible suffering and pathos.

When a car driven by Troy Buchanan turned over, pinning the occupants in a pool of water in the roadside ditch, young Rigdon's neck was broken, causing instant death, but the youthful driver of the automobile, wedged beneath the wreckage and suffering untold agony, lived approximately an hour and a half. He was helplessly imprisoned and frantic cries for assistance brought no relief. When he was extricated from the mass of wreckage he was pronounced dead.

Mrs. Newton Crosby, of Waycross, third occupant of the car, was not seriously injured. She was the first person released from the car and was rushed to Waycross for medical attention.

According to information received here this afternoon, Buchanan and his cousin, Rigdon, had gone to the home of Mrs. Nellie Buchanan, near Fairfax, to visit the former's twin brother, Roy Buchanan, who is ill. Mrs. Crosby, who is from Waycross,

TWO BOYS KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Waycross, Ga., January 12.—(Special.)—The details of the gruesome tragedy in which Alton Rigdon, 16, and Troy Buchanan, 17, were killed Monday night on the highway 11 miles north of here, were told in Waycross today, revealing horrible suffering and pathos.

When a car driven by Troy Buchanan turned over, pinning the occupants in a pool of water in the roadside ditch, young Rigdon's neck was broken, causing instant death, but the youthful driver of the automobile, wedged beneath the wreckage and suffering untold agony, lived approximately an hour and a half. He was helplessly imprisoned and frantic cries for assistance brought no relief. When he was extricated from the mass of wreckage he was pronounced dead.

Mrs. Newton Crosby, of Waycross, third occupant of the car, was not seriously injured. She was the first person released from the car and was rushed to Waycross for medical attention.

According to information received here this afternoon, Buchanan and his cousin, Rigdon, had gone to the home of Mrs. Nellie Buchanan, near Fairfax, to visit the former's twin brother, Roy Buchanan, who is ill. Mrs. Crosby, who is from Waycross, also was visiting her sister, Mrs. Nellie Buchanan, in a car which was returning to Waycross, in a car which had driven from here, she was asked to carry young Rigdon and Buchanan several miles down the highway. The two boys contemplated attending a party which was being given in the Wareboro neighborhood Monday night and when they reached the fork of the old Dixie highway, three miles northwest of Wareboro, the two young men got out of the car, intending to walk the remainder of the distance, down a by-road to the party.

It is said that the boys changed their minds and asked Mrs. Crosby to drive them a short distance to Fairfax, which she agreed to do, one of the boys, it is said, taking the wheel. The accident occurred when the car struck a sand bank and turned over into the ditch.

Passing motorists discovered the wreck and with aid summoned from nearby farmhouses lifted the car off the victims, the two boys being dead. Mrs. Crosby was rushed to Waycross by her husband, Newton Crosby.

PAT M'DERMOTT
GIVEN LIFE TERM
IN OHIO PRISON

Canton, Ohio, January 12.—(AP) Pat M'Dermott today was sentenced to life imprisonment in the Ohio penitentiary for the murder of Don R. Mellett, Canton editor, here last July. Motion for a new trial was overruled. "I did not have a fair trial," was M'Dermott's only comment.

When Mrs. Crosby started on the return trip to Waycross, in a car which had driven from here, she was asked to carry young Rigdon and Buchanan several miles down the highway. The two boys contemplated attending a party which was being given in the Wareboro neighborhood Monday night and when they reached the fork of the old Dixie highway, three miles northwest of Wareboro, the two young men got out of the car, intending to walk the remainder of the distance, down a by-road to the party.

It is said that the boys changed their minds and asked Mrs. Crosby to drive them a short distance to Fairfax, which she agreed to do, one of the boys, it is said, taking the wheel. The accident occurred when the car struck a sand bank and turned over into the ditch.

Passing motorists discovered the wreck and with aid summoned from nearby farmhouses lifted the car off the victims, the two boys being dead. Mrs. Crosby was rushed to Waycross by her husband, Newton Crosby.

MAN WHO KILLED
13 FOUND GUILTY

Farwell, Texas, January 12.—(AP) George J. Hassell, farmer who confessed to slaying 13 persons, including his wife and her eight children, today was found guilty of the murder of his step-son, Aldon Hassell, by a jury in district court here. The death penalty was recommended. The jury deliberated less than two hours. Hassell sat unmoved as the verdict was read shortly before one o'clock this morning and when led to his cell maintained the same indifference shown since his arrest recently when the bodies of his wife and her children were found in a dugout on their ranch near here.

In his confession he told of marrying his brother's widow after her husband had been killed while working with Hassell on an Oklahoma farm. He then moved to the panhandle ranch here, bringing his brother's eight children, who ranged in age from two to 21 years.

During the forepart of December he told of an argument with his wife when she accused him of attacking her oldest daughter. Hassell declared he killed her with a hammer and then fearing detection of the crime, choked and beat to death the children and placed them in the dugout.

He also confessed to the slaying of a woman and three children in California several years ago, but refused to give the names or the location.

While the trial was in progress here, authorities reopened an investigation of the death of his brother, whom Hassell said was kicked to death by a mule.

The trial required only two days and consisted mostly of the reading of Hassell's confessions. No announcement was made as to the disposition of the eight remaining indictments against him charging murder.

Here's Speedy Relief From
Bunions and Soft Corns

Jacobs' Pharmacy Co. Says Emerald Oil Must Give Complete Satisfaction or Money Cheerfully Refunded.

Get a two-ounce bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) today. Every well stocked drug store has this, with the distinct understanding that your money will be cheerfully returned if it does not reduce the inflammation, soreness and pain much quicker than any remedy you ever used.

Your bunions may be so swollen and inflamed that you think you can't go another step. Your shoes may feel as if they are cutting right into the flesh. You feel sick all over with the pain and torture and pray for quick relief. What's to be done?

Two or three applications of Moone's Emerald Oil and in fifteen minutes the pain and soreness disappears. A few more applications at regular intervals and the swelling reduces.

And as for Soft Corns a few applications each night at bed time and they just seem to shrivel right up and scale off.

No matter how discouraged you have been with pads, shields, or other applications, if you have not tried Emerald Oil then you have something to learn.

It's a wonderful formula—this combination of essential oils with camphor and other antiseptics so marvelous that thousands of bottles are sold annually for reducing varicose or swollen veins.

Jacobs Pharmacy Co. and every good druggist guarantees Moone's Emerald Oil to end your foot troubles or money back.—(adv.)

How Doctors Treat
Colds and the Flu

To break up a cold overnight or cut short an attack of gripe, influenza, sore throat or tonsillitis, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the purified and refined calomel compound tablet that gives you the effects of calomel and salts combined, without the unpleasant effects of either.

One or two Calotabs at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, work or pleasure. Next morning your cold has vanished, your system is thoroughly purified and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please—no danger.

Get a family package, containing full directions, only 35 cents. At any drug store.—(adv.)

Tired Eyes Make Tired Typists

Typists working at poorly lighted desks usually have defective vision, which retards output. Eyes work better and last longer with a light that suits them. They deserve it, too.

Nature made daylight for eyes. That's why every Emeraldite has a special screen that changes ordinary electric light into soft, eye-saving daylight—ideal for reading or working. Emeraldite offices look better—have contented workers—no eye strain—greater output—and daylight on every desk.

Genuine Emeraldites are branded for your protection, and have the Daylite Screen. Buy them by name.

Sold by office supply and electrical dealers. H. G. McFadden & Co., 32 Warren St., N. Y. Established 1874.

EMERALDITE KIND TO THE EYES

CARTER ELECTRIC COMPANY

Emeraldite Distributors
For Sale by
Electrical Dealers and Office
Supply Houses.

FORGOT HER STOMACH!

How foolish to let your stomach dictate your diet. It is possible you eat lots of things you now deny yourself—have you ever taken a Stuart's tablet? Harmless, but the effect is there—distress from indigestion often ended in two minutes.

Do try Stuart's tablets! See how serene they make the stomach; how even one will sweeten the whole system and insure the breath. A sweet stomach for twenty-five cents.

Free BOX NOW
Get a pocket metal box of Stuart's tablets for a quarter—keep it filled from the big 60c size. Sold in every drugstore, or full box free; write F. A. Stuart Co., Dept. N G, Marshall, Mich.

STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS

Blotches Mar Beauty

Zemo for Itching, Irritations,
Pimples and Blotches.
Apply Any Time

No more worry about ugly skin irritations. For you can have a clear smooth skin. Zemo, the pleasant-to-use clean liquid for itching, blotchy skin—banishes Blackheads, Ringworms and Pimples. Use any time. Get Zemo now. At druggists—60c and $1.00.

zemo
FOR SKIN IRRITATIONS

TWO BOYS KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Waycross, Ga., January 12.—(Special.)—The details of the gruesome tragedy in which Alton Rigdon, 16, and Troy Buchanan, 17, were killed Monday night on the highway 11 miles north of here, were told in Waycross today, revealing horrible suffering and pathos.

When a car driven by Troy Buchanan turned over, pinning the occupants in a pool of water in the roadside ditch, young Rigdon's neck was broken, causing instant death, but the youthful driver of the automobile, wedged beneath the wreckage and suffering untold agony, lived approximately an hour and a half. He was helplessly imprisoned and frantic cries for assistance brought no relief. When he was extricated from the mass of wreckage he was pronounced dead.

Mrs. Newton Crosby, of Waycross, third occupant of the car, was not seriously injured. She was the first person released from the car and was rushed to Waycross for medical attention.

According to information received here this afternoon, Buchanan and his cousin, Rigdon, had gone to the home of Mrs. Nellie Buchanan, near Fairfax, to visit the former's twin brother, Roy Buchanan, who is ill. Mrs. Crosby, who is from Waycross, also was visiting her sister, Mrs. Nellie Buchanan, in a car which was returning to Waycross, in a car which had driven from here, she was asked to carry young Rigdon and Buchanan several miles down the highway. The two boys contemplated attending a party which was being given in the Wareboro neighborhood Monday night and when they reached the fork of the old Dixie highway, three miles northwest of Wareboro, the two young men got out of the car, intending to walk the remainder of the distance, down a by-road to the party.

It is said that the boys changed their minds and asked Mrs. Crosby to drive them a short distance to Fairfax, which she agreed to do, one of the boys, it is said, taking the wheel. The accident occurred when the car struck a sand bank and turned over into the ditch.

Passing motorists discovered the wreck and with aid summoned from nearby farmhouses lifted the car off the victims, the two boys being dead. Mrs. Crosby was rushed to Waycross by her husband, Newton Crosby.

PAT M'DERMOTT
GIVEN LIFE TERM
IN OHIO PRISON

Canton, Ohio, January 12.—(AP) Pat M'Dermott today was sentenced to life imprisonment in the Ohio penitentiary for the murder of Don R. Mellett, Canton editor, here last July. Motion for a new trial was overruled. "I did not have a fair trial," was M'Dermott's only comment.

When Mrs. Crosby started on the return trip to Waycross, in a car which had driven from here, she was asked to carry young Rigdon and Buchanan several miles down the highway. The two boys contemplated attending a party which was being given in the Wareboro neighborhood Monday night and when they reached the fork of the old Dixie highway, three miles northwest of Wareboro, the two young men got out of the car, intending to walk the remainder of the distance, down a by-road to the party.

It is said that the boys changed their minds and asked Mrs. Crosby to drive them a short distance to Fairfax, which she agreed to do, one of the boys, it is said, taking the wheel. The accident occurred when the car struck a sand bank and turned over into the ditch.

Passing motorists discovered the wreck and with aid summoned from nearby farmhouses lifted the car off the victims, the two boys being dead. Mrs. Crosby was rushed to Waycross by her husband, Newton Crosby.

MAN WHO KILLED
13 FOUND GUILTY

Farwell, Texas, January 12.—(AP) George J. Hassell, farmer who confessed to slaying 13 persons, including his wife and her eight children, today was found guilty of the murder of his step-son, Aldon Hassell, by a jury in district court here. The death penalty was recommended. The jury deliberated less than two hours. Hassell sat unmoved as the verdict was read shortly before one o'clock this morning and when led to his cell maintained the same indifference shown since his arrest recently when the bodies of his wife and her children were found in a dugout on their ranch near here.

In his confession he told of marrying his brother's widow after her husband had been killed while working with Hassell on an Oklahoma farm. He then moved to the panhandle ranch here, bringing his brother's eight children, who ranged in age from two to 21 years.

During the forepart of December he told of an argument with his wife when she accused him of attacking her oldest daughter. Hassell declared he killed her with a hammer and then fearing detection of the crime, choked and beat to death the children and placed them in the dugout.

He also confessed to the slaying of a woman and three children in California several years ago, but refused to give the names or the location.

While the trial was in progress here, authorities reopened an investigation of the death of his brother, whom Hassell said was kicked to death by a mule.

The trial required only two days and consisted mostly of the reading of Hassell's confessions. No announcement was made as to the disposition of the eight remaining indictments against him charging murder.

Here's Speedy Relief From
Bunions and Soft Corns

Jacobs' Pharmacy Co. Says Emerald Oil Must Give Complete Satisfaction or Money Cheerfully Refunded.

Get a two-ounce bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) today. Every well stocked drug store has this, with the distinct understanding that your money will be cheerfully returned if it does not reduce the inflammation, soreness and pain much quicker than any remedy you ever used.

Your bunions may be so swollen and inflamed that you think you can't go another step. Your shoes may feel as if they are cutting right into the flesh. You feel sick all over with the pain and torture and pray for quick relief. What's to be done?

Two or three applications of Moone's Emerald Oil and in fifteen minutes the pain and soreness disappears. A few more applications at regular intervals and the swelling reduces.

And as for Soft Corns a few applications each night at bed time and they just seem to shrivel right up and scale off.

No matter how discouraged you have been with pads, shields, or other applications, if you have not tried Emerald Oil then you have something to learn.

It's a wonderful formula—this combination of essential oils with camphor and other antiseptics so marvelous that thousands of bottles are sold annually for reducing varicose or swollen veins.

Jacobs Pharmacy Co. and every good druggist guarantees Moone's Emerald Oil to end your foot troubles or money back.—(adv.)

How Doctors Treat
Colds and the Flu

To break up a cold overnight or cut short an attack of gripe, influenza, sore throat or tonsillitis, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the purified and refined calomel compound tablet that gives you the effects of calomel and salts combined, without the unpleasant effects of either.

One or two Calotabs at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, work or pleasure. Next morning your cold has vanished, your system is thoroughly purified and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please—no danger.

Get a family package, containing full directions, only 35 cents. At any drug store.—(adv.)

Tired Eyes Make
Tired Typists

Typists working at poorly lighted desks usually have defective vision, which retards output. Eyes work better and last longer with a light that suits them. They deserve it, too.

Nature made daylight for eyes. That's why every Emeraldite has a special screen that changes ordinary electric light into soft, eye-saving daylight—ideal for reading or working. Emeraldite offices look better—have contented workers—no eye strain—greater output—and daylight on every desk.

Genuine Emeraldites are branded for your protection, and have the Daylite Screen. Buy them by name.

Sold by office supply and electrical dealers. H. G. McFadden & Co., 32 Warren St., N. Y. Established 1874.

EMERALDITE
KIND TO THE EYES

CARTER ELECTRIC COMPANY

Emeraldite Distributors
For Sale by
Electrical Dealers and Office
Supply Houses.

FORGOT HER STOMACH!

How foolish to let your stomach dictate your diet. It is possible you eat lots of things you now deny yourself—have you ever taken a Stuart's tablet? Harmless, but the effect is there—distress from indigestion often ended in two minutes.

Do try Stuart's tablets! See how serene they make the stomach; how even one will sweeten the whole system and insure the breath. A sweet stomach for twenty-five cents.

Free BOX NOW
Get a pocket metal box of Stuart's tablets for a quarter—keep it filled from the big 60c size. Sold in every drugstore, or full box free; write F. A. Stuart Co., Dept. N G, Marshall, Mich.

STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS

Blotches Mar Beauty

Zemo for Itching, Irritations,
Pimples and Blotches.
Apply Any Time

No more worry about ugly skin irritations. For you can have a clear smooth skin. Zemo, the pleasant-to-use clean liquid for itching, blotchy skin—banishes Blackheads, Ringworms and Pimples. Use any time. Get Zemo now. At druggists—60c and $1.00.

zemo
FOR SKIN IRRITATIONS

POLLY WANT A CRACKER

ARE your opinions your own, or are they those of a clever propagandist? Are the phrases and conclusions you are voicing about war debts and cancellation, armament and disarmament, World Court and League of Nations, your own? Or are you unconsciously parroting the iterated and reiterated ideas of European and American propagandists?

The most important lesson we can learn is to recognize propaganda for just what it is—and then to get the other facts—those that the propagandist ignores—and make up our minds for ourselves. Gareth Garrett's article, "A Primer of Propaganda," teaches that lesson. In The Saturday Evening Post, now on sale, five cents.

THE MACGILLICUDDIE

By James Warner Bellah

Even after four years of war, blood-guilt lay heavy on the soul of Wing Commander Gamaliel MacGillcuddie, and he fought and killed with a great pity in his heart—until, on the bleak shore of his own homeland, he saw a sight that transformed him into a merciless avenger. A grim story, this—but one you'll never forget. In The Saturday Evening Post, now on sale, five cents.

KELLOGG SEES DANGER IN BOLSHIEVISM

Continued from First Page.

for the backing of the Mexican government for his undertaking in Nicaragua.

Makes Deal With Calles.
Sacasa made his deal with Calles after visiting Washington in the spring of 1926 with the hope of getting the United States to send him back to Nicaragua on a battleship. Secretary Kellogg said he did not see Sacasa at that time. Failing in his quest here, Sacasa went directly to Mexico City and joined forces with Calles.

The indications tonight are that as a result of the president's message relating events in Nicaragua and Kellogg's amplification of administration policy, Mr. Coolidge will have the backing of congress in the course he is pursuing to put down the Nicaraguan revolution and protect American interests in Central America.

Mr. Kellogg was closely questioned for two hours or more by senators who have been critical of the administration policy. He answered with a wealth of detail on nearly every point touched upon. After the session ended it transpired that an overwhelming majority of the senators composing

Down the Gangplank PARIS
in three hours

No long drawn out train ride—a dash through lovely, mellow Normandy... add this experience to the pleasure of your Atlantic crossing... Walk into France at the French Line gangplank in New York... At Le Havre de Paris: just another gangplank... then the boat trip—

Paris in 3 hours
Four One-Class Cabin Liners sail direct to Havre... the Riviera an overnight trip... The New York-Bordeaux-Vigo service leads to colorful southern France and Spain.

Paris, Feb. 5
De Grasse, Feb. 17
France, Feb. 19

French Line

603 Healey Bldg., Atlanta

Write us or any French Line Agent or recognized Tourist Office for brochures

ECZEMA

Relieve that itching, burning torment and start the healing with

Resinol*Engineers Can't Have Piles!

The seat in an engine cab is no place for piles! No man whose work is strenuous need fear them. Nor lose an hour's time because of them. Pyramid is certain and instant relief.

Why does anybody suffer one day from piles? Only because they haven't heard of Pyramid! For a single suppository, used in a moment's privacy, brings absolute relief. Yes, even when they are the painful bleeding kind, or protruding. Ask any druggist!

Sixty cents the box, the world around, or free box to try, if you mail coupon

PYRAMID DRUG CO.
1900 Pyramid Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Please send me a box plainly wrapped, sealed, postpaid, and entirely free.

Name .....

Street .....

P.O. ....

the committee, including some of the Coolidge critics, are convinced that the administration had justified its course completely.

Plans Indorsement.
Senator Moses, republican, New Hampshire, who initiated the inquiry with a resolution calling for the correspondence between Washington and the Diaz government, contemplates introducing a resolution indorsing the administration's Nicaraguan policy.

"The president's message and Secretary Kellogg's statement today have satisfied me that the United States has recognized the lawfully constituted government of Nicaragua, and that the administration has taken a commendable course in protecting our interests, and upholding the Monroe doctrine," said Senator Moses.

Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, chairman of the committee, was unconvinced by the Kellogg exposition. "Have you changed your opinion that Sacasa should be recognized?" he asked.

"I do not change my mind when no new facts have been added," he replied.

Borah Is Helpless.
Senator Borah is inclined to think that nothing can be done now, however, to remedy the wrong which he believes has been done by the administration in Nicaragua. He contemplates making a speech on the subject in the senate and letting it go at that.

Senator Johnson (republican, California), who recently assailed the pacific tendencies of the administration, found no cause for indignation in the Nicaraguan affair.

"I am not so much concerned in how we got into Nicaragua as how we are to conduct ourselves now that we are there. Unquestionably the protection of American interests in that region is of the highest importance."

In the committee meeting, Senator Johnson said, according to reports, that it would impair our prestige throughout Latin-America if we were to withdraw from Nicaragua now. He recently sailed through the Panama canal on his son's yacht and visited Central American ports and was able to give his colleagues a description of conditions in those countries.

Property of Italians.
"Why, the entire port of Corinto in Nicaragua," said Senator Johnson, "is virtually the property of one Italian corporation. Do you think for a moment that if we should fail to furnish protection to the Italians in Corinto it would be very long before Mussolini would move in there and run the whole show?"

"We know what would happen, for we had an illustration in Haiti during the Wilson administration," said another republican senator, looking fixedly at democratic members. "The French landed marines at Port au Prince to protect their nationals. We lost no time in getting a ship there and landing marines ourselves and telling the French they need not linger."

Senator Wilson took that action to prevent a breach of the Monroe doctrine by France and it was similar action which President Coolidge took. Mr. Kellogg pointed out, in intervening in Nicaragua for the protection not only of Americans but of foreigners. The British, Italian and Belgian governments had appealed to the United States for protection of their nationals in Nicaragua and it was evident that if we should not act the governments would do what France did in Haiti.

Two Nervous Men.
One member of the committee said that the scene in the session behind closed doors was amusing.

"There were two nervous men there," he said. "One at each end of the table."

He referred to Chairman Borah and Secretary Kellogg. Mr. Borah stood most of the time behind his chair, leaning on its back and gazing intently at Mr. Kellogg. He asked a few questions.

One thing Mr. Borah wanted to know was what Diaz took in the Chamorro coup d'etat. Mr. Kellogg thought he took no part in it. Mr. Borah said Diaz was the brains behind the Chamorro seizure of the government from Solerzquez. Proof of that charge he found in the fact that Diaz had sent Chamorro on a diplomatic mission to Europe. Mr. Kellogg explained that Diaz had forced Chamorro to resign his army command and had sent him abroad to get him out of the country.

"Why did you pick Diaz instead of Sacasa?" Mr. Borah asked.

Congress Elected Diaz.
"We did not pick Diaz," replied Mr. Kellogg. "We did not pick anyone. Sacasa left the country while he was vice president and had not returned when the congress elected Diaz president-designate in accordance with the Nicaraguan constitution. We had nothing to do with it. But when we found the government was constitutionally established we recognized it."

"Well, Sacasa was out of the country because he was chased out by Chamorro when he seized the government," retorted Borah.

Senators Wheeler (democrat, Montana) and La Follette (republican, Wisconsin), although not members of the committee, were present a while, suggesting questions for members to ask the secretary. They left before the examination was concluded.

ADMINISTRATION FOES ARE DRIVEN TO COVER.

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER.

Washington, January 12.—The administration apparently drove to cover the opponents of its Nicaraguan policy when Secretary of State Kellogg appeared before the senate foreign relations committee and charged that domestic enemies are attempting to undermine American influence in Latin America with propaganda for general revolution aimed in reality at the United States.

Kellogg produced many documents, one a 15-page memorandum quoting from state department reports on bolshevik activities, including many excerpts from reports of these revolutionary organizations.

Utmost secrecy surrounded the foreign committee meeting. Kellogg brought in his own stenographer and would not permit the senate stenographer to be present. Likewise Senator Borah's secretary was not permitted to be in the room.

Kellogg's memorandum regarding bolshevik influences began with this general statement:

"The bolshevik leaders have had very definite ideas with respect to the role which Mexico and Latin America are to play in their general program of world revolution. They have set up as one of their fundamental tasks the destruction of what they term American imperialism as a necessary prerequisite to the successful development of the international revolutionary movement in the new world."

The propagation of communist ideas and principles in the various countries of Latin America is considered secondary to the carrying on of propaganda against the aims and the policies of the United States. Thus Latin America and Mexico are conceived as a base for activity against the United States. Communists in the United States have been repeatedly charged to devote special attention to the struggle against 'American imperialism' in Latin America and to the organization of resistance to the United States.

Quotes Resolution.
Kellogg's memorandum said that bolshevik aims in this respect were set forth in resolution of the third congress of the red international trade unions, July 8 to 12, 1924, which said:

"To unite the national struggle against American imperialism in individual countries in a general movement on the whole American continent, embracing the workers of all countries of Latin America and the revolutionary forces of the United States, Mexico is a natural connecting link between the movement of the United States of North America and Latin America, therefore Mexico must be the center of union."

The resolutions also called on the Trade Union Educational League of the United States to appeal to the workers of Latin America with a call to create a united front against American imperialism.

U. S. Communists Scored.
The state department memorandum continued:

"During the past few years bolshevik leaders have been giving more and more attention to anti-American activities in Mexico and Latin America. Communists in the United States have been criticized for not displaying sufficient energy in this sphere. Very specific instructions in this regard were issued to the communists in the United States at the sixth enlarged plenary session of the executive committee of the communist international at Moscow, March 15, 1925."

The significance of Mexico in the eyes of the Russian soviet government is revealed, the state department memorandum said, in the report of Chicherin, soviet foreign minister, in March, 1925:

"We have succeeded in reestablishing diplomatic relations which give us a political base in the new continent, with the neighbor of the United States, Mexico. The Mexican government is based on the right of trade unions and the radical small bourgeoisie. The soviet republics are extraordinarily popular in Mexico. Our plenipotentiary representative, Pestkovsky, met in Mexico the most enthusiastic reception receiving constantly from all sides expressions of the most friendly, even enthusiastic, attitude toward the soviet republic. Mexico gives us, in addition, a convenient political base in America for development of our further ties."

Inspired By Moscow.
The state department memorandum charged that bolshevik activities in Latin-America were directly inspired by Moscow.

"In accordance with Moscow's instructions," the state department memorandum read, "the American communists during the last two years have been planning for the establishment of their anti-American work in Mexico and Latin America. Considerable attention was given to this matter at the fourth convention of the communist party in Chicago August 21-30, 1925. A special organization, known as the All-American Anti-Imperialist League, has been created by the American communists to carry out the instructions of Moscow in the matter of organizing Latin America against the United States."

The memorandum quoted from a report made at this convention as follows:

"Under the present central executive committee the workers party of America has for the first time made anti-imperialist work one of its basic activities. The outstanding feature of our work against American imperialism is that it has entered the field of active, practical cooperation with the oppressed peoples of America."

The memorandum also stated that the communist party in Mexico is the most important step in this connection being the successful organization of the All-American Anti-Imperialist League.

Committee Is Elected.
"In January of this year (1925) a subcommittee was elected by the central executive committee which assumed charge of all the anti-imperialist activities of the party. This committee prepared material for campaigns, furnished articles on imperialism for the party press, prepared manifestos and leaflets and was the medium through which the party cooperated with anti-imperialist organizations in Latin America."

"Direct contact with Mexico was maintained throughout the period, through the visits of Comrades Johnstone, Gomez and Lovetson to Mexico and through steady correspondence. Comrade Wagenknecht visited the Philippines and established connections there. Correspondence connections were also established with greater or less success, with practically every country in Latin America, as well as with Hawaii and the Philippines. Through our activities five Filipino delegates were secured for the international transport conference in Canton for which our party was commended by the communist international."

"Our party has carried on a consistent campaign both in this country and in Latin America, against the 'labor imperialism' of the so-called Pan-American Federation of Labor. Comrade Johnstone attended the convention of the Pan-American Federation of Labor at Mexico City in November of last year (1924) and cooperated with the Mexican party in its strategy in connection with the convention."

Gomez Sent to Mexico.
"Comrade Gomez was sent to Mexico in April of this year (1925) and attended the convention of the communist party of Mexico as fraternal delegate from our party. During his visit plans for joint action of the Mexico-Central American and the United States parties against the imperialist policies of the Pan-American Federation of Labor were adopted."

"Our party was largely instrumental in the establishment of the All-American Anti-Imperialist League, which, although organized only a few months ago and still in its initial stages, has aroused a real response in Latin America despite the miserably small sums which we were able to put into this work. The All-American Anti-Imperialist League was endorsed by the communist international and the red international of labor unions."

The All-American Anti-Imperialist League has a special secretariat located in Mexico City, under whose supervision the Monthly Spanish Language organ of the league, which has now published five issues, is edited, as well as special manifestos, leaflets, etc. Our party has contributed toward defraying the expenses of the monthly magazine, El Libertador, and towards other expenses of the Mexico City secretariat, but lack of funds has made it impossible to give adequate support in this respect."

"A regular section of the All-American Anti-Imperialist League, has been formed in Cuba, with Julio Mella as secretary, and is extremely active, holding mass meetings, lectures, etc., labor, peasant and student organizations in Costa Rica, Panama, Salvador and Peru, have affiliated with the league, but no regular sections have been formed in these countries as yet. Contacts have been established with some of the foremost intellectuals of Latin-America, who are supporting the league and writing for its monthly organ."

Attack on Wall Street.
The state department said that the activities of American communists in Central America were summed up in resolutions of the workers party executive committee on November 12, 1926, which stated:

"Recent months have furnished striking evidence of the widespread movement for Latin-American unity against American imperialism. We cite particularly the present attitude of the Calles government in Mexico, its general Latin-Americanism, its tendency toward cooperation with the All-American Anti-Imperialist League, and the decision of President Calles to send a personal representative to the Brussels world conference against imperialism.

"In spite of many handicaps, we have done much to build the All-American Anti-Imperialist League into an organization capable in actual struggle against imperialism. We have carried on systematic work inside the Pan-American Federation of Labor and have achieved some valuable results there. We have participated in work against United States imperialism in a number of Latin-American countries, notably Mexico, Porto Rico, Cuba, Panama and Peru. We have also established some contact with the Philippine independence movement, although we have yet to establish our own nucleus there."

"The main task immediately ahead is the building of a substantial section of the All-American Anti-Imperialist League in the United States itself. This will be accomplished through the affiliation of groups organized around specific issues, such as hands-off-Mexico committees, etc. The workers' communist party must maintain the central factor in the United States section of the All-American Anti-Imperialist League grouping around itself the closer independence movement, all other working class organizations."

FEMALE DAREDEVIL OF AIR TO RETIRE

After eleven years of defying death by hair-raising stunts on an airplane, Mabel Cody, niece of Buffalo Bill, Wednesday announced her retirement from the aviation field.

"Leaving the flying circus she conducted with great success for a number of years, Mabel Cody turned over her part in the show to Mrs. Lawrence Eblevins, of Atlanta, who is the air pilot, who will appear under the name of Laura Barnwell."

Mabel Cody is Mrs. Dick Burns in private life, her husband having managed the flying circus for her. Mr. and Mrs. Burns will live in Newport News, where they have considerable property.

Musician Breaks Leg.
Joe Garcia, 36, of 733 Techwood drive, a musician at a local theater, was treated at Grady hospital early Wednesday night, for a severe cut in his left leg he told doctors he received while cutting a piece of wood. He was off duty at the time of the accident.

Rev. Stauffer Speaks
Before Masonic Club

The Rev. C. R. Stauffer was the principal speaker at the weekly meeting of the Atlanta Masonic club at 12:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at Henry Grady hotel. The speaker's message was "The Present Challenge to Masonry."

An added feature of the luncheon was a musical program by Mrs. F. G. Fowler, well known to the members of the club for her talent.

Most Wonderful Shorthand, Taught At The Southern Business College, Attracts Pupils

The Book Used in Teaching
This Shorthand Is a Twentieth Century
Typical Model.

Enrolling, constantly enrolling, at the Southern Business College for Commercial Training.

January 17, 18 19 are dates set by many of the greatest business men to begin Business Courses at the Southern.

Put in your applications for entrance just as soon as possible. Atlanta's era of greatest prosperity is rapidly approaching. Be ready for work when it comes.

The Shorthand taught at the Southern is instructed pupils from everywhere, because it is from 20 to 40 per cent shorter in mechanical execution than any other system in existence, including every system taught in Atlanta, and because the method used in presenting this system is the marvel of the present age, in that it saves the pupil from one to two months' time, and the system, although mastered in a shorter time than other systems, can be read as easily as longhand.

The Southern's method has ninety-five less rules to be learned. Think of that!

Call and see this wonderful system and its marvelous method of teaching it, and you would then learn no other. Its simplicity, legibility, and rapidity in writing are unapproached by any other system of shorthand known to the profession.

Enroll the week of January 17. Write or call for catalogue. Address D. W. Arnold, President, 56 Whitehall Street, Atlanta, Ga. Phone WA. 8834.—(adv.)

VENUS PENCILS

The largest selling Quality pencil in the world

17 black degrees
3 copying

Unequaled for any writing or drawing purpose.

Try Venus B—a soft pencil for general use

Plain Ends, per doz., $1.00
Rubber Ends, per doz., $1.20

American Lead Pencil Co.
220 Fifth Ave., New York

Also makers of Blue Band VELVET Pencils, the biggest 5¢ pencil value in the whole world

For Headache

ASPIRIN

Proved safe by millions and prescribed by physicians for

Headache Colds Neuralgia Lumbago

Pain Toothache Neuritis Rheumatism

DOES NOT AFFECT THE HEART

Safe

Accept only "Bayer" package which contains proven directions.

Handy "Bayer" boxes of 12 tablets. Also bottles of 24 and 100—Druggists.

Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monocrocin and Salicylic Acid

WOMEN ARTISTS DRAW CROWD FOR SYMPHONY

With one of the most enticing attractions of the year announced, seats for the concert of the Atlanta Symphony association, at Loew's Grand theater next Sunday afternoon, are selling fast at Phillips & Caw Piano company, 181 Peachtree street.

The announcement that Eleanor Whittemore and Regita Renard, violinist and pianist, will appear as associate artists, playing the vivacious "Symphonie Espagnole," has created tremendous interest among Atlanta music lovers and it is probable that every seat in the reserved sections will be taken Sunday.

As usual, there will be 1,000 seats free in the gallery, but all other sections of the theater will be open only to association members and reserved seat ticket holders. The seat sale will continue all this week, but none will be sold on Sunday, the day of the performance, in conformity with the Sunday observance laws.

REV. STAUFFER SPEAKS
BEFORE MASONIC CLUB

The Rev. C. R. Stauffer was the principal speaker at the weekly meeting of the Atlanta Masonic club at 12:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at Henry Grady hotel. The speaker's message was "The Present Challenge to Masonry."

An added feature of the luncheon was a musical program by Mrs. F. G. Fowler, well known to the members of the club for her talent.

Musician Breaks Leg.
Joe Garcia, 36, of 733 Techwood drive, a musician at a local theater, was treated at Grady hospital early Wednesday night, for a severe cut in his left leg he told doctors he received while cutting a piece of wood. He was off duty at the time of the accident.

Rev. Stauffer Speaks
Before Masonic Club

The Rev. C. R. Stauffer was the principal speaker at the weekly meeting of the Atlanta Masonic club at 12:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at Henry Grady hotel. The speaker's message was "The Present Challenge to Masonry."

An added feature of the luncheon was a musical program by Mrs. F. G. Fowler, well known to the members of the club for her talent.

Musician Breaks Leg.
Joe Garcia, 36, of 733 Techwood drive, a musician at a local theater, was treated at Grady hospital early Wednesday night, for a severe cut in his left leg he told doctors he received while cutting a piece of wood. He was off duty at the time of the accident.

Rev. Stauffer Speaks
Before Masonic Club

The Rev. C. R. Stauffer was the principal speaker at the weekly meeting of the Atlanta Masonic club at 12:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at Henry Grady hotel. The speaker's message was "The Present Challenge to Masonry."

An added feature of the luncheon was a musical program by Mrs. F. G. Fowler, well known to the members of the club for her talent.

Musician Breaks Leg.
Joe Garcia, 36, of 733 Techwood drive, a musician at a local theater, was treated at Grady hospital early Wednesday night, for a severe cut in his left leg he told doctors he received while cutting a piece of wood. He was off duty at the time of the accident.

Rev. Stauffer Speaks
Before Masonic Club

The Rev. C. R. Stauffer was the principal speaker at the weekly meeting of the Atlanta Masonic club at 12:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at Henry Grady hotel. The speaker's message was "The Present Challenge to Masonry."

An added feature of the luncheon was a musical program by Mrs. F. G. Fowler, well known to the members of the club for her talent.

Musician Breaks Leg.
Joe Garcia, 36, of 733 Techwood drive, a musician at a local theater, was treated at Grady hospital early Wednesday night, for a severe cut in his left leg he told doctors he received while cutting a piece of wood. He was off duty at the time of the accident.

Rev. Stauffer Speaks
Before Masonic Club

The Rev. C. R. Stauffer was the principal speaker at the weekly meeting of the Atlanta Masonic club at 12:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at Henry Grady hotel. The speaker's message was "The Present Challenge to Masonry."

An added feature of the luncheon was a musical program by Mrs. F. G. Fowler, well known to the members of the club for her talent.

Musician Breaks Leg.
Joe Garcia, 36, of 733 Techwood drive, a musician at a local theater, was treated at Grady hospital early Wednesday night, for a severe cut in his left leg he told doctors he received while cutting a piece of wood. He was off duty at the time of the accident.

Rev. Stauffer Speaks
Before Masonic Club

The Rev. C. R. Stauffer was the principal speaker at the weekly meeting of the Atlanta Masonic club at 12:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at Henry Grady hotel. The speaker's message was "The Present Challenge to Masonry."

An added feature of the luncheon was a musical program by Mrs. F. G. Fowler, well known to the members of the club for her talent.

Musician Breaks Leg.
Joe Garcia, 36, of 733 Techwood drive, a musician at a local theater, was treated at Grady hospital early Wednesday night, for a severe cut in his left leg he told doctors he received while cutting a piece of wood. He was off duty at the time of the accident.

Rev. Stauffer Speaks
Before Masonic Club

The Rev. C. R. Stauffer was the principal speaker at the weekly meeting of the Atlanta Masonic club at 12:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at Henry Grady hotel. The speaker's message was "The Present Challenge to Masonry."

An added feature of the luncheon was a musical program by Mrs. F. G. Fowler, well known to the members of the club for her talent.

Musician Breaks Leg.
Joe Garcia, 36, of 733 Techwood drive, a musician at a local theater, was treated at Grady hospital early Wednesday night, for a severe cut in his left leg he told doctors he received while cutting a piece of wood. He was off duty at the time of the accident.

Sears, Roebuck and Co.

RETAIL DEPARTMENT STORE

Store Hours
9 A. M. to 6 P. M.Open Saturday
Until 9 P. M.Ponce de Leon
At Glen IrisContinuing Our Mid-Winter Sale

Below are listed a few more items typical of our great sale. Hundreds of others equally as splendid are to be had in every department.

Shop today—and save.

Special Bargains
In House Frocks*98c

One Sketched

An exceptional offer in house frocks and aprons. All are well made and cut over full standard measurements. In novelty striped gingham, figured percale, reversible front apron frocks, printed cotton pongee or patterned suitings. In an attractive range of colors. Sizes 34 to 55.

Mid-Winter Sale Values

Bedsprad Woven crinkled bedspread. Cream ground with woven colored stripes. Very attractive in a percale. Size 84x90 inches ..... $185	Comforters Popular style, top covered with figured silklike, plain border. Attractive colors. Size 70x76 inches ..... $298	Table Linen Beautiful Silesian all linen luncheon set with six napkins. White with colored border, cloth 50x50 inches ..... $260
Fairloom Silks A guaranteed quality georgette. Very popular for spring frocks. Range of colors. 39 inches, yd. .... $139	Mattress Cover Made of guaranteed standard LL sheeting. Extra large and roomy to allow for shrinkage. Keeps your mattress clean and sanitary ..... $139	Women's Hose Full fashioned, genuine silk hosiery. Novelty popping shades. Ravel stop feature, double garter tops, reinforced heels and toes ..... $148
Bleached Sheets The famous Launderite quality. Made right and will give excellent service. Size 72x90 inches ..... 94c	Copper Boiler High grade copper wash boiler, fitted inside with heavy tin cover. Capacity 13 gallons. A special tin value ..... $380	Bath Towels A big Turkish towel made with double loop construction. Bleached white, hemmed ends. 22x44 inches. Six for... $150
Ironing Board Light in weight, but very rigid. Four legs, strongly braced. Quickly

Eighteen New Cases Made For Pedestrian Violations Of Traffic Signal Laws

Mayor Ragsdale and Alderman Dobbs Cheerfully Pay Fine; Law Here To Stay, Says Mayor.

With 18 new cases for violation of the traffic laws made against pedestrians on Wednesday, and with the police announcing their determination not to let the present "drive" against jay-walkers, who try to cross streets against the red signal light, Mayor I. N. Ragsdale and Alderman Guy Dobbs, mayor pro tem, against whom cases were made Tuesday, appeared at recorder's court Wednesday afternoon and cheerfully paid fines of $6 each, along with others likewise caught in the law's mesh for similar infractions.

Mayor Ragsdale launched the drive against pedestrian violators of the traffic signal laws when he called attention, in his inaugural speech, to the nonobservance of the law by pedestrians not only increased accidents, but seriously slowed up traffic in the city.

Speaking at the luncheon of the Atlanta Safety council Wednesday the mayor stressed the fact that enforcement of this law is "here to stay."

A THREE DAYS COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the lungs, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchitis, asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

THEATER AND DANCE ENDS BAKERY MEET

A theater party at the Erlanger followed by a dinner-dance at the Atlanta Athletic club, featured the closing of the fifteenth annual convention of plant managers of the American Bakeries company, who have been in session since Monday. More than 40 representatives, from six southern states, in which the company operates, attended the three-day session.

One of the features of the convention was an all-day session Tuesday in the experimental bakery and laboratory in the new building of the New South bakery. The experiments were under the direction of J. A. Wayt, chemical engineer of the company. The new experimental laboratory is said to be one of the finest in the south.

Officials of the company are H. Malchow, president; William Fisch, vice president; R. C. Thompson, vice president; L. E. Rogers, secretary, and E. R. Sturdivant, treasurer.

NEW BAPTIST PASTOR EXPECTED HERE SOON

Rev. Robert H. Lambkin has accepted a call to the pastorate of the East Side Baptist tabernacle and will assume his new duties at an early date. He was previously announced Wednesday.

Plans are being formed for a home-coming service to be held early in February. During the month of January, members of the church will be invited.

Rev. Lambkin will preach Sunday morning and evening at the Woodward Avenue Baptist church, where he has been preaching during the month of January. He is now head of the Chattanooga school, where he has served for one year. Prior to this work he served as head of the Hapeville school.

Rev. Lambkin has been preaching during the month of January. He is now head of the Chattanooga school, where he has served for one year. Prior to this work he served as head of the Hapeville school.

UNITED STATES BAPTIST CHURCH FOR PIERCE ROBINS

Greensboro, Ga., January 12.—(Special.)—The body of Pierce Quillian Robins, who met death recently by accident in Haver, France, was interred in the city cemetery here by the side of his father. Services were conducted by the Methodist minister from Union Point, where his mother and brother reside.

VACCINATION URGED BY HEALTH OFFICER

All persons who have not been vaccinated within the last several years, Wednesday was urged by Dr. J. S. Kennedy, city health officer, to be vaccinated again. He stated that it is the only prevention for smallpox, and that while there is no immediate danger of an epidemic, safety measures should be adopted.

Frieda Hempel Expected To Reach Atlanta Today

Many of the arias from the old favorite operas, with which Hempel, the supreme soprano, thrilled Atlantans during the years when she was a star of the Metropolitan opera company, will again be sung here on Friday night, when Frieda Hempel appears in concert at the auditorium. Miss Hempel will give a number of these old favorites as encores to her set program, which includes many numbers, selected from her repertoire which is said to be the most extensive of any singer on the concert or opera stage. Miss Hempel has arranged this program especially for Atlanta, attaching special importance to this engagement, which brings her back to the scene of so many triumphs and renews a friendship with her Atlanta audience amounting almost to affection.

Baptist Tabernacle Adopts Enlarged Program for 1927

A financial budget of approximately $52,000, an increase of 50 per cent over last year, addition of three new workers, a spiritual program that eclipses any ever attempted here and plans for the establishment of a medical clinic for babies, during the year, featured the annual business meeting of the Baptist tabernacle at the close of the regular prayer service Wednesday night. Dr. Will H. Houghton, pastor of the church, outlined in detail each of the above named projects, and stated that they are in keeping with a newly organized plan of church work.

For the past two weeks, church members have contributed $1,000 each Sunday for current expenses of the church and the prospects for future contributions are exceedingly bright. It was stated Wednesday night, the greatest year in the history of the church is predicted by the Rev. Houghton.

Due to the increased work necessitated by the new program, the pastor was authorized to add three new workers to his staff. A medical clinic for babies in order that those unable to pay for such attention will receive it free of charge, has been under consideration for some time, and definite plans were discussed Wednesday.

7 JURORS CHOSEN FOR NORRIS TRIAL

Austin, Texas, January 12.—Selection of a blacksmith and a butcher after questioning dominated by the religious issue brought to seven Wednesday the jurors tentatively chosen to try the Rev. J. Frank Norris for murder.

Norris, fundamentalist pastor of the First Baptist church of Fort Worth, is charged with killing D. E. Chippa, a wealthy Fort Worth lumberman, during an argument over religious differences in the church study last July.

Norris admitted shooting Chippa but pleaded self-defense. He has broadcast his claims of a plot and threats against his life from the church radio station and expressed them in his publication, The Searchlight.

This and other publicity has made selection of a jury difficult. Five men were found available during the long opening session of the trial. W. E. King, the blacksmith, and William C. Galbreath, the butcher, were the result of the second day's efforts.

Georgia Lewis, version of the adventure was given to a representative of The Macon Telegraph today while she was exercising at a filling station to keep warm.

"On December 29 I was introduced to a man whom I supposed was James R. Gilbride, of New York," she said. "He asked me if I would go riding with him at 5 o'clock. I consented. While riding he proposed marriage. My reason for accepting the proposal was because I was alone and I was a young girl. I was not a means of freeing myself from attending school."

Mr. Gilbride represented himself as 25 and said he had been in the New York Times and was a man of means. On that promise I left, and thinking he would be able to provide a home for me I did not take my clothes. At 5 o'clock that night on the pretense of going to a theater with a boy friend, I got into a taxi and drove home.

"I didn't know where we were going, but when we arrived in Macon, the enormity of my adventure dawned on me. He wanted to withdraw, but he urged me to stay."

"After I had sought to speak to my aunt over the telephone on the morning of December 30 and the response that I received, owing to the ignorance of a negro, I have since ascertained, I felt that my family had disowned me. I decided to stick to the promise that we would be married as soon as I could obtain a license, which he thought could be accomplished that day."

Then followed our trip over the state in search of a license, but we didn't get one. I wanted to return home, but Mr. Gilbride would not let me. I wrote several letters and telegrams to my mother and aunt and gave the letters and messages to him to be sent, but they were thrown away.

"I grew to fear him and through this fear I remained with him."

To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole. Jars & Tubes.

Better than a mustard plaster. GOITRE REMOVED. Florida Minister's Wife Saved An Operation. Wants Others to Know.

Mrs. F. N. Baker, Box 282, Palatka, Fla., says: "For 15 years I have been suffering with a goiter. I was told that my goiter was removed with Musterole-Quadruple, a stainless liniment. My eyes, heart and nerves were in a bad condition. I felt no ill effects from the treatment. Glad to tell as well as my experience."

audience amounting almost to affection. The singer will arrive in Atlanta some time today, it was announced Wednesday by S. Russell Bridges, president of the Southern Musical Bureau, under whose auspices the singer comes. She will be accompanied by her manager, accompanist and flautist.

Seats are now on sale at Phillips & Crew piano company, 181 Peachtree street, at popular prices. There has been a record demand for tickets, the out-of-town orders, as well as the local sales surpassing that of any attraction yet brought to Atlanta this season.

The box office will remain at Phillips & Crew until 6 o'clock Friday evening, when any unsold tickets will be removed to the auditorium.

A spiritual program, far greater than any ever attempted here, was discussed at length and it was announced that Billy Sunday, world famous evangelist, who held a seven-week revival here in 1917, will preach at the tabernacle on Monday and Tuesday, February 14 and 15. The evangelist will assist in the musical program during the revival services.

An annual two weeks' evangelist campaign will be held from April 24 through May 8, under the leadership of Rev. Houghton, it was announced. The Atlanta Brass quartette, of New York, will assist in the musical program during the revival services.

Plans for an increased membership in the Sunday school was also discussed. The regular attendance for the past few weeks has been well over 1,000, and last Sunday more than 1,600 were present.

During the month of January Rev. Houghton will speak at 7:30 o'clock each Sunday night on questions of world wide interest. Next Sunday night's subject will be "Have We Had Our Last War?"

Floodlight Attacks Hooded Mobs Before Waynesboro Rotarians

Waynesboro, Ga., January 12.—(Special.)—Invisible empire, hooded mobs, secret government were flayed by H. J. Fulbright, former tax commissioner and state senator, at a meeting at Waynesboro, before the Waynesboro Rotary club at its weekly luncheon Tuesday.

Fulbright began his address by showing the growth of the secret government, tracing the growth of individual liberty in the federal and in the state constitutions. He deplored the widespread disregard of law in our state and particularly the attempt at any group of citizens to take the law into their own hands. The address was roundly applauded.

THOMSON GIRL'S WEDDING DENIED

Continued from First Page. right up to the front door of the country home of Sheriff Joe Chaney, where they asked him if he could give them the keys to the house. He refused to do so. The couple left the house in a taxi. Mr. and Mrs. James Gilbreth when they were apprehended.

Georgia Lewis, version of the adventure was given to a representative of The Macon Telegraph today while she was exercising at a filling station to keep warm.

"On December 29 I was introduced to a man whom I supposed was James R. Gilbride, of New York," she said. "He asked me if I would go riding with him at 5 o'clock. I consented. While riding he proposed marriage. My reason for accepting the proposal was because I was alone and I was a young girl. I was not a means of freeing myself from attending school."

Mr. Gilbride represented himself as 25 and said he had been in the New York Times and was a man of means. On that promise I left, and thinking he would be able to provide a home for me I did not take my clothes. At 5 o'clock that night on the pretense of going to a theater with a boy friend, I got into a taxi and drove home.

"I didn't know where we were going, but when we arrived in Macon, the enormity of my adventure dawned on me. He wanted to withdraw, but he urged me to stay."

"After I had sought to speak to my aunt over the telephone on the morning of December 30 and the response that I received, owing to the ignorance of a negro, I have since ascertained, I felt that my family had disowned me. I decided to stick to the promise that we would be married as soon as I could obtain a license, which he thought could be accomplished that day."

Then followed our trip over the state in search of a license, but we didn't get one. I wanted to return home, but Mr. Gilbride would not let me. I wrote several letters and telegrams to my mother and aunt and gave the letters and messages to him to be sent, but they were thrown away.

"I grew to fear him and through this fear I remained with him."

To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole. Jars & Tubes.

Better than a mustard plaster. GOITRE REMOVED. Florida Minister's Wife Saved An Operation. Wants Others to Know.

Mrs. F. N. Baker, Box 282, Palatka, Fla., says: "For 15 years I have been suffering with a goiter. I was told that my goiter was removed with Musterole-Quadruple, a stainless liniment. My eyes, heart and nerves were in a bad condition. I felt no ill effects from the treatment. Glad to tell as well as my experience."

Six Windsor Theaters Bar Chaplin Films

Windsor, Ont., January 12.—Six Windsor theaters have decided not to show Charlie Chaplin films until settlement of the divorce action brought by the screen comedian's wife, Mrs. Lita Grey Chaplin.

In making the announcement Wednesday, Edward W. Gilmore, manager of Border Theaters, Ltd., said the action was based on alleged disclosures brought out in the divorce suit.

LITA SEEKS TO BAR EDNA FROM PAYROLL

Continued from First Page. ing and served papers upon the executives left in charge of Chaplin's picture lot.

"Will they cut off our salary?" was the plaint in the grounds of the picture-making citadel which looks more like a section of an English college campus than a manufactory of movie films.

Miss Purviance is now in France making a picture for a French producer. The last picture released from the Chaplin studio in which Miss Purviance had a role was "The Woman of Paris," made in 1923. Since that period Miss Purviance was cast in an additional picture, but the picture was scrapped instead of being released for exhibition. During the whole of the period since "The Woman of Paris" was made Miss Purviance has continued on the Chaplin payroll, it was stated at the studio.

"IT'S TERRIBLE," DECLARES CHARLIE

(By Leonard White. The Constitution and the Chicago Tribune.) Chicago, January 12.—"It's terrible, too terrible for words!" was the comment of Charlie Chaplin, comedian, when he was asked to comment on the divorce action brought by his wife, Lita Grey Chaplin, as he stepped from a Santa Fe train in the Dearborn station here tonight.

He said he was not surprised that she had filed her way out through the train shed into the station before he came.

There was no old-time Chaplin smile on the comedian's dark, rather handsome, off the silver screen face. Instead of his usual good natured, the comedian's face was lined with care, a sober, almost austere face in which troubles were plainly written.

"I don't want to say anything more," he said. "I'm on my way to New York. My life story is beginning there in the Pictorial Review, and I'm going to tell the editors. They already have my first installment in hand and I'm going to see them about the rest of it."

CHAPLIN'S BIG FORTUNE IN RECEIVER'S HANDS

Los Angeles, January 12.—(AP)—A substantial portion of the estimated $16,000,000 fortune which Charlie Chaplin has gathered together with a trick cane, a big derby hat, a pair of floppy pants and grotesque footgear tonight was in the hands of receiver appointed to handle the comedian's property pending the divorce action brought by Lita Grey Chaplin.

W. J. Gilbert, who with Herman Spitzel, was appointed receiver, today sent detectives to the film actor's palatial Beverly Hills home from which he was evicted last November. Mrs. Chaplin left with her two children after a quarrel and declared she would never return. The detectives formally took possession of the 40-room residence and strengthened that they may be notified the servants that nothing could be removed from the property.

Simultaneously other detectives were appointed by Gilbert, who was attorney for Aimee Semple McPherson, evangelist, during her preliminary hearing on conspiracy charges several months ago, took possession of the Chaplin studios in Hollywood. It was reported that practically no moving picture apparatus was found in the studios.

MRS. CHARLIE CHAPLIN WILL SEEK $10,000,000

BY DAN CAMPBELL. Los Angeles, January 12.—One of the richest plums in the history of divorce settlements will be awarded today to Mrs. Charlie Chaplin, if her action to sever marital relations with her famous comedian husband is successful.

Counsel for Chaplin's girl wife declared tonight that they would seek at least a $10,000,000 property settlement. Mrs. Chaplin will be entitled to that amount, under the laws of California, if she can prove Charlie guilty of adultery, the attorneys said.

Mrs. Chaplin is entitled to $10,000,000, Lyndel L. Young, one of the six lawyers representing Mrs. Chaplin, said. "We are going to make an effort to have this amount at least awarded to her by the courts."

Chaplin's total holdings and assets are estimated at more than $16,000,000, including his Beverly Hills mansion, studios, other property and revenue from films already released.

SEATTLE CENSORS TO PASS ON CHAPLIN PICTURES

Seattle, Wash., January 12.—(AP)—Mayor Bertha K. Landes announced tonight that she would ask the Seattle censor board to decide whether motion pictures in which Charlie Chaplin appears should be barred from exhibition here.

The board will be requested to investigate sensational charges made against the film actor by his estranged wife, who is suing him for divorce. Mrs. Landes said.

FAREWELL DINNER TO JAMES T. SCOTT, U. S. COMMISSIONER

James T. Scott, formerly of Atlanta and a representative of the United States on the shipping board in Germany for the past nine years, who has recently been appointed American trade commissioner to Germany, was none other than a farewell dinner Wednesday night at the Atlanta Athletic club.

1920 MAIL RATES GIVEN APPROVAL

Washington, January 12.—(AP)—A return to the 1920 rates on second-class mail matter and a restoration of the one-cent postage for private postal cards have been approved by the senate postoffice committee which is rewriting the act passed to provide funds to meet pay increases for postal employees.

Adoption of the 1920 second-class rates, proposed by Senator McKellar, democrat, Tennessee, had been urged by representatives of newspaper publishers' organizations and other second-class mail users. It is estimated that it will save publishers $7,000,000 a year. The approval was made by a 10-to-2 vote.

Besides the one-cent postal card, a house approval, three other house postal measures were reported favorably by the committee, including provisions for additional charges on first-class matter mailed short of postage; authorizing the transmission of business reply cards through the mails and prescribing one cent for each two ounces for privately mailed publications entered as second-class matter.

The McKellar amendment only affects second-class mail matter and further consideration will be given by the committee to that section of the bill relating to the postage rate for news dealers' bundles.

Trades Body Urges Pay Ward at Grady And Law Revision

Resolutions looking toward a complete revision of Georgia state laws and immediate action by city officials on the Jacob Elsas proposal to contribute $100,000 for a part-pay ward at the Grady hospital on condition that city and county officials bring the total to $400,000 were unanimously adopted Wednesday night by the Atlanta Federation of Trades.

The first resolution in part stated that the good name of Georgia demanded that existing laws be simplified and strengthened that they may be administered with justice and yet without delay and uncertainty, and pointing out that the drafting of such measures can only be accomplished by the keenest and most experienced legal talent, asks that the Georgia Bar association make a study of laws and systems of law enforcement here abroad, requesting, if necessary, a state appropriation for this purpose, and that the association formulate and sponsor any plan which it may deem adequate to the end desired.

The second resolution points out that Atlanta has many citizens who are neither rich nor poor, and are therefore without adequate hospital facilities under existing conditions, and that Jacob Elsas has offered $100,000 to a part-pay ward at Grady hospital on condition that city and county will bring the sum to $400,000. Members of city council and the Fulton county commissioners are asked to do all in their power to bring about such favorable action on this proposal, since it expires within the year.

Never give a dollar a DAY OFF

The billion-dollar corporation and the corner retail store are alike in this respect—neither can afford to let its dollars loaf.

No dollar can get time off if you have close, daily contact with your business.

To furnish daily figures—to keep up-to-date records of accounts payable and receivable, loans, borrowings, sales, charges, shipments, stocks and cash, your accounting department must have the right equipment.

Elliott-Fisher and Sundstrand equipment keep details straight and accessible to executives, for thousands of concerns in every line of business.

Here's a challenge

No matter what type of equipment you now use—or if you use none at all—we believe that Elliott-Fisher and Sundstrand can make substantial savings and give you a closer control of your business.

Make us prove this statement. A check in the first square of the coupon below brings a representative to analyze your business. He will make recommendations and show you in black and white how Elliott-Fisher and Sundstrand can save you money. Or, if you prefer, a check in the other square will bring you the story by mail.

This Elliott-Fisher machine has the famous flat writing surface. Marvelous manifold power. Ability to do many jobs in a single operation. Self-checking. Simple to operate. In 400 lines of business Elliott-Fisher has proven fast, accurate and economical on accounts payable and receivable, stock and cost records, pay rolls, customers' orders, every accounting need.

Elliott-Fisher organizes your accounting department. Ask us how it furnishes facts daily that you have been glad to get monthly or less often.

Elliott-Fisher Division

GENERAL OFFICE EQUIPMENT CORPORATION 342 Madison Avenue... New York City

Wholesale Executions Of Rebels Reported

Mexico City, January 12.—Wholesale execution of insurgents in various sections of the country are reported in unconfirmed dispatches reaching here. The most recent report was from hunters who said they had seen the bodies of 142 rebels hanging from trees near Osumba, on the border between the states of Mexico and Morelos.

Press reports say that seven rebels were executed or hanged on the road between Ajusco and Topilejo, near Mexico City.

COOLIDGE CHARGES DENIED BY SACASA

Continued from First Page. tend congress when Diaz was designated president. It is equally inaccurate to say that I absented myself at that time. Many liberal representatives were away from Nicaragua on account of persecution and I was pursuing ruthlessly immediately following the Chamorro-Diaz coup against the legitimate president, Solozano.

"I was obliged to leave Nicaragua and went directly to Washington. In December, 1925, I presented a memorandum to the state department. It is strange that President Coolidge doesn't know, or has forgotten these facts and is now making contrary assertions. I remained in Washington for several months in close contact with the state department.

"Later, as vice president of Nicaragua, I returned to this country due to the absence of President Solozano. My mission was to reestablish order which had been interrupted by Chamorro and Diaz. The same conduct would have been observed at the death of President Harding had any citizen without right usurped the presidency."

"Propaganda" Seen

Sacasa branded the statements now being made by the United States government in Washington as propaganda.

"It is explained by the existence in New York of a great financial force which actively develops intrigues in favor of the political group in Nicaragua," he said. "That group is in bad favor with the majority of Nicaraguans, and since 1912 it has been permitted to exist only through the support of the state department."

COLDS CHECKED QUICK

To check a cold quick and to cut short an attack of gripe, influenza, sore throat or tonsillitis, take one or two Klok-Lax tablets on going to bed tonight. By morning you surely will feel great.

Klok-Lax contains ingredients now recognized by science as essential to completely cleanse out the 25-foot intestinal canal of all poisonous wastes which breed disease. And Klok-Lax is as easy to take as no sugar, no gripping and yet you are thoroughly cleaned out—congestion relieved, liver active and clear and the poisons in the bowels moved out.

Doctors recognize constipation as the one greatest danger to health and longer life—don't trifle—treat constipation rationally—most remedies relieve but do not thoroughly cleanse. When you know how Klok-Lax benefits you, tell your friends—you will be so enthusiastic you will strongly recommend it to others.

Klok-Lax at one's store good drug stores or any other druggist.—(adv.)

support of the state department at Washington. "Even now Chamorro and Diaz are defeated in the military struggle as they were defeated two years ago at the polls in a popular election. Diaz himself, has stated that it is impossible for him to sustain himself without the aid of the United States government. And all that government is doing is to create responsibilities for itself and material advantages for its intriguing bankers. Nicaragua was governed from 1912 to 1924 by the conservatives and the liberals never thought of disturbing the peace. In 1925 Solozano took charge of the government through a free election. He was recognized by the United States and all other governments but not a year had elapsed before Chamorro and Diaz had thrown the country into revolt. This is the regime President Coolidge said his government would support."

MARINES ORGANIZED FOR ACTIVE SERVICE

Washington, January 12.—The possibility of further expeditionary forces being sent to Nicaragua was increased tonight when the war department confirmed reports that a battalion of marines is being mobilized at San Diego, California, for possible service in Central America.

The U. S. S. Holland, a submarine tender now at San Diego, is being held in readiness to transport the marines. The battalion consists of about 500 marines and officers equipped with tropical kits.

Already the United States has 15 warships and about 5,000 men in the Nicaraguan zone.

That the United States anticipated trouble in Nicaragua last fall was indicated today when it developed that Major General John A. Lejeune, commander of the marine corps, had been asked by the state department last fall to engage someone to organize the Nicaraguan constabulary, acting in an advisory capacity to the Nicaraguan government.

General Lejeune told the United States tonight that he had offered the assignment to Major George K. Shuler, marine corps reserve officer, former state treasurer of New York. He is the officer who was assigned by Secretary Denby to clear squatters off the Teapot Dome oil reserve when Harry F. Sinclair obtained exclusive drilling rights under Secretary Fall and Secretary Denby.

"Last fall we discussed the probability of a great financial force in New York which actively develops intrigues in favor of the political group in Nicaragua," he said. "That group is in bad favor with the majority of Nicaraguans, and since 1912 it has been permitted to exist only through the support of the state department."

Never give a dollar a DAY OFF

The billion-dollar corporation and the corner retail store are alike in this respect—neither can afford to let its dollars loaf.

No dollar can get time off if you have close, daily contact with your business.

To furnish daily figures—to keep up-to-date records of accounts payable and receivable, loans, borrowings, sales, charges, shipments, stocks and cash, your accounting department must have the right equipment.

Elliott-Fisher and Sundstrand equipment keep details straight and accessible to executives, for thousands of concerns in every line of business.

Here's a challenge

No matter what type of equipment you now use—or if you use none at all—we believe that Elliott-Fisher and Sundstrand can make substantial savings and give you a closer control of your business.

Make us prove this statement. A check in the first square of the coupon below brings a representative to analyze your business. He will make recommendations and show you in black and white how Elliott-Fisher and Sundstrand can save you money. Or, if you prefer, a check in the other square will bring you the story by mail.

This Elliott-Fisher machine has the famous flat writing surface. Marvelous manifold power. Ability to do many jobs in a single operation. Self-checking. Simple to operate. In 400 lines of business Elliott-Fisher has proven fast, accurate and economical on accounts payable and receivable, stock and cost records, pay rolls, customers' orders, every accounting need.

Elliott-Fisher organizes your accounting department. Ask us how it furnishes facts daily that you have been glad to get monthly or less often.

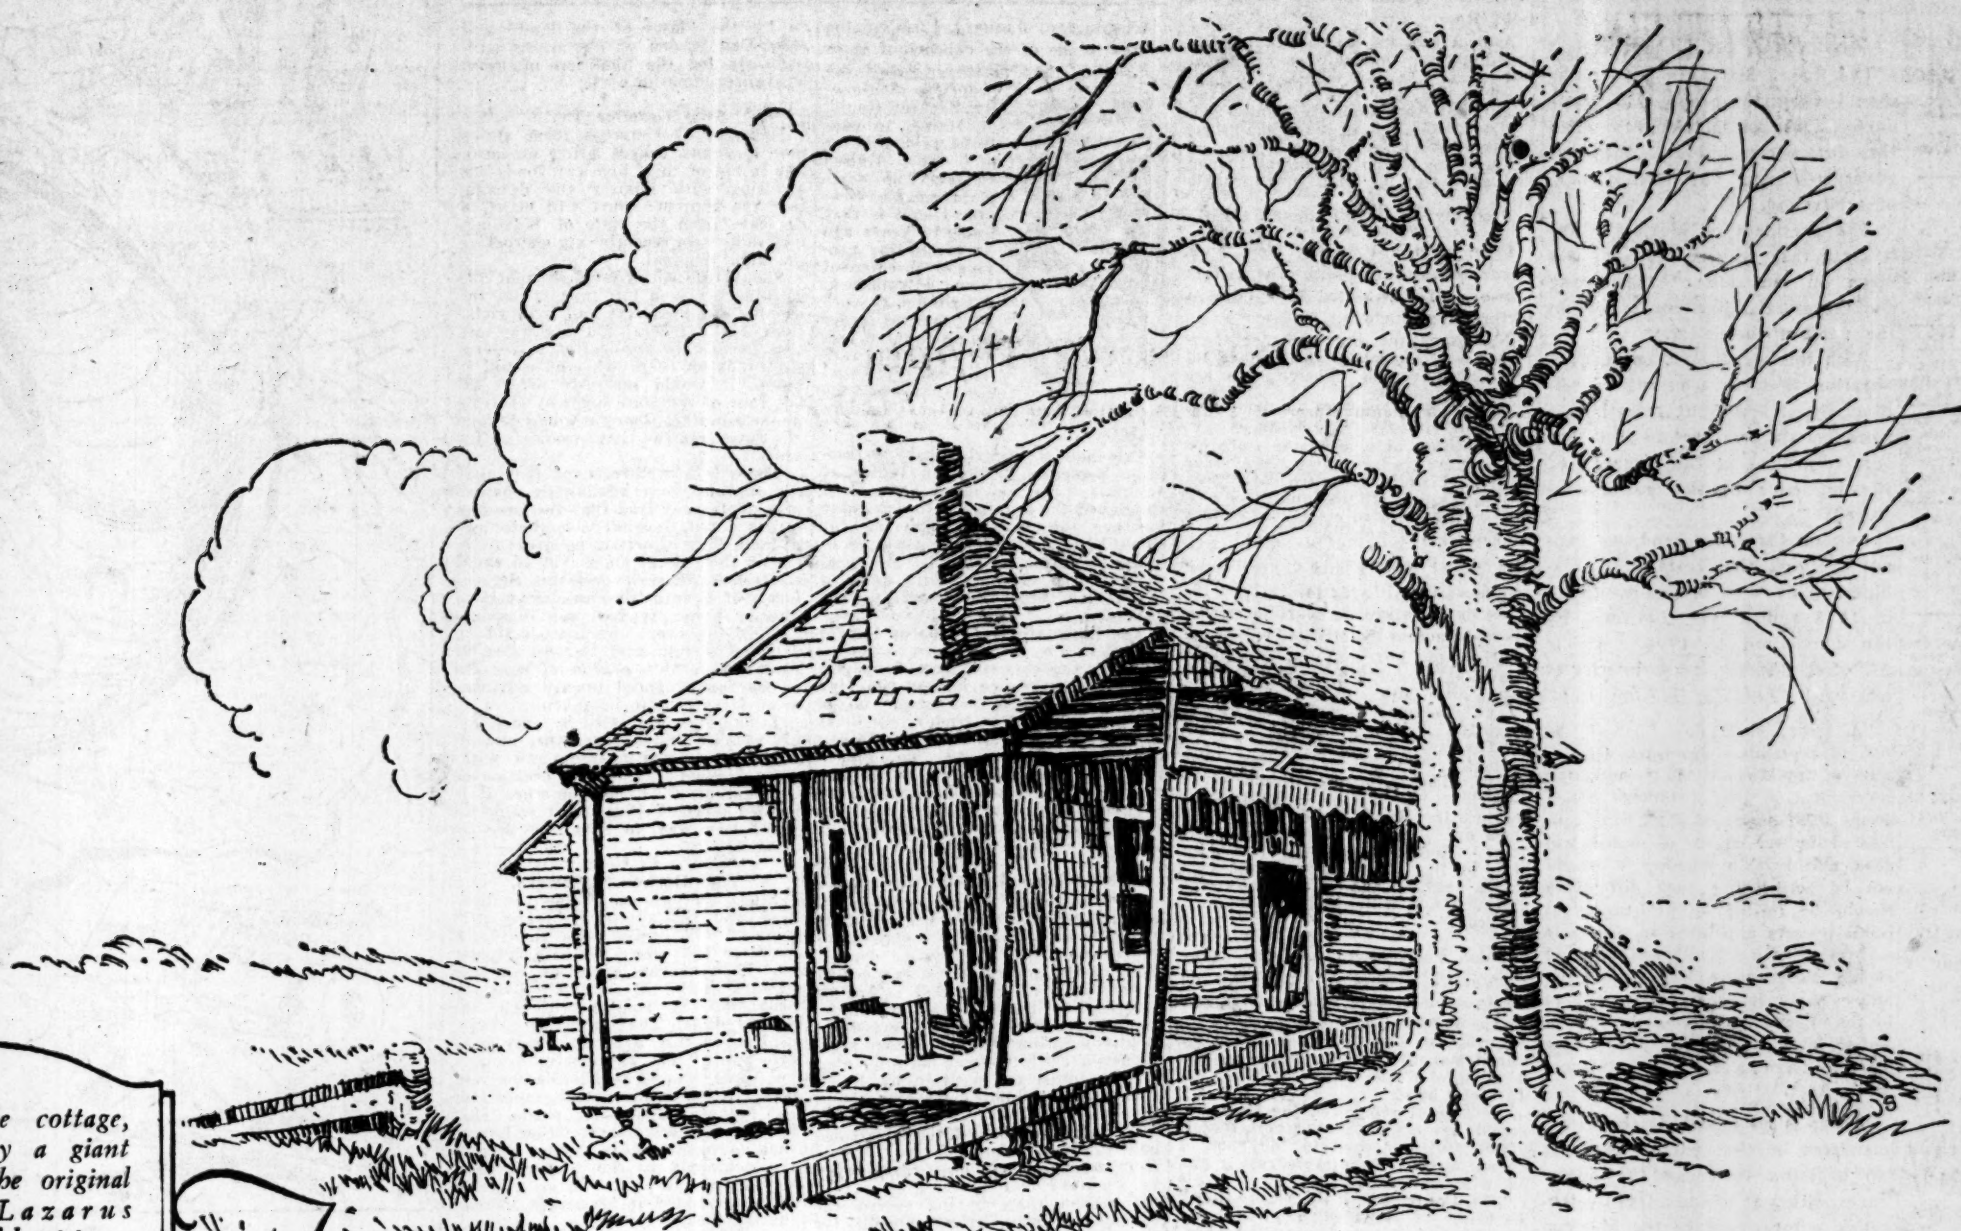

Elliott-Fisher Division

GENERAL OFFICE EQUIPMENT CORPORATION 342 Madison Avenue... New York City

Sundstrand Division

GENERAL OFF

A humble cottage, sheltered by a giant oak, was the original home of Lazarus Straus, Talbotton, Georgia, 1848 to 1860.

Below is shown a street scene in the business section of Talbotton, Georgia, in which was located the original store occupied by Lazarus Straus.

From this humble beginning sprung a mammoth Department Store

LAZARUS STRAUS, founder of a family of glorious traditions, was by adoption a southerner---a Georgian. He came to America in 1848 as a young man, from Bavaria, and settled in the little town of Talbotton, where he conducted a general store, and reared a family, of which three boys; Isidor, Nathan and Oscar; became notable personages in the commercial, financial and diplomatic affairs of this nation.

To the elder Straus is due the honor and credit of ideals that have developed into one of the greatest institutions of retail business on the American continent.

The R. H. Macy & Co., Inc., institution in New York came early into possession of the Straus family, as the result of the vision, foresight and lofty principles of this old Georgia merchant. It is rated the most stupendous retail unit of this or any other period.

The traditions of the Old South which Lazarus Straus absorbed during his early career in Georgia, are manifest in his grandsons. Theirs are the guiding hands that direct the mammoth Macy store located at 34th street and Broadway, New York City. It does an annual business of about seventy-five million dollars.

Mindful and fully appreciative of the warm friendships for Lazarus Straus, the younger generation have held a deep affection through all the years for the south, especially Georgia. They have come to visit among the old folk who, even to this day, well remember the grandfather and sons who first resided in the humble cottage which still is sheltered by the giant oak.

Their sentiment for the native heath of their forbears, kindled by the thought of the struggle of a grandsire to gain fortune's foothold on Georgia soil, matured a desire which is soon to culminate in a business shrine that, to the Straus family, is regarded as a memorial befitting the founder of the present great institution for the scientific distribution of merchandise.

So, the magnificent new store of Davison-Paxon-Stokes Co., affiliated with Macy's, on Peachtree Street, Atlanta, is now nearing completion, and in a few weeks will be thrown open to the public. It is the dramatic homecoming to the scene of the humble beginning of Lazarus Straus at Talbotton, Georgia, in the early sixties.

WITH the decision to erect this Temple of Commerce as a memorial to the business genius of this old Georgia citizen, was expressed also a desire to affiliate the Macy name with an established southern institution which bore a high reputation for integrity and fair dealings.

The negotiations, finally completed, brought together the tremendous resources of minds, methods and experience of two outstanding retail institutions of the North and the South—R. H. Macy & Company, Inc., New York; Davison-Paxon-Stokes Co., Atlanta.

DAVISON-PAXON-STOKES CO.
ATLANTA... Affiliated with MACY'S

THE CONSTITUTION

CLARK HOWELL
Editor and General Manager
Clark Howell, Jr., Business ManagerEntered at the Postoffice at Atlanta as second-class mail matter.
Telephone WA 6505.SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
Daily and 1 Yr. 1 Mo. 3 Mos. 6 Mos. 1 Yr.
Daily ..... $2.00 $5.00 $10.00 $20.00
Single Copies—Daily, 5c. Sunday, 10c.
By Mail—Daily, 10c. Sunday, 15c.
Atlanta, Ga., January 13, 1927

J. R. HOLLADAY, Constitution Building, sole advertising manager for all territory outside of Atlanta.

THE CONSTITUTION is on sale in New York City by 2 c. m. the day after issue. It can be had: Hottel's News Stand, Broadway and Forty-third street (Times building corner); Schuch's News Agency, at Bryant Park, and Grand Central Depot.

The Constitution is not responsible for advertisements or for the opinions of its writers, editors or contributors. Receipts given for subscription payments are not evidence of payment of subscription. The Constitution is not responsible for the opinions of its writers, editors or contributors. Receipts given for subscription payments are not evidence of payment of subscription.

MY CREATOR—The Spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life. Job 33:4.

PRAYER—Continue Thy work, O God; and create in me a clean heart and renew a right spirit within me.

COMMENDABLE.

Mayor Ragsdale and Mayor Protem Dobbs began their administrations by vigorously prosecuting a campaign against "jay-walking" in the interest of street safety.

They were both arrested for violating the signal lights. They walked against the "red" and walked into the arms of vigilant patrolmen who obeyed orders, without regard to caste or position.

Both officials smiled contentedly, commended the officers for faithful services, and felt that their crusade was bearing fruit.

They are to be commended for the manly, red-blooded spirit in which they took their arrests.

Whether wittingly or not, it was an effective test, and the mayor and his assistant will, by reason of it, be the better qualified in seeing that traffic laws are hereafter obeyed, and that the streets be kept as safe as humanly possible.

It will have a good psychological effect—a good effect in strengthening police morale.

In upholding the law there should be no immunity—no unauthorized "influence." The mayor knows it. He seeks nothing for himself that shall not be administered to any other citizen.

If such efficiency continues, with the intersections watched unintermittently, we shall see better enforcement in Atlanta, and less accidents, and less deaths and casualties.

GREAT PROJECTS BEGIN.

The immense playground development project of Howard E. Coffin, automobile manufacturer, on St. Simon's island, near Brunswick, is now under way.

This program includes a great country club, with golf course and polo grounds, a magnificent tourist hotel, cottages and scenic developments through the semi-tropic forests that will be inviting and attractive.

Mr. Coffin purchased Long Beach, one of the most attractive ocean fronts on the southern coast, from F. E. Twitty and associates, of Brunswick, some months ago.

These developments, involving the expenditure of millions, coupled with the great terminal developments being made by the Atlantic Coast Line, recent purchasers of the old A., B. &amp; C. railroad, now the A., B. &amp; C. railroad, naturally attract attention to Brunswick as nothing has in recent years.

In the meantime other great playground developments in Georgia are going forward, including the Barron Collier project at Blue Springs, near Albany, the latter involving also the expenditure of several millions.

Franklin Roosevelt also is laying the groundwork for a great resort development at Warm Springs, in central Georgia. It is also understood a great mountain resort development project is in process of formation in the Blue Ridge.

Georgia, with her diversity of industrial, agricultural, ceramic and power developments, coupled with her marvellously growing distributing business, is destined also to become an outstanding resort state, with tourist hotels and playgrounds second to none in the country.

And there is a reason. Any point in Georgia is only 24 to 36 hours distant from 60,000,000 people—an advantage of great force.

Besides, Georgia not only has the mountains—so beautiful and as symmetrical as any in America—but a long and beautiful coast, interspersed with sea islands, and attractive inland waterways.

No other state except California, with its coast and the Sierras, can boast of these twin recreational opportunities. And California is 3,000 miles away.

THE PROPER COURSE.

The United States, in good faith, should accept the proposal of President Calles, of Mexico, to refer the differences between the two governments to The Hague court of arbitration.

The president of Mexico makes it clear that arbitral decisions are often on the side of the strong and therefore it is a concession on the part of the latter.

With this we do not agree. Arbitration fails, as a means of settling disputes without resorting to more drastic measures, if it is not fair, regardless of the strength or the influence of the powers involved.

But, on the other hand, we cannot overlook the treaty of Guadalupe. This was originally signed in 1848 and it was confirmed by the convention of 1908. Article 21, of that treaty, reads in part as follows:

"A resort shall not . . . be had to reprisals, aggression or hostility of any kind . . . until the government of that (country) which deems itself aggrieved shall have considered in the spirit of peace and good neighborhood whether it would not be better that such differences should be settled by arbitration of commissioners appointed on each side or by that of a friendly nation. And should such course be proposed by either party it shall be acceded to by the other . . . less deemed by it altogether incompatible with the nature of the differences or the circumstances of the case."

There is no mistaking the direct mandates of that pact. There is no occasion to argue the differences, either as to the alleged retroactive enforcement of the Mexican constitution nationalizing her underground wealth, or as to the present contra-opinions as to the right of president of Nicaragua, in diplomatic notes, or in the press.

For the sake of peace, which is most desired, if with honor, this government cannot afford to reject arbitration if the Mexican government officially makes the direct proposal. Surely this government, for some ulterior motive, is not seeking to deliberately precipitate war.

WOMEN GOVERNORS.

Governor "Ma" Ferguson has made a jest of justice and a mockery of the judiciary in Texas. Her penchant for granting pardons and paroles to convicted criminals—actuated perhaps either by a spirit of political revenge, or by an insane emotionalism—has reached such a stage that superior court judges are deferring the calling of criminal dockets until after her term expires.

As "Pa" Ferguson, who is notoriously known to be the real governor hiding behind the petticoats of his wife, is alleged to write most of the pardons with his own pen—a strenuous job—the question will naturally arise as to the possibilities of any commercialization of the pardoning power.

Be that as it may, if the Ferguson had much longer to stay in control of the state's administration Texas would become so overrun with immuned criminals that society would be unsafe, and terrorism would prevail of a nature equally as dangerous as the wave of "night riding" and "regulating" that swept that state three or four years ago.

The cause of woman's suffrage, per se, has not been damaged by "Ma" Ferguson, because as freeholders, tax payers, and constituted citizens, women have as much right to the ballot, despite the constitutional authority—if they qualify—as have the male citizens.

But the cause of advancing women to positions of high executive trust has been seriously hampered.

The one other woman governor in America's history seems to have gotten along pretty well. She has quietly performed her duties, kept out of the spotlight, and so far as we know in this section of the country, acquitted herself all right.

But Mrs. Ferguson started off on the wrong foot, and has never just caught the right step.

The final survey of deaths occasioned by the recent Florida hurricane totals 242 which is about a three weeks' automobile harvest in the south.

A man in Virginia was granted a divorce because his wife played bridge and danced and fed him from tin cans. The eternal triangle is apparent—an appetite, a woman and a can opener.

The difference in a child's age when buying a railroad ticket and piloting an automobile is about seven years.

BITS OF NEW YORK LIFE

New York, January 12.—Forty-second street has begun to work on the generation in the matter of Abie's Irish Rose.

A man and his wife were passing the Republic theatre one afternoon last week. In the man's arms, encased in soft, brown wool, nestled an infant, not more than six months old. "Look, baby," piped the fond father, "this is Abie's Irish Rose."

For some reason the infant turned and gave way to wild, ungovernable sobbing.

Probably a future dramatic critic.

Once upon a time the New York magazines used to advertise the writers whose stuff was slated to appear in forthcoming numbers.

Nowadays the big periodicals exploit their circulation as national advertising agencies. Their yarns are merely incidental.

When the manufacturers of "You-just-know-she-tears-em" hosiery, pays the publisher of a magazine more for a page advertisement than the average weaver of yarns can earn in a year, it is quite natural that the literary output should begin to evince indications of wilting and wobbling.

A genial, urbane and dapper crook sentenced to a 10-year prison term the other day was leaving court to retrace his steps across the Bridge of Sighs.

"Hey, you left your hat and coat," Assistant District Attorney Maloney called after him.

The chooser turned and smiled brightly.

"The coat," he said affably, "is the property of Governor Millerott, of Maine. The hat belongs to some other gentleman. I obtained both by walking into the Harvard club and putting them on. Please return them, won't you? They'll be dreadfully out of style by the time I have use for such things again, and you know, the Harvard club will still be functioning, eh, wot?"

Some months ago on a dull, rainy evening, I entered a cigar shop on Forty-second street and observed one of the clerks deeply engrossed in an entertaining looking volume.

By adroit maneuvering I managed to catch a glimpse of the title. It was The Life of Christ.

Recently I re-entered the shop and found the same Clara Malone. I commended his literary learnings and likewise his thoroughness.

"Well, I'm reading it the second time," he said. "I think it's a great book. The Life of Christ, although," he added with a smile, "I may be prejudiced. I've always been into biography."

When his nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

LOOKING AND LISTENING

BY SAM W. SMALL

Subjects of Interest and Suggestion for Georgian Consideration.

Washington, January 12.—Senator George is one of the subcommittee of the senate that is investigating the propriety of allowing Senator Gould, of Maine, to continue as a senator of the United States. The complaint against Senator Gould is that he is 14 years ago that he bribed a presidential elector to procure or preserve certain railroad contracts that the senator and his associates then had in the Canadian province.

The inquiry, brought on by a resolution presented by Senator Walsh, of Montana, the accepted "Sherlock Holmes" of the senate, is to determine whether the circumstances of the Gould-Fleming deal were such as to taint the Maine man with such moral turpitude as to render him unfit to sit in the honorable senate of the nation.

The designation of Senator George as one of the investigators is due to the fact that his colleagues, in spite of the short service he has thus far had in the senate, look upon him as a man of flawless probity, sound judgment and fairness, and one who can be depended upon to "do justice though the heavens fall." Georgians are well so to appreciate the confidence and honor thus bestowed upon their distinguished junior senator.

Miss Dell's Unique Position. The national woman's party is boastful that one of its leaders, Miss Jessie Dell, of Georgia, occupies the highest post in the executive department of the government ever reached by any woman. Miss Dell is one of the three civil service commissioners, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

When her nomination was sent to the senate it was at once and generally agreed that no better choice for a commissioner could have been made.

So this very efficient commissioner, an independent bureau of the government, operating under the civil service act of 1883. She was not appointed to this important position by President Coolidge simply because no more than two of the three commissioners, under the law, be of the same political party, but she was chosen from among a host of persons urged by senators and representatives for the reason that, having served the commission in a clerical capacity for some years, she was thoroughly conversant with the functions and work of the commission.

That Gasoline Tax.

Members of congress from states that levy and collect a tax on gasoline in aid of their highway funds are awaiting with anxiety the decision that the supreme court will make in the case from the state of Washington that was recently argued before the high tribunal.

Should the court conclude that the gasoline tax is a toll taken from the users of the highways and is in violation of the federal aid highway act that forbids the application of federal aid funds to roads whereon a toll is taken, it would seriously affect all but four of the state highway systems in the country. Georgia would be one of those states that would suffer heavily.

There is a well-reasoned fear that the supreme court, following obvious precedents, may find that the gasoline tax is a toll. In that case there will be immediate efforts in congress to amend the federal aid act as to avoid the effect of such decision. Several forms of a curative amendment have already been prepared for introduction in the event the tax should be declared unconstitutional.

It has been suggested by one Georgia member that an avoidance amendment be enacted anyhow and without reference to what the decision of the supreme court may be when handed down. Perhaps that would be the better way to save the mooted situation.

The Hegira Southward.

Since the clean-up after the holidays and the advent of really cold weather, the hegira from the frozen north to the sunny south is actually on. The caravan of autos carrying passengers and all sorts of tourist impedimenta is passing through the capital daily. The hurricane ravages in Florida last September may have affected a few speculative persons, but those of us who go to Florida for recuperation and seasonal comfort do not bother about storm perils. They have learned from the weather bureau that no such dangers menace them in the peninsula in the winter season, so they are taking their joy rides to the orange-land in seemingly increasing numbers.

Almost invariably those passing through Washington stop at automobile headquarters for information on road conditions between the Potomac and the gulf.

The great advertising campaign by Atlanta, supplemented by lesser campaigns by Savannah and Brunswick, has generated a strong desire by many thousands of northern tourists to "see Georgia"—to visit the phenomenal city and to study the advantages and progress of the state.

It is regrettable that so many of them get the information that "the lower down you reach Georgia, the quicker you get through it, the better for your auto and your bones."

Cannot that condition be quickly changed?

The announcement of the advent of redemption beginning with the well known lines:

"Who is this coming from Edom, Raw-red his garments from Bozrah?" has the staidness and solemnity of a Beethoven symphony. He emphasized the sovereignty and deity of God manifested in creation, in history and in the career of His ancient people as well as in individual lives.

The degradation of idolatry, the need for religious loyalty and devotion on the part of the exiles, the certain return from Babylon through the interposition of Cyrus and the remarkable delineation of Jehovah's suffering servant in the chapters of Isaiah, which are derived from the 16 chapters from the Isaiah to the fifty-sixth, inclusive, of Isaiah.

Although telling us nothing about the external incidents of his life, the chapters reveal a personality of magnificent moral and intellectual gifts, endowed with imaginative and poetic genius of the highest order.

In which the labor elements of the people were concerned, a new movement sprang up to limit the power of the court to decide the constitutionality of acts of congress.

The late Senator La Follette proposed that an act of congress decided to be unconstitutional, if repassed by congress, should be constitutionally null and void.

In 1923 Senator Borah introduced a bill to require that seven of the nine members of the supreme court should be elected by the people.

In other words, those judges could make it possible for an act of congress to be declared unconstitutional.

In other words, those judges could make it possible for an act of congress to be declared unconstitutional.

In other words, those judges could make it possible for an act of congress to be declared unconstitutional.

In other words, those judges could make it possible for an act of congress to be declared unconstitutional.

In other words, those judges could make it possible for an act of congress to be declared unconstitutional.

In other words, those judges could make it possible for an act of congress to be declared unconstitutional.

In other words, those judges could make it possible for an act of congress to be declared unconstitutional.

In other words, those judges could make it possible for an act of congress to be declared unconstitutional.

In other words, those judges could make it possible for an act of congress to be declared unconstitutional.

In other words, those judges could make it possible for an act of congress to be declared unconstitutional.

In other words, those judges could make it possible for an act of congress to be declared unconstitutional.

In other words, those judges could make it possible for an act of congress to be declared unconstitutional.

In other words, those judges could make it possible for an act of congress to be declared unconstitutional.

In other words, those judges could make it possible for an act of congress to be declared unconstitutional.

In other words, those judges could make it possible for an act of congress to be declared unconstitutional.

In other words, those judges could make it possible for an act of congress to be declared unconstitutional.

In other words, those judges could make it possible for an act of congress to be declared unconstitutional.

In other words, those judges could make it possible for an act of congress to be declared unconstitutional.

In other words, those judges could make it possible for an act of congress to be

Milton C. Work's Pointer On How To Play Bridge

(Milton C. Work, the international bridge authority, will answer your auction bridge questions. A stamped self-addressed envelope must accompany each request for replies.)

The pointer for today is:

A No Trump Declarer, after holding up control of the adverse suit until the third round, should try to keep the danger hand from the lead.

The two adverse hands frequently are spoken of as the danger hand and the non-danger hand respectively. When these designations are employed, it means that a lead from one adverse hand would be very dangerous—probably fatal—to the aims of the Declarer; whereas, if the other adverse hand should obtain the lead, no serious damage would ensue. Such cases frequently confront the Declarer.

A danger and non-danger situation exists when Declarer has a suit which is vulnerable if led through, but not if led up to. There is no case, however, in which one hand is so dangerous and the other so safe as when a long adverse suit is established in one adverse hand, with no cards of it in the other.

For example, the following cards were given yesterday and the question was: how should Declarer plan to play his combined hands?

North
S: K-7-4
H: A-Q-10-8
D: J-9-7-5
C: 10-9

West Leads
Five of Clubs.

He should plan to hold up the Ace of Clubs until the third round so as if possible, to exhaust the Clubs in the East hand. Having done this, he should select Hearts as the suit to establish—a suit in which the finesse can be taken up to the non-danger hand—rather than Diamonds, in which the finesse would have to be taken up to the danger hand.

It is perfectly possible that both Home-made Supply of Fine Cough Syrup

Better than ready-made cough syrups, and saves about $2. Easily prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this home-made syrup, easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any drugist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup, or clarified honey, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the throat tickle and heals the irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and it is splendid for bronchitis, hoarseness and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and Pinexol, a Pinexol drugist for 2½ ounces of Pinex with directions. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded.

Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

PINEX
for Coughs

CUTICURA HEALS
ITCHY ECZEMA

In Blisters and Scales.
Disfigured Face.

"My trouble began with an itching and burning of the face which later developed into a case of eczema. It broke out in blisters and scales, and the irritation caused me to scratch a great deal. This aggravated it and disfigured my face. At night I could not sleep on account of the itching and burning, and it made me very nervous."

"I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and got relief after a few applications. I continued using them and in three weeks I was completely healed." (Signed) Cecil B. Clark, Rt. 1, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Daily use of Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, will keep the skin and scalp healthy.

See the Ointment and the Tablets at the Sole Dispensaries, Sample, 100
Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. M, Malden, Mass.
Cuticura Shaving Stick 25c.

Smart Jewelry

The smartest note which you may add to your Spring costume is a distinctive piece of fine jewelry.

In our collection of diamond-platinum jewelry you will find many unusually beautiful designs from which you may choose watches, rings, brooches, bar pins, bracelets and novelties. Many exquisite pieces show diamonds in combination with emeralds or sapphires.

Those who may wish to purchase their diamonds out of income rather than capital may avail themselves of our partial payment plan. One-fifth cash and the balance in ten equal monthly payments.

MAIER & BERKELE, Inc.

31 Whitehall Street—Established 39 Years

MUSCOLINI

Dynamo of Italy; An Intimate Story

BY PIERRE VAN PAASSEN

(European Staff Writer of The Atlanta Constitution and The Evening World.)

Instrumental in Persuading Italy To Join the Side of the Allies, Gives Up Journalism To Enlist as a Private.

Mr. Van Paassen has written a series of eighteen articles on Mussolini—the most talked of man in the world. The eighth article follows:

VIII.—THE SOLDIER.

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

Rome, January 12.—The turning point in Mussolini's life, the event that changed him from a firebrand socialist into an ardent patriot and nationalist, came in August, 1914, when the Germans were sweeping through Belgium on their way to Paris. Italy had an alliance with Austria and Germany, but Mussolini warned the government in name of the working classes that if "we become either the friends or the accomplices of Germany the workers will rise in rebellion."

Reproached for his change of front by the stand-pat socialists, Mussolini took back one of his maxims. "The socialist idea is a great firm game bankrupt," and threw himself wholeheartedly into an intense campaign with d'Annunzio and the Garibaldis and other elements to bring Italy into the war on the side of the allies.

"Do you want to be, as men and as socialists, inert spectators of this tremendous drama?" he asked his readers.

Italy joins Allies.

After a few months of ceaseless agitation, Italy joined the allies.

Mussolini felt that he could no longer be the guiding spirit of the firebrand party and its mouthpiece through his editorship of Avanti.

He therefore resigned and founded a paper of his own. It was whispered that the French government had equipped him with the necessary money.

The four rickety chairs, the two garret rooms, which served as editorial press room and business office of the new journal, Il Popolo d'Italia, gave a conclusive refutation to this rumor.

Italy entered the war. It was Mussolini's doing. The socialists laughed him: "Why does not the famous editorial chair."

"Turn again, Garibaldi, turn again!" These are the words of a popular Italian song. Mussolini revived it.

He put it at the top of the front page. The soldiers at the front began to sing it. It had the surprising force of a battle cry, like the "Marseillaise" or "Dixie."

It turned the tide of battle, for it brought back courage and hope and an esprit de corps that became a hymn of victory. At Caporetto the Italians were victorious and the enemy retreated in disorder down the valley.

Cause of Victory.

It was really the infiltration of the interventionist go off to war? they asked. Mussolini answered by enlisting as a private.

The Italians are among the best soldiers in the world, but they must have leaders. The man whom they can look up to. The whole history of Italy shows that the people are a leader, a duce. In the first months of the war Italy missed such a leader.

The officers were German-trained and admirers of the Prussian general staff. The result was defeat.

The King Visits Him.

In October, 1917, the allies had to send some divisions to the Italian front to back up the falling morale of the Italians. I saw the greatest confusion and chaos. The Italian army was not in flight—it was in a disastrous rout. It had thrown up the sponge. The Austrians were pouring into Lombardy.

"The morale of the troops depends on the officers who lead them," Mussolini wrote from the firing line. He was wounded, a shell burst very close, peppering his body with splinters. He was moved to a hospital. The hospital was bombed; he was wounded anew while lying in bed. When the king visited him in the hospital Mussolini was still too weak to speak. He was covered with wounds, forty in all. Doctors were busy day and night, always extracting new shell splinters.

When convalescent the paper asked him for a message. "I am filled with pride," he scribbled. His return to Milan, in the uniform of a corporal, leaning on crutches and supported by a soldier, was a sensation.

But he was hardly able to walk when he volunteered to go back to the front. This time he enlisted in the first force. He was too enfeebled to do active work and turned to the editorial chair.

"Turn again, Garibaldi, turn again!" These are the words of a popular Italian song. Mussolini revived it.

He put it at the top of the front page. The soldiers at the front began to sing it. It had the surprising force of a battle cry, like the "Marseillaise" or "Dixie."

It turned the tide of battle, for it brought back courage and hope and an esprit de corps that became a hymn of victory. At Caporetto the Italians were victorious and the enemy retreated in disorder down the valley.

Cause of Victory.

It was really the infiltration of the interventionist go off to war? they asked. Mussolini answered by enlisting as a private.

The Italians are among the best soldiers in the world, but they must have leaders. The man whom they can look up to. The whole history of Italy shows that the people are a leader, a duce. In the first months of the war Italy missed such a leader.

The officers were German-trained and admirers of the Prussian general staff. The result was defeat.

The King Visits Him.

In October, 1917, the allies had to send some divisions to the Italian front to back up the falling morale of the Italians. I saw the greatest confusion and chaos. The Italian army was not in flight—it was in a disastrous rout. It had thrown up the sponge. The Austrians were pouring into Lombardy.

"The morale of the troops depends on the officers who lead them," Mussolini wrote from the firing line. He was wounded, a shell burst very close, peppering his body with splinters. He was moved to a hospital. The hospital was bombed; he was wounded anew while lying in bed. When the king visited him in the hospital Mussolini was still too weak to speak. He was covered with wounds, forty in all. Doctors were busy day and night, always extracting new shell splinters.

When convalescent the paper asked him for a message. "I am filled with pride," he scribbled. His return to Milan, in the uniform of a corporal, leaning on crutches and supported by a soldier, was a sensation.

But he was hardly able to walk when he volunteered to go back to the front. This time he enlisted in the first force. He was too enfeebled to do active work and turned to the editorial chair.

"Turn again, Garibaldi, turn again!" These are the words of a popular Italian song. Mussolini revived it.

He put it at the top of the front page. The soldiers at the front began to sing it. It had the surprising force of a battle cry, like the "Marseillaise" or "Dixie."

It turned the tide of battle, for it brought back courage and hope and an esprit de corps that became a hymn of victory. At Caporetto the Italians were victorious and the enemy retreated in disorder down the valley.

Cause of Victory.

It was really the infiltration of the interventionist go off to war? they asked. Mussolini answered by enlisting as a private.

The Italians are among the best soldiers in the world, but they must have leaders. The man whom they can look up to. The whole history of Italy shows that the people are a leader, a duce. In the first months of the war Italy missed such a leader.

The officers were German-trained and admirers of the Prussian general staff. The result was defeat.

The King Visits Him.

In October, 1917, the allies had to send some divisions to the Italian front to back up the falling morale of the Italians. I saw the greatest confusion and chaos. The Italian army was not in flight—it was in a disastrous rout. It had thrown up the sponge. The Austrians were pouring into Lombardy.

"The morale of the troops depends on the officers who lead them," Mussolini wrote from the firing line. He was wounded, a shell burst very close, peppering his body with splinters. He was moved to a hospital. The hospital was bombed; he was wounded anew while lying in bed. When the king visited him in the hospital Mussolini was still too weak to speak. He was covered with wounds, forty in all. Doctors were busy day and night, always extracting new shell splinters.

When convalescent the paper asked him for a message. "I am filled with pride," he scribbled. His return to Milan, in the uniform of a corporal, leaning on crutches and supported by a soldier, was a sensation.

But he was hardly able to walk when he volunteered to go back to the front. This time he enlisted in the first force. He was too enfeebled to do active work and turned to the editorial chair.

"Turn again, Garibaldi, turn again!" These are the words of a popular Italian song. Mussolini revived it.

He put it at the top of the front page. The soldiers at the front began to sing it. It had the surprising force of a battle cry, like the "Marseillaise" or "Dixie."

It turned the tide of battle, for it brought back courage and hope and an esprit de corps that became a hymn of victory. At Caporetto the Italians were victorious and the enemy retreated in disorder down the valley.

Cause of Victory.

It was really the infiltration of the interventionist go off to war? they asked. Mussolini answered by enlisting as a private.

The Italians are among the best soldiers in the world, but they must have leaders. The man whom they can look up to. The whole history of Italy shows that the people are a leader, a duce. In the first months of the war Italy missed such a leader.

The officers were German-trained and admirers of the Prussian general staff. The result was defeat.

The King Visits Him.

In October, 1917, the allies had to send some divisions to the Italian front to back up the falling morale of the Italians. I saw the greatest confusion and chaos. The Italian army was not in flight—it was in a disastrous rout. It had thrown up the sponge. The Austrians were pouring into Lombardy.

"The morale of the troops depends on the officers who lead them," Mussolini wrote from the firing line. He was wounded, a shell burst very close, peppering his body with splinters. He was moved to a hospital. The hospital was bombed; he was wounded anew while lying in bed. When the king visited him in the hospital Mussolini was still too weak to speak. He was covered with wounds, forty in all. Doctors were busy day and night, always extracting new shell splinters.

When convalescent the paper asked him for a message. "I am filled with pride," he scribbled. His return to Milan, in the uniform of a corporal, leaning on crutches and supported by a soldier, was a sensation.

But he was hardly able to walk when he volunteered to go back to the front. This time he enlisted in the first force. He was too enfeebled to do active work and turned to the editorial chair.

"Turn again, Garibaldi, turn again!" These are the words of a popular Italian song. Mussolini revived it.

He put it at the top of the front page. The soldiers at the front began to sing it. It had the surprising force of a battle cry, like the "Marseillaise" or "Dixie."

It turned the tide of battle, for it brought back courage and hope and an esprit de corps that became a hymn of victory. At Caporetto the Italians were victorious and the enemy retreated in disorder down the valley.

Cause of Victory.

It was really the infiltration of the interventionist go off to war? they asked. Mussolini answered by enlisting as a private.

The Italians are among the best soldiers in the world, but they must have leaders. The man whom they can look up to. The whole history of Italy shows that the people are a leader, a duce. In the first months of the war Italy missed such a leader.

The officers were German-trained and admirers of the Prussian general staff. The result was defeat.

The King Visits Him.

In October, 1917, the allies had to send some divisions to the Italian front to back up the falling morale of the Italians. I saw the greatest confusion and chaos. The Italian army was not in flight—it was in a disastrous rout. It had thrown up the sponge. The Austrians were pouring into Lombardy.

"The morale of the troops depends on the officers who lead them," Mussolini wrote from the firing line. He was wounded, a shell burst very close, peppering his body with splinters. He was moved to a hospital. The hospital was bombed; he was wounded anew while lying in bed. When the king visited him in the hospital Mussolini was still too weak to speak. He was covered with wounds, forty in all. Doctors were busy day and night, always extracting new shell splinters.

When convalescent the paper asked him for a message. "I am filled with pride," he scribbled. His return to Milan, in the uniform of a corporal, leaning on crutches and supported by a soldier, was a sensation.

But he was hardly able to walk when he volunteered to go back to the front. This time he enlisted in the first force. He was too enfeebled to do active work and turned to the editorial chair.

"Turn again, Garibaldi, turn again!" These are the words of a popular Italian song. Mussolini revived it.

He put it at the top of the front page. The soldiers at the front began to sing it. It had the surprising force of a battle cry, like the "Marseillaise" or "Dixie."

It turned the tide of battle, for it brought back courage and hope and an esprit de corps that became a hymn of victory. At Caporetto the Italians were victorious and the enemy retreated in disorder down the valley.

Cause of Victory.

It was really the infiltration of the interventionist go off to war? they asked. Mussolini answered by enlisting as a private.

The Italians are among the best soldiers in the world, but they must have leaders. The man whom they can look up to. The whole history of Italy shows that the people are a leader, a duce. In the first months of the war Italy missed such a leader.

The officers were German-trained and admirers of the Prussian general staff. The result was defeat.

The King Visits Him.

In October, 1917, the allies had to send some divisions to the Italian front to back up the falling morale of the Italians. I saw the greatest confusion and chaos. The Italian army was not in flight—it was in a disastrous rout. It had thrown up the sponge. The Austrians were pouring into Lombardy.

"The morale of the troops depends on the officers who lead them," Mussolini wrote from the firing line. He was wounded, a shell burst very close, peppering his body with splinters. He was moved to a hospital. The hospital was bombed; he was wounded anew while lying in bed. When the king visited him in the hospital Mussolini was still too weak to speak. He was covered with wounds, forty in all. Doctors were busy day and night, always extracting new shell splinters.

When convalescent the paper asked him for a message. "I am filled with pride," he scribbled. His return to Milan, in the uniform of a corporal, leaning on crutches and supported by a soldier, was a sensation.

But he was hardly able to walk when he volunteered to go back to the front. This time he enlisted in the first force. He was too enfeebled to do active work and turned to the editorial chair.

"Turn again, Garibaldi, turn again!" These are the words of a popular Italian song. Mussolini revived it.

He put it at the top of the front page. The soldiers at the front began to sing it. It had the surprising force of a battle cry, like the "Marseillaise" or "Dixie."

It turned the tide of battle, for it brought back courage and hope and an esprit de corps that became a hymn of victory. At Caporetto the Italians were victorious and the enemy retreated in disorder down the valley.

Cause of Victory.

It was really the infiltration of the interventionist go off to war? they asked. Mussolini answered by enlisting as a private.

The Italians are among the best soldiers in the world, but they must have leaders. The man whom they can look up to. The whole history of Italy shows that the people are a leader, a duce. In the first months of the war Italy missed such a leader.

The officers were German-trained and admirers of the Prussian general staff. The result was defeat.

The King Visits Him.

In October, 1917, the allies had to send some divisions to the Italian front to back up the falling morale of the Italians. I saw the greatest confusion and chaos. The Italian army was not in flight—it was in a disastrous rout. It had thrown up the sponge. The Austrians were pouring into Lombardy.

"The morale of the troops depends on the officers who lead them," Mussolini wrote from the firing line. He was wounded, a shell burst very close, peppering his body with splinters. He was moved to a hospital. The hospital was bombed; he was wounded anew while lying in bed. When the king visited him in the hospital Mussolini was still too weak to speak. He was covered with wounds, forty in all. Doctors were busy day and night, always extracting new shell splinters.

When convalescent the paper asked him for a message. "I am filled with pride," he scribbled. His return to Milan, in the uniform of a corporal, leaning on crutches and supported by a soldier, was a sensation.

But he was hardly able to walk when he volunteered to go back to the front. This time he enlisted in the first force. He was too enfeebled to do active work and turned to the editorial chair.

"Turn again, Garibaldi, turn again!" These are the words of a popular Italian song. Mussolini revived it.

He put it at the top of the front page. The soldiers at the front began to sing it. It had the surprising force of a battle cry, like the "Marseillaise" or "Dixie."

It turned the tide of battle, for it brought back courage and hope and an esprit de corps that became a hymn of victory. At Caporetto the Italians were victorious and the enemy retreated in disorder down the valley.

Cause of Victory.

It was really the infiltration of the interventionist go off to war? they asked. Mussolini answered by enlisting as a private.

The Italians are among the best soldiers in the world, but they must have leaders. The man whom they can look up to. The whole history of Italy shows that the people are a leader, a duce. In the first months of the war Italy missed such a leader.

The officers were German-trained and admirers of the Prussian general staff. The result was defeat.

The King Visits Him.

In October, 1917, the allies had to send some divisions to the Italian front to back up the falling morale of the Italians. I saw the greatest confusion and chaos. The Italian army was not in flight—it was in a disastrous rout. It had thrown up the sponge. The Austrians were pouring into Lombardy.

"The morale of the troops depends on the officers who lead them," Mussolini wrote from the firing line. He was wounded, a shell burst very close, peppering his body with splinters. He was moved to a hospital. The hospital was bombed; he was wounded anew while lying in bed. When the king visited him in the hospital Mussolini was still too weak to speak. He was covered with wounds, forty in all. Doctors were busy day and night, always extracting new shell splinters.

When convalescent the paper asked him for a message. "I am filled with pride," he scribbled. His return to Milan, in the uniform of a corporal, leaning on crutches and supported by a soldier, was a sensation.

But he was hardly able to walk when he volunteered to go back to the front. This time he enlisted in the first force. He was too enfeebled to do active work and turned to the editorial chair.

"Turn again, Garibaldi, turn again!" These are the words of a popular Italian song. Mussolini revived it.

He put it at the top of the front page. The soldiers at the front began to sing it. It had the surprising force of a battle cry, like the "Marseillaise" or "Dixie."

It turned the tide of battle, for it brought back courage and hope and an esprit de corps that became a hymn of victory. At Caporetto the Italians were victorious and the enemy retreated in disorder down the valley.

Cause of Victory.

It was really the infiltration of the interventionist go off to war? they asked. Mussolini answered by enlisting as a private.

The Italians are among the best soldiers in the world, but they must have leaders. The man whom they can look up to. The whole history of Italy shows that the people are a leader, a duce. In the first months of the war Italy missed such a leader.

The officers were German-trained and admirers of the Prussian general staff. The result was defeat.

The King Visits Him.

In October, 1917, the allies had to send some divisions to the Italian front to back up the falling morale of the Italians. I saw the greatest confusion and chaos. The Italian army was not in flight—it was in a disastrous rout. It had thrown up the sponge. The Austrians were pouring into Lombardy.

"The morale of the troops depends on the officers who lead them," Mussolini wrote from the firing line. He was wounded, a shell burst very close, peppering his body with splinters. He was moved to a hospital. The hospital was bombed; he was wounded anew while lying in bed. When the king visited him in the hospital Mussolini was still too weak to speak. He was covered with wounds, forty in all. Doctors were busy day and night, always extracting new shell splinters.

When convalescent the paper asked him for a message. "I am filled with pride," he scribbled. His return to Milan, in the uniform of a corporal, leaning on crutches and supported by a soldier, was a sensation.

But he was hardly able to walk when he volunteered to go back to the front. This time he enlisted in the first force. He was too enfeebled to do active work and turned to the editorial chair.

"Turn again, Garibaldi, turn again!" These are the words of a popular Italian song. Mussolini revived it.

He put it at the top of the front page. The soldiers at the front began to sing it. It had the surprising force of a battle cry, like the "Marseillaise" or "Dixie."

It turned the tide of battle, for it brought back courage and hope and an esprit de corps that became a hymn of victory. At Caporetto the Italians were victorious and the enemy retreated in disorder down the valley.

Cause of Victory.

It was really the infiltration of the interventionist go off to war? they asked. Mussolini answered by enlisting as a private.

Landis Exonerates Players; Proposes 4 New Ball Rules

Statutes Will Help National Pastime, Judge Believes—Will Submit Suggestions to Officials at Meeting of Leagues January 17.

BY MAURICE MERMER.

Chicago, January 12.—Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis has followed his exonerations of more than a score of ball players involved in charges brought by "Swede" Risberg by recommending four new rules for organized baseball which the high commissioner believes would be for the good of the game and assist in elimination of scandals such as recently shook the national pastime.

The new rules proposed by Landis follow:

- 1.—To establish a limitation of time on the investigation of any scandal in baseball.
- 2.—To bar for one year any player who rewards another for services rendered in any ball game.
- 3.—To bar for one year any player who wagers on a game in which he is playing, no matter which team he bets on.
- 4.—To bar for all time any player who wagers on a game in which he is playing, no matter which team he bets on.

Although nobody expected the commissioner of baseball to announce so soon after the scandal hearings that he frowned upon betting, his suggestions were not unexpected.

Favors Cobb, Speaker.

In the recommendations were seen the suggestion that Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker be exonerated from implication of scandal in connection with the "Black Sox" game in 1919. Hubert (Dutch) Leonard has charged that the September 25, 1919, game between the Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers was thrown by the former and that bets were made on the game.

Request for a statute of limitations, as in our state and national statutes with regard to criminal offenses, indicates Landis' low regard for exonerated scandals—charges which have been kicking about for years before being brought before the properly constituted authorities.

Landis twice has been the savior of the game. He was brought into the game when knowledge of the 1919 world's series scandal became public. His vigorous efforts to purge the game of sin resulted in the outlawing of eight crack players, among them Risberg and Arnold (Click) Gandil, who made the accusations of scandal in connection with the 1917 White Sox-Tiger series. His exoneration of the players Wednesday was another saving grace.

Aid in Recovery.

The new points, if adopted, undoubtedly would be a stiff schedule this season, and also a large number of vacancies, therefore the aspirants. The annual cross-country run will also be held in the near future, and a number of the candidates are training for this and the squad at the same time.

Bill Harper, who breezed through all opposition in junior high circles, has not yet made his appearance on account of an injured foot received during the grid season. If he can run faster in a track suit than he can in a uniform—and that's what they say at Boys' High—then he will be one of the fastest men in prep circles this spring.

Jenkins and Malone have been doing the best work among the hurdlers. In the sprints Shabazz, Vogel, Shivers, Pitzer, Cunningham, McClarty and de Jarnette are staging a merry battle among themselves for these positions. Clark, Brim, Bowles and Floyd are doing the best work in distance events.

On the whole it seems as though the Purple is due to have a good cinder squad this year, and will give Tech High, which has dominated prep track in Atlanta for so long, a tough battle throughout the season.

"Stewed" Duck Easy To Get

Port Arthur, Texas.—"Stewed" duck is the latest epicurean delight here. Nimrods began by using whiskey-soaked grain in the feeding places of the birds. When the ducks have consumed a certain amount of the "doctored" feed they act in a strange and unbecomingly manner for ducks, hunters say, and they have no difficulty in bagging the intoxicated fowl.

Contos Lowers Prices Of Wrestling Matches

Promoter John Contos Wednesday made two more moves calculated to strengthen his hold on Atlanta wrestling plans. John announced that he has signed Pat Jones to meet Jim Browning in the one-hour semi-windup of the show at the city auditorium Tuesday night. Also he let it be known that he has cut the prices of tickets.

Epworthers Clash At Wesley Tonight

One girls' game and three boys' games will be played tonight in the Epworth league basketball loop, starting at 6:30 o'clock on the Wesley court.

The Wesley Memorial and Trinity boys will begin the evening's program with what promises to be a hard fought game. The Wesley boys are the "A" league leaders, while the Trinity boys have been strengthening their team with the hopes of winning this game. The Calvary vs. Grant Park girls' game will also be a nip and tuck battle. The Kirkwood boys are showing up good and with their unblemished record and will give the Grant Park boys plenty of competition. In the last game of the evening, the Capitol View boys meet the St. John boys in a game expected to be exciting, as both teams have the same standing in their league. Both are of about equal strength and the game will no doubt be hard fought.

The scheduled Wesley Memorial vs. Trinity (boys) 6:30. Calvary vs. Grant Park (girls) 6:30. Grant Park vs. Kirkwood, (boys) 7:00. Capitol View vs. St. John (boys) 8:10.

4 Games Booked In Sewanee Loop

Four good games will be played in the Sewanee loop of the "Y" church Thursday, starting at 6:30 o'clock on the Y. M. C. A. court.

Not one of the four tilts should be one-sided. The Boethians and Confederate Avenue clash should be exceptionally good, and the Third Baptist should give the leading West End Presbyterian a stiff engagement. The games will be played as follows:

- Y. F. F. Class vs. All Saints at 6:30 o'clock.
- West End Presbyterian vs. Third Baptist at 6:50 o'clock.
- Boethians vs. Confederate Avenue at 7:10 o'clock.
- First Methodist vs. Anchor Feds at 8:10 o'clock.

Frank Dodson Sold By Atlanta Club

The sale of Frank Dodson, right-handed pitcher, was purchased by the Atlanta Crackers from the Virginia club of the Piedmont league two years ago, was announced Wednesday afternoon by Bert Niehoff, manager of the Cracker clan.

Dodson will join the Harrisburg, Pa., club in the New York-Pennsylvania league. Dodson is a promising young pitcher, although he lacks control of his speed. Niehoff believes he will overcome this handicap with one season of work. The amount involved in the deal was not announced by the Cracker boss.

Of All the Nerve!

Frankfort, Ky.—Eugene F. McDonald, who is serving a life sentence in a state penitentiary for murder, wants to return to the state capitol here, where the murder was committed, as governor. He has petitioned Governor W. J. Fields for a hearing of his application for a pardon. He has served about 10 years, and hopes to make the race for governor in the primaries next August.

Cuyler Signs for 1927.

Pittsburgh, January 12.—(AP)—Hazen Cuyler, outfield flash, and Bullet Joe Bush, veteran pitcher, have affixed their signatures to 1927 contracts, the Pittsburgh National baseball club announces.

Officers, Woman's Division, Commerce Chamber

Officers of the woman's division of the chamber of commerce for 1927 shown above. From left to right, Miss Lois Manning, president, Miss Eula Lang, first vice president, and Mrs. Nellie Nix Edwards, second vice president. Miss Manning succeeds Miss Susie C. Wailes, who has been president of the division for three years, and under whose leadership the division has taken its place as one of the outstanding civic organizations of the city. Miss Manning has served efficiently as first vice president, and it is expected that under her leadership the division will continue on the high plane which it has attained under Miss Wailes' presidency.

TENERANGLING GIRL MEETS DEATH IN VIRGINIA FIRE

Rocky Mount, Va., January 12.—(AP)—One girl was burned to death and ten others were injured by jumping from windows of the Black Prince Overall company's plant, which, with six other buildings, was destroyed by fire today. The body of Miss Annie Brown, an employee of the overall factory, where the fire was discovered, was found this afternoon by firemen. The ten injured girls were taken to hospitals in Roanoke. The loss was estimated by the mayor at over $100,000, while some business men say it will amount to $250,000.

The exact origin of the fire is not known. One theory is that it started in the basement of the Farmers' Mercantile building, from an overheated furnace. Another is that it started in the elevator shaft of the overall factory. It was first seen in the elevator shaft and almost immediately there was a rush of girls and women for windows. The ten injured girls are said to have leaped from the third story window of the overall plant, and the last seen of Miss Brown was when she was sitting on a window ledge evidently unwilling to make the leap.

The buildings burned were the overall plant, J. B. Morris Grocery company, N. J. Montgomery Hardware company, Rocky Mount Drug Store, Cash and Carry Grocery, W. C. Smith's Paint Store and Peddie cafe. The Farmers' Mercantile building was damaged by fire and the

Wheat Signifies

Zack Wheat, former Brooklyn outfielder and captain, signed with the Athletics today after playing the lead in an interesting drama which involved the Giants, Yankees, and it is thought also the Senators.

MELLON'S SON JOINS YALE PAPER STAFF

New Haven, Conn., January 12.—Paul W. Mellon, of Washington, son of the secretary of the treasury, has entered the newspaper field. He has been elected vice chairman of the 1929 board of the Yale Daily News.

RITCHIE DEFENDS RIGHTS OF STATES

Annapolis, Md., January 12.—(AP) Reaffirming his plea for the rights of the states against "encroachment of centralized federal government," Albert Cabell Ritchie, only governor in the history of Maryland to be elected for more than one term, set his feet on the pathway to a national gubernatorial record today when he was inaugurated for the third consecutive time. Governor Ritchie already has served seven years in the executive mansion, in itself a Maryland precedent. With completion of his present term he will have served 11 years, a greater number than any governor of any other state in the union.

While he personally avoided all allusion to 1928 presidential honors, the governor savvily plentifully sprinkled in the throng that jammed the historic state house to hear his inaugural address gold badges, emblazoned "Ritchie for president."

The governor decried "sumptuary laws regulating personal practices and relations" and declared them to be "fast crowding out established American institutions."

"We have drifted too far down the stream of federal centralization," he said. "Government should not be a master, but a servant."

"If you let the inherent and historical character of your government change; if you let the states yield their vitality and become anemic and dependent things; if you look on while centralization breeds its bureaucrats, its petty tyranny and its incompetency; if unpromptingly you stand by while the rights of citizenship are confiscated, then do not say the fault lies in the stars when liberty and equality of opportunity fade and tolerance bids the land farewell."

"The bill of rights," he asserted, "was not written into the constitution as a mere expression of political theory. I am becoming stronger in the conviction that much longer now will Maryland stand almost alone in her fight for the preservation of its guarantees."

Turning to the cost of government, Governor Ritchie said:

"We do not protest against the ever-growing expenditures of the federal government wherever these supply the needs of the people or aid to the resources of effectiveness of the nation."

"It is against the bureaucratic system of the federal government, remote from the people, with the burdensome, perplexing and prying laws lacking popular sanction, its red tape and general incompetency of subordinates performing duties of responsibility—it is against the pyramiding of the cost of these things to the taxpayers of the country that I protest."

He declared the nation is embarked upon a third era following the first of incomprehension of dual citizenship in both state and nation, and the second of nationalistic tendencies after the civil war in which the struggle "far from the old one for state supremacy over the federal government, against the federal government's invasions of the states' own domain."

"These things are not political abstractions of governmental fantasies," he said. "They are the practical, real, living stages in the most vital work of construction which the world knows—the endless building of a nation."

BETTER THAN WHISKEY FOR COLDS AND FLU

To cut short a cold or cough due to a cold and prevent complications, nothing gives such quick and delightful relief as ASPIRONAL, a delightful elixir, medicated with the latest scientific remedies that are used and endorsed by the highest medical authorities.

Every druggist is authorized by the manufacturer to refund your money while you wait at the counter if you cannot feel relief coming in two minutes. Relief means: Clears the head; relieves the congestion in the nose and throat; checks the excessive flow of mucus; banishes the dull, frontal headache and that chilly, creepy, aching feeling that attend a cold.

Aspirinal is a "complete" cold remedy in itself, including agents that almost instantly begin to relieve the distressing symptoms and later remove the cause by acting gently and most delightfully on the liver and bowels. Aspirinal is perfectly safe for children as well as adults. Quickest and best relief for ailing group and children's "choking-up" with phlegm at night. Only fifty cents for a family bottle. Clip this guarantee offer and take it to your druggist today.—(adv.)

Special

TWO LOTS
BROKEN SIZES

MUSE HATS for MEN

Felts and Velours.
Roll and snap brims.

One lot of $5, $6, $7, $7.50 Hats

$3.85

One lot of $8, $8.50 and $10 Hats

$4.85

MUSE'S

The Style Center of the South
PEACHTREE-WALTON-BROAD

Entrance Men's Dept. FRED S. STEWART CO. 8 W. Alabama St.

STACY-ADAMS SHOES—BOSTONIANS—DR. REED'S CUSHION SOLE SHOES—STEWART'S 56 SHOES—MEN'S HATS AND FURNISHINGS—MAIL ORDERS FILLED—POSTAGE PREPAID

For Your Old Shoes!

Men! A rare opportunity! A chance to "cash in" on that old pair of discarded shoes! It makes no difference if they are ages old—they are worth $2 just the same! Either bring or wear in your old pair! We will allow you $2.00 off on "any shoe in stock, high or low models! Prices $6 to $10! Quite a saving! For Thursday, Friday and Saturday only!

*Does not include Stacy-Adams or Dr. Reed's shoes.

ALL	300	OUTING
MEN'S HATS	MEN'S SHIRTS	PAJAMAS
1/4 off	1/2 off	1/4 off

All Men's Hats reduced 25%. Makers, Schoble and Berg. Most all colors! Regular prices $5 to $8.50.

Men's Dept. 8 W. Alabama St.

Stewart

Main Entrance 25 Whitehall St.

A Price that Says "BUY NOW"

178 Suits

BEGINNING this morning, and lasting three days only, we are offering you a group of 178 high-grade suits that formerly were fairly priced at a much higher figure. Not all sizes of all styles, but plenty to choose from, and all at a wonderful saving.

Thursday
Friday
Saturday

at $23.75

110 Pairs Odd Pants To Close Out at $3.95

EISEMANN'S

THE HOUSE OF KUPPENHEIMER GOOD CLOTHES
56-58 Peachtree "Thru to Broad"

Oglethorpe Announces 1927 Baseball Schedule

Tech Beats Petrels 34 to 31; A. A. C. Wins Over J. P. C. 41 to 33

Hearn Leads Jackets' Attack on Bird Cage Outfit.

Bean-Coached Teams Stage Hectic Battle—Passing Features Game.

Georgia Tech played a better brand of basketball against the Oglethorpe Petrels Wednesday afternoon and won its match 34-31, in a game that from the start threatened to be a Yellow Jacket rout.

The general all-around work of the Techmen was considerably improved and their three-point margin lay in the free throw department. Both teams sunk the same number of field goals, 14.

Petrels Rally.

Trailing by never less than seven points after closing the half five points under, Oglethorpe rallied toward the last and with Sheridan and Bass, Petrel forward and center, trying for long shot honors, the Oglethorpeans came at one time within one point of tying the score. In the last three minutes Hearn added another field goal to the 32-31 score and Tech passed the game out, content with the three-point margin.

Hearn was again high point man, scoring a total of 16 points, all of which came through the field goal way. Tiny missed three free throws. Bass, Oglethorpe center, led his aggregation with 13 and Sheridan came next with 11. Tech sank six of 33 free tries. Oglethorpe sank three from seven. Which goes to show that an unusually clean game was played.

The game began with Tech taking the field completely away from the Petrels before they seemed to realize that the starting whistle had blown. A seven point lead was piled up in the early minutes. From then forward the game was of middle speed, not slow enough to be listless and not hard enough to be a hard-fought contest, and the half ended with Tech leading 17-12.

At the beginning of the second half, George and Hearn began to take more apparent pride in their shooting. A Tech soon had the lead jumping between seven and nine points. But Sheridan and Bass came to life. No angle or distance dampened the play of these boys. They shot and sank the sphere from the middle of the floor, from the side near the center, from the foul line, from everywhere. And more than one of those shots was beautiful.

Tech's forwards, Wilder, Moreland, Player, and Morton alternately put up a much better fight than heretofore. And they played a much better brand of ball. Of George and Jamison, they played their usual game, which is brilliant. Hearn continued in the role of "he who gets fed" for Tiny usually ranged about under the backboard and took the high passes for point rides. Tiny also got in some pretty guarding work.

In Massey, Coach Robinson has a pretty forward. His dribbling was pretty and his all-around floor work will bear the mark good. Bell and Clements played their back position well breaking up attacks with nifty on several occasions.

The Line-up and summary:

TECH (34) Pos. OGLETHORPE (31)

Wilder (4) c. f. Sheridan (11)

Moreland (4) c. f. Massey (5)

Hearn (16) c. f. Bass (13)

George (9) c. f. Bell (2)

Jamison (1) c. f. Clements

Referee, Sullivan.

Substitutes—Tech: Player (4) for Wilder, Morton for Moreland, Wilder for Morton; Oglethorpe: none.

Crew Prospects Good.

New Haven, Conn., January 12—(AP)—Yale sees bright crew prospects for next spring, with six veterans of the Blue's champion 1926 victory ready to grab their sweeps again. Cannon, Quarrier, Bartholomew, Warren, Robinson and Laughlin have reported to Coach Leader.

Jones and Gunn To Open Course Named for Bobby

Sarasota, Fla., January 12—(AP)—Bobby Jones and Watts Gunn will play a match game of 36 holes here on February 13 to dedicate the new municipal golf course here, which has been given the official name "Bobby Jones Golf Course." According to word received tonight from the champion this will be his only appearance in Florida this season. A banquet is to be given for the two golfers at a local hotel the night preceding the match.

FORBES' GOAL GIVES GEORGIA FINE VICTORY

BY MARCUS BRYANT.

Athens, Ga., January 12—Captain Walter Forbes proved the hero of the Georgia Bulldogs here tonight, when, with 30 seconds to play, he tossed the leather through the hoops for a 29 to 28 victory over the Tennessee Volunteers. The game tonight takes rank among the best games ever offered local fandom.

The victory was all the more impressive for the Bulldogs in that the Red and Blackers were forced to fight an up-hill battle all the way. The visitors had the situation well in hand during the first half and a Tennessee triumph seemed inevitable.

Tennessee drew first blood and maintained a rapid pace throughout the opening stanza, and for the entire game in fact. Forbes, Keen and Turner, with two minutes to play in the first half, counted goals. With the Bulldogs on the short end of an 18 to 11 count as intermission was reached.

Just as the first half went in favor of the visitors, the second was Georgia's big inning. The Bulldogs gradually cut down the Vol lead and with three minutes to play Florence shot a goal, the score standing 26-24. Shultz followed quickly with a successful field tally and with the end of the game near, Florence bagged a beautiful attempt. George Keen scored a foul shot, wherein he had faltered all the evening, and Forbes added the necessary punch for a glorious victory.

Jimmie Harris proved a big factor in the Georgia win, and though scoring only four points, acquitted himself nobly. Keen captured scoring laurels with 10 points, while Florence, Turner and Forbes gathered six, five and four, in the order named.

Butcher showed there might be something in a name in scoring 11 points and evincing a "Butcher" role for the Bulldogs. McKeen scored four field baskets, and Rice and Shultz cared for the guards in pleasing style, with the latter scoring a trio of baskets.

The Bulldogs play Wofford tomorrow night and Tech Saturday night, both games scheduled here.

The Lineup and Summary.

GA. (29) Pos. TENN. (28)

Harris (4) c. f. McKeen (8)

Keen (10) c. f. Dean (1)

Florence (6) c. f. Butler (11)

Turner (6) c. f. Rice (2)

Forbes (4) c. f. Shultz (6)

Substitutes—Georgia: Morris for Harris, Harris for Morris; Tennessee: Moore for Dean, Barnhill for Rice, Dean for Moore, Rice for Barnhill.

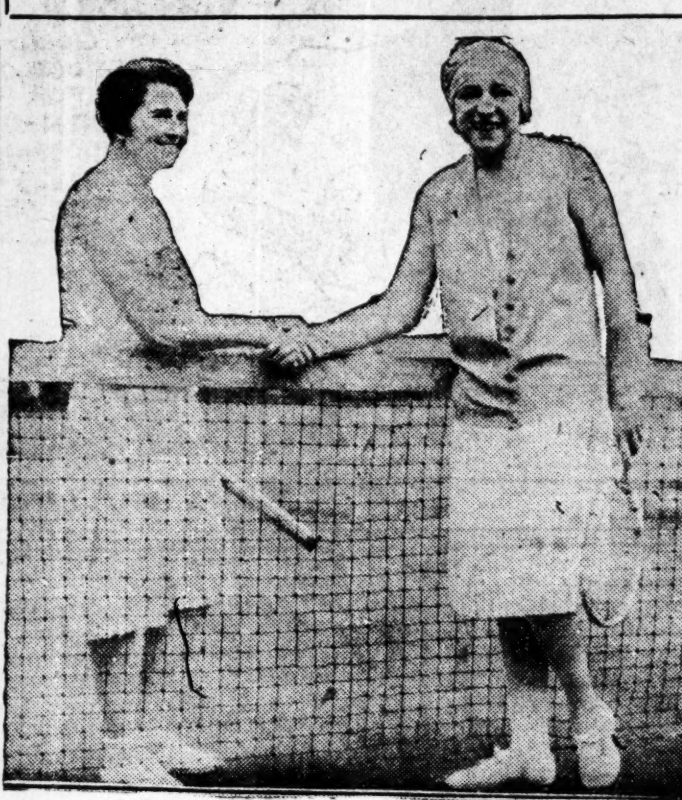

Referee, Westmorland (A. A. C.).

Rochelle Gets Sixth Win of the Season

Rochelle, Ga., January 12—(Special)—The Rochelle basketball team turned in its sixth win of the season when the boys' team won a hard fought game from Chauncey by a score of 28 to 26.

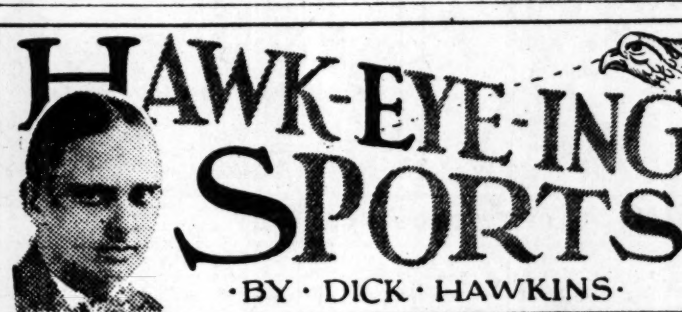

The game was hard fought from start to finish. The work of Mison and Chandler, forwards, was outstanding for Rochelle High. Godfrey, right forward, and Seigel, left forward, were high-point men with a total of 14 points to his credit. Chandler was second with 13 points.

QUEEN OF THE COURT

MARY K. BROWNE. SUZANNE LENGLEN.

The ranking Tennis queen of the world and her professional tour opponent arrived in Atlanta Wednesday. Suzanne Lenglen, Mary K. Browne, Vincent Richards, Paul Feret, Harvey Snodgrass and Howard Kinsey accompanied by the other members of the Pyle tour will arrive today and plans for the exhibition at the city auditorium next Saturday night will be completed shortly.

—BY DICK HAWKINS.

—And That's That.

The experts began the year in good form, coming through with flying colors on their first major prediction. Of course, there wasn't much room for them to be wrong in the Risberg-Gandil scandal, but the job of predicting the turns in the mind of Judge Landis is something calculated to make anybody think twice.

Now will come the exoneration, officially speaking, of Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker. After exonerating all of the accused by Gandil-Risberg, there isn't much else left for Landis to do. However, there can only be a statement from Landis to the effect that Cobb and Speaker were not guilty as intimidated, for no charges have ever formally been filed against them except in the letter produced and sold by Leonard.

Judge Landis in ending the latest recurrent post mortem, proposed a number of rules that are all good—to the last drop.

If the rules proposed by Landis are accepted at the big leagues' meeting January 17, then there will be no more betting on a ball game by a player of either team involved, there will be no more meddling with the medieval history of the game, there will be no more rewarding one team for defeating another, and there will be no more betting on ball games by any baseball players. It is a good set of rules and will do much to restore what confidence that has been lost through this recent series of fables in fantasy.

There remains, however, the utter indifference to the major league board of arbitration that has been professed by Judge Landis. In this last affair, in fact throughout the Cobb-Speaker affair and its aftermath, he has made no intimation that he knows such a body even exists. This will no doubt prove irksome to the vanity of Johnson and Heydler, who compose the board.

Just what effect this expose—expose being used advisedly—will have on Landis' standing among those who pay his salary in the future is also something to conjecture. He has already received a goodly measure of censure from the fans. The magnates have, thus far, publicly indorsed the movements of Landis. Your correspondent would give a couple of pretties to know what they think about him privately.

One more spasm of scandal. There is a pathetic little note in the statement of Risberg following his imprisonment of the action of Landis. "I told the truth about the crooks in baseball and that's all any other man could do. I have other information about crooked deals in baseball, but the dope will go with me to the grave. NO USE TELLING IT. Fans won't believe." This is the statement of Risberg.

It is pathetic, now isn't it? "Po' ole" Swede, stood up and let himself be called a liar, pig, and whatnot just to satisfy his vanity and allow the baseball fans to remember that he, Swede, once played baseball. The big trouble with the Swede is that if he hadn't already been branded a crook, then there might be a portion of baseballdom ready to rally to his banner of buncombe. This column herewith goes on record as favoring a revision of the old line to something like this—WHEN CROOKS GET TOGETHER, BASEBALL FANS GET THEIR SCANDAL.

Heisman Is Here.

Coach John W. Heisman, the former Tech football mentor, who is the father of the now famous jump shift, was in Atlanta Wednesday. Coach Heisman declared that he had recently voted for a two-second stop after the shift and declared at the same time that it would kill the shift.

Coach Heisman knows what he is about. And nobody knows better than he that if the national rules committee adopts that two-second stop clause there will be few college teams using the shift next year, for the shift with two full seconds halt will be as worthless as a coon-skin coat on the equator. But rather than see the play penalized consistently, he is willing to vote its extinction by the adoption of the pause.

Suzanne Arrives Here For Exhibition Match

Wrapped in a tan spring coat that must have been not over two weeks removed from Paris, Suzanne Lenglen, darling of the tennis courts, disembarked at the Brookwood station Wednesday evening into a decidedly chilly Atlanta.

Suzanne shivered while photographers fired their flashlights but withal she chattered laughingly over the cold weather. She was accompanied by her mother, Madame Charles Lenglen, her maid, and her playmates, Mary K. Browne, Paul Feret, Howard Kinsey and Harvey Snodgrass.

Vincent Richards, the American racket wizard, was left ill in New Orleans, and it was uncertain whether he would recover in time to play here. However, the French meteor and her associates will stage three exhibition matches at the city auditorium next Saturday night and Suzanne positively will play in two of the matches, it was announced.

Tickets were placed on sale late Wednesday at Spalding's store and at Chess' place and a brisk demand was manifest. This is the first indoor

Petrel Squad To Be Honored With Banquet Tonight

The 1926 Oglethorpe football team will be honored with a banquet tonight at the Atlanta Athletic club, to be given by the school. The captain for the 1927 team will be elected and letters will be awarded the players.

Because of the fact that the Petrels were forced to continue their playing season through December, the banquet was repeatedly postponed, the original plan being to hold it at the termination of the '26 season. It will be an informal affair, speeches short ones—will be made by Coaches Harry Robertson and Frank Anderson, and the retiring and the newly-elected captains.

MARIST GRID BANQUET SET FOR TONIGHT

Tribute to the Marist college football team, which went through the 1926 season undefeated, will be paid Thursday night at a banquet to be given at the Atlanta Athletic club. The banquet will be given by Robert H. Martin, prominent Atlanta sportsman and ardent supporter of the Marist team.

Election of a captain for the 1927 eleven will feature the banquet, while gold footballs will be awarded to all players who won the letters last season. The footballs will be given by Mr. Martin.

Coach Joe Bean, who has charge of all athletics at Marist has had a really remarkable record. His team has been defeated but once in the last three seasons. During that period it has scored a total of 441 points against the opposition's 58 points. That shows that Marist has had a remarkable offense, which has been rivaled closely by its defense.

Marist's last defeat was suffered in 1924, when it lost to Darlington School of Rome. Since that time Marist has won all of its games, with the exception of a 6-6 tie with Newman High here this year. Darlington's victory over Marist has been avenged as the Cadets have scored two victories over that school since 1924.

Bean really deserves a world of credit for his team going undefeated this last season as he had several stars to replace. How well he did the job of replacing his mainstays is reflected from the team's perfect record.

British Bantamweight Eager To Defend Title

London, January 12—(AP)—John Brown, British bantamweight champion, who recently returned from the United States, is eager to defend his title but will have to wait two or three months before a fight can be arranged.

During that time he is visiting South Africa, where he will fight Willie Smith, the Olympic champion, at Johannesburg, in a 20-round bout.

Petrel Nine Faces Tough Season; Eight Home Games Booked

Long Road Trip Included in Games Listed For Birds Next Season—Tech Tossers Have Two Dates With Petrels—Georgia, Auburn Dates Pending.

BY ALTON REDFERN.

The Stormy Petrel baseball schedule, containing games with the representative teams of the S. I. A. A. and the southern conference, was made public early Wednesday by Coach Frank Anderson, director of athletics at the Peachtree road institution.

The season for the Petrel clan—for the past three years champions of the S. I. A. A. in baseball—will get under way March 21 in Gainesville, Fla., the Florida Alligators being the piece de resistance. Four games will be played with the Gators, two in Gainesville and two on Hermance field. These games will bring the Petrels and Gators together for the first time since 1922.

The Oglethorpe clan will take a one-week road trip—it may be lengthened to 10 days—beginning April 28. The University of Chattanooga team will be played on that date. From the Tennessee city the Birds will go to Cincinnati, Ohio, where they will play the University of Cincinnati and St. Xavier college on April 30 and May 2-3, respectively. The final game of the trip will be played against Georgetown college in Georgetown, Ky., on May 4.

It was also announced Wednesday that, although the schedule was practically complete, games with Georgia and Auburn were pending, and that it is almost certain that the dates would be arranged. Both teams have appeared regularly on the Oglethorpe baseball schedule for a number of years.

In view of the fact that the Birds will undertake such a hard schedule, practice will begin at an early date, or, according to the baseball coaches, Frank Anderson and Harry Robertson, as soon as the weather permits. However, the weather is expected to be favorable to begin practice by the middle of February.

Orange Disc Five Meets K-C Tonight

Gulf Refining's Orange Disc quintet and the strong five of the Knights of Columbus, the two only undefeated teams of the City league, meet Thursday on the Atlanta Athletic club court in the feature game of the City league. Both teams have a fast and strong aggregation and play a high-class brand of ball. One of the largest crowds of the season is expected to turn out. Georgia Railway and Power Company will meet Atlantic Steel in the opening number and this game will be followed by the Southern Bell melee with Terra Cotta. Atlanta and Lowry will be idle.

The schedule for Thursday will be played as follows, starting at 7 o'clock:

Georgia Railway and Power Company vs. Atlantic Steel.

Southern Bell vs. Terra Cotta.

Gulf Refining Company vs. Knights of Columbus.

Sell Out Looms.

New York, January 12—(AP)—An advance sale in excess of $50,000, one of the largest in the history of Madison Square garden, indicates a capacity turnout for Friday night's return welterweight rumble between Eddie Roberts, of Tacoma, Wash., and Joe Dundee, of Baltimore. Although Roberts won their first fight with a quick knockout, betting odds have switched to Dundee as favorite.

Two Giants Sign.

New York, January 12—(AP)—Two members of the New York Giants, Eddie Farrell, infielder, and Hugh Miquillan, pitcher, signed contracts for the 1927 football season.

BREAKING THE RECORD

Walking against time is a popular competitive sport in Atlanta. The best record to date is a mile in 6 minutes 22 4/5 seconds.

—and here's a record, too!

When it comes to distance records, there's one cigarette that wins in a walk. Piedmont—sure! Made solely of golden, or "bright," Virginia tobacco—the only "big" brand of its type. And it has been steadily a "best seller" over a period longer than the whole life of any other large-selling brand.

Note. With the sole exception of our celebrated Richmond Straight Cut, Piedmont is the only "Virginia tobacco" cigarette enjoying a national sale.

Also in vacuum tins of 50

LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

MUSE'S
presents
THE BENZTOWN BARD
the first chirp of Spring..

$6

Six points to the $6 Benztown Bard

Look at its lines. . . .
short, stocky, snug!
Set on a swanky double sole with a wide flange! Grained campus calf in bright blitzen tan with silvery eyelets shining out. And the Benztown Bard is only $6.

1—Short Vamp
2—Square Toe
3—Campus Calf
4—Double Soles and Leather Heels—
5—Saddle Stitching—
6—Round Nickel Eyelets

Come by and try it on this cheery morning!

MUSE'S
"The Style Center of the South"
PEACHTREE - WALTON - BROAD

"Get into the things that are new—"

The Ragged Edge

By HENRY C. ROWLAND.

INSTALLMENT XXXIV. CARILLON PLEADS.

Carillon told Bengal she saw their enemies' boat sink while he was lying there unconscious.

"Then why were you all set to shoot there behind the rock when I came to?"

"I thought I heard a noise. But it was only the splash of a fish leaping, I think."

Bengal checked his questionnaire. The answers all tallied, made sense. He did not need to ask why she had not told him sooner that the pirates had gone. India perhaps had endowed him with this faculty of sensing motives, or it may have been merely an inheritance from ancestors who had been thinkers, professional men who had pursued with distinction the practice of law, medicine, theology and science. At any rate, he did not need to be told that Carillon had first kept him in ignorance of the danger being removed because she desired to keep him close to her, and as still as might be. Her loving solicitude demanded that he rest absolutely on recovering from a concussion violent enough to stun him, with the considerable loss of blood.

"Give me your hand, little girl."

But all of this fostering care was forgotten, thrown aside, the instant that she had learned of his having got possession of the jewels and hidden them away. She could not wait to see and handle those glorious gems, even in the dark. Disregarded were his hurts and weakness and the danger lest he become faint or exhausted. Less importantly, her desire to keep him close to her, tend his hurt, rinse out his blood-soaked hair and bandage the wound were overborne in her impatience to gratify her ruling passion, the mania for wonderful and precious gems. She had seemed even to chafe when he lingered a few moments to hold the drinking cup against the face of the rock where the sweet water welled out and trickled slowly down. It had needed several fillings to assuage the burning thirst that follows a traumatic anemia, and Carillon's restiveness while he had done so was painfully apparent.

Yes, her brother had been right, Bengal somberly reflected, in stating that Carillon's grande passion was and always would be for Nature's most sinister temptation, elaborated by the cunning handiwork of men, that concentrated intensity of beauty that can stab like the poignant pain, the anguish that lurks for some in perfect gems, cut and skinned and polished by the master craftsman. Nothing could ever rival this girl's craving for such. It possessed her wholly, Bengal now perceived, as was she had said shuttled into the warp and woof of her. In the close presence of such a bit of pure carbon as might require a molten mountain in the throes of its creation to produce, or a lustrous morsel of calcium carbonate built up into a globular concretion by a distressed bivalve to a thing of peerless beauty, Carillon became obsessed. She forgot pride, decency, caste obligations, and now even a love that only a few minutes previously had seemed to sweep her like a flame.

Yet Bengal for all his dull hopeless pain was fair enough to admit that here was merely a normal human impulse gone wild, just as many other such may do; the cravings for drink or drugs or beauty in some other form, animate or inanimate; the ardor for some indulgence of a special sense whether that of sight, smell, hearing, taste or touch. It must be the result of an abnormal hypertrophy of some tropic center, or combination of such, sans the corrective, the mental or spiritual governor.

Then, as they stumbled along over the fantastically twisted rocks, Bengal's first bitter condemnation of a woman whose trend of emotions could shift like a meeting of the winds melted first into pity, then profound compassion. Poor Carillon, what would her future be? What could one hope for a girl who at the climax of hot hearted demonstrations of her love for the man of her choice veered like the needle of a compass when it comes in the close propinquity of some trifling iron object? Bengal remembered how when coming onto the coast one thick tempestuous night in another vessel than Gunga, he had narrowly escaped destruction because while at the wheel he had overlooked a big sheath knife hanging from the front of his belt. A point and a half off his course had nearly put him in the breakers, over the Reef of Norman's Woe at the entrance to Gloucester harbor. And here was now Carillon swung not only off her course to salvation, but heading directly away from it. Resentment in Bengal was drowned out in another great brimming wave of love.

"Give me your hand, little girl," he said gently. "It's rough sledding for thinly handgouged still love me?"

"Now, henceforth and forever!" No matter what may try to wedge between."

"Even when I've dragged you off faint and sick to get those glorious horrid jewels?"

"More, if possible, because you need me more. But you will have to wait for me on the edge of the bush. You would be torn to pieces from head to foot in the dark."

"Then let's sit here and wait for the moon. There's its glow, over in the east."

"Even then you can't get through with what whole skin is left on you. Your arms and legs and body are like a chart of the Bahamas. And the thorns and spikes and the ground would pierce those thin rags on your tender little feet. You wait here. I'll go get them for you."

Carillon had taken his hand, and at this suggestion he felt a detaining tug.

"O, my dear, can't you trust me as far as that?" Bengal cried, with a note of pain.

"Well—but you see, Bungle darling, I know how you must feel about this—and my dragging you away when you're so weak and faint. Something is driving me along. O, I don't know. I don't care what it's stronger than I am—"

"Stronger than the love you say you feel for me?"

"You can't compare them, Bungle. I'll love you more than ever when I get them."

"But they are not yours, Carillon."

"Some of them may be. They took my favorite beauties I had on that night."

"Those you can keep, of course. But why are you afraid to trust me, sweet?"

"I don't know. Something might happen—"

"What?"

"Well, you know, Bungle, even the people who love me—the ones who've always loved me best have tried to part me from them—"

"Your own?"

"Yes, sometimes. Just as they might take a favorite toy they thought dangerous from a child. It's got so that I can't trust anybody, Bungle. Not even—"

"Nor yourself. I understand. Will you take my promise that I'll bring them all to you?"

"Yes—of course—but please let me go with you. I'll be careful how I move and step. Couldn't you carry me, dear? You're so big and strong—"

"It's all bigness just now. I can scarcely carry myself—"

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

(Continued tomorrow.)

Aunt Het

"There ain't never been a bad storm here. The worst thing that ever happened was a epidemic of twins."

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

Just Nuts

"DO YOU WANT ME TO READ THE LETTER TO YOU THAT YOU GOT FROM YOUR GIRL?"

"YES, BUT I'M GONNA STOP UP YOUR EARS. I DON'T WANT YOU TO HEAR WHAT SHE HAS WRITTEN."

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

Winnie Winkle, The Breadwinner.

Past Performances.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE—

Schoolmates.

THE GUMPS—WHEN THE LITTLE BIRDS BEGIN TO SING

MOON MULLINS—AGED IN WOOD

SOMEBODY'S STENOG—Across the Area Way

By Hayward

GASOLINE ALLEY—NO HELP WANTED

Winnie Winkle, The Breadwinner.

Past Performances.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE—

Schoolmates.

Miss Hall Weds Norris Broyles At Church Ceremony in Macon

Macon, Ga., January 12.—Historic old Christ Episcopal church was the scene last evening of a beautiful and brilliant wedding of social importance throughout the south, that of Miss Eva Hall, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield Pliny Hall, to Norris Broyles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Broyles, of Atlanta.

The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock before an audience that included representatives of many of the most prominent families in the south. The impressive ceremony was performed by Bishop Frederick Reese, of Savannah, assisted by Rev. Cyril Bentley, rector of Christ church. The interior of the imposing church was elaborately decorated for the occasion with myriads of Easter lilies and palms interspersed with burning white tapers, held aloft in cathedral candelabra. In the choir loft and in front of communion rails the stately green palms formed a lovely background for the glorious clusters of Easter lilies. On the altar were two large bronze vases in which Easter lilies were placed and on each pew of the center aisle Easter lilies tied with white ribbons were placed.

For 30 minutes preceding the ceremony, while the guests were seated, Professor William Bailey, organist for Christ church, gave a musical program.

As the opening strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march rang out the bridal party entered.

Wedding Attendants.

The groomsmen included Lawson Kiser, Marion Kiser, Baxter Maddox, Hugh Inman Richardson, James Dunlap, John Grant, Jr., Murry Shoun, Eversett Richardson, Jr., Clement Evans, George Weyman, and Dr. Champneys Holmes, all of Atlanta, and Arthur Hurd, of New York city.

The bridesmaids were gowned alike in creations of pink chiffon in the most delicate shade. The frocks were sleeveless and in front had round yokes that were cut in a deep V in the back, allowing the underlay of cream lace embroidered in silver to show through. They sponsored the long waist lines and were untripped except for wide swathes of coral grain ribbon which were tied in large graceful bows in the center front. The skirts were full and as they walked the silver threads of the underlay shone through at the sides. Their slippers were of flesh colored satin and they carried arm bouquets of pink roses and pink snapdragons.

The bridesmaids included Miss Elizabeth Hall, Miss Elizabeth McCaw, and Mrs. John Baxter, of Macon; Miss Ione McKenzie, of Montezuma; Miss Susan Broyles, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Douglas Paine, of Atlanta.

Mrs. Edward Carrington Marshall, of Charlotte, N. C., aunt of the bride, was matron of honor, and Miss Mary Hall, the bride's only sister, was maid of honor.

Mrs. Marshall's gown was a Tape model of flesh colored crepe. Fashioned on straight lines with the skirt in two tiers it was most becoming to her. The sleeveless blouse had an exquisite design of rhinestones which formed a ring in the center and this same design was used at the hem of the two tiers which formed the skirt. Her slippers were of flesh satin with hose to match and she carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and snapdragons.

The maid of honor's gown was similar to the gowns of the bridesmaids. It was of flesh colored chiffon, rather long-waisted and sponsored the smart bloused effect. In the center front of the V neck was a small cluster of French ribbon flowers and the two rosebuds with green foliage were finished with a bow of deep blue. This design which was flatly applied to the chiffon was again seen on the left side of the skirt where they were applied, one at the waist line, and other in the center of the side and another near the hem. Finishing the frock was a bow of pale pink ribbon placed at the left of the waist.

She wore slippers of flesh satin with hose to match and carried a bouquet of pink roses and snapdragons.

Immediately preceding the bride, who entered with her father, Pliny Hall, by whom she was given in marriage, was the little flower girl, Mary Lamar McKenzie, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett McKenzie. Her dress was a fairy-like creation of pink tulle over satin. The tulle was pleated in pin pleats and worn over a slip of heavy satin. Following the Parisian model in costumes for little children, it was exceptionally short. Over the upper arm and shoulder were straps of pink studded with rhinestones, like slippers were of pink satin and across the front they were studded in rhinestones and she carried a bouquet, smaller in size but otherwise like those of the maids.

The two pages, Masters Campbell Hall, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Hall, and Augustus Sparks, Jr., the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Sparks, wore English regulation Eton suits of broadcloth.

The bride and her father were met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Dr. Edwin Broyles, of Baltimore, Md.

There was something more than beauty about the appearance of Miss Hall in her bridal robes of white satin. There was a radiance, indescribable in her exquisite face with its finely chiseled features so thoroughly patrician. The very simplicity of her wedding gown was in itself real beauty. The sheen of the heavy white satin and the delicate cream of real lace were combined in the Corbeau model in a manner worthy of the designer's great name.

The gown was fashioned on straight lines with a slightly flaring skirt. The neck was bateau shape and untripped except for an exquisitely small double row of the satin. Extending from each of the two shoulders in the front were bands of sheer real lace that reached the entire length of the gown and met, forming a V at the center hem of the skirt. Let in the waistline was a wide insert of real lace perhaps more than a foot wide and which matched the lace on her wedding gown and train. She carried a large graceful bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The bride's gifts to her attendants were cloth of gold evening bags and outlining the metal frame were rows of pearls. The little flower girl received a bag of palely metal cloth and the pages silver knives.

Mrs. Arnold Broyles, mother of the bridegroom, wore a handsome gown of lavender chiffon velvet, richly embroidered in crystal bead design, and a shoulder bouquet of orchids completed her costume.

Following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Hall, parents of the bride, entertained with a large reception at their residence on Georgia avenue, to which several hundred guests were invited.

The interior of the house, which is considered one of the most beautiful in the city, was exceptionally beautiful for this occasion.

Receiving the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hall, the bride and bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Broyles, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carrington Marshall, of Charlotte, N. C., Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Richardson, of Atlanta, and the entire wedding party.

During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Broyles left the city for a wedding trip, and later they will be in Atlanta, where they take their places as the young couple's most exclusive younger social contingent.

Mrs. Broyles' traveling costume was an imported three-piece model of beige and the coat had a wide collar of mink that ran the length of the entire coat like wide lapels. Her small hat was of brown and her shoes and gloves to match.

The bride since childhood has held an enviable position in Macon society as one of the most beautiful and beloved of the younger set. On both the paternal and maternal sides of her family she is descended from families whose importance in the financial and social world has been unquestioned. Her mother, Miss Mamie Leonard, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Leonard, of Vienna, and it is from her exquisite mother, the bride has inherited her great personal beauty and unusual charm of manner.

She studied at Lucy Cobb in Athens and later at Gunston Hall, Washington, and the Comstock school in New York and spent the following summer touring Europe.

It is with sincere regret that Macon society will lose this acknowledged belle who as Mrs. Broyles will be so cordially received by Atlanta society.

Miss Goldsmith Weds James Gould In New York City

Mrs. Jere W. Goldsmith, Sr., announces the marriage of her daughter, Marion, to James Gould, of New York, the ceremony having been performed Wednesday, January 12, by Rev. George Stewart, of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church at high noon, shortly after the arrival of the bride from Europe, where she spent the past six weeks.

Mrs. Gould is a very beautiful young woman of the blonde type, possessing charm and a pleasing personality. She is a representative of influential and aristocratic Atlanta families, and is a sister of Wickliffe Goldsmith, Dr. Lauren H. Goldsmith, Mrs. Thomas Cuthbert and Mrs. Oscar Davis. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Jere W. Goldsmith, Sr., and the late Mr. Goldsmith, who was a leading pioneer citizen and identified with the early history of the city. She was one of the first socially prominent Atlantans to take up interior decorating as a profession, and before going to New York to be associated with the Elsie Cobb Wilson company, she was head of the department of interior decoration for M. Rich and Brothers company. Mrs. Gould has traveled extensively, having spent several years in Europe, where she completed her education.

Mr. Gould, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sherman Gould, of Philadelphia, Pa., is in the banking business in New York, where he is among the well-known financiers. He is a member of several important social clubs in the metropolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Gould left for a wedding journey in the south and will visit their mother, Mrs. Goldsmith, at her home on Peachtree street. On their return to New York, they will make their home at 222 East Seventy-first street.

hose to match and carried a bouquet of pink roses and snapdragons.

Immediately preceding the bride, who entered with her father, Pliny Hall, by whom she was given in marriage, was the little flower girl, Mary Lamar McKenzie, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett McKenzie. Her dress was a fairy-like creation of pink tulle over satin. The tulle was pleated in pin pleats and worn over a slip of heavy satin. Following the Parisian model in costumes for little children, it was exceptionally short. Over the upper arm and shoulder were straps of pink studded with rhinestones, like slippers were of pink satin and across the front they were studded in rhinestones and she carried a bouquet, smaller in size but otherwise like those of the maids.

The two pages, Masters Campbell Hall, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Hall, and Augustus Sparks, Jr., the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Sparks, wore English regulation Eton suits of broadcloth.

The bride and her father were met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Dr. Edwin Broyles, of Baltimore, Md.

There was something more than beauty about the appearance of Miss Hall in her bridal robes of white satin. There was a radiance, indescribable in her exquisite face with its finely chiseled features so thoroughly patrician. The very simplicity of her wedding gown was in itself real beauty. The sheen of the heavy white satin and the delicate cream of real lace were combined in the Corbeau model in a manner worthy of the designer's great name.

The gown was fashioned on straight lines with a slightly flaring skirt. The neck was bateau shape and untripped except for an exquisitely small double row of the satin. Extending from each of the two shoulders in the front were bands of sheer real lace that reached the entire length of the gown and met, forming a V at the center hem of the skirt. Let in the waistline was a wide insert of real lace perhaps more than a foot wide and which matched the lace on her wedding gown and train. She carried a large graceful bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The bride's gifts to her attendants were cloth of gold evening bags and outlining the metal frame were rows of pearls. The little flower girl received a bag of palely metal cloth and the pages silver knives.

Mrs. Arnold Broyles, mother of the bridegroom, wore a handsome gown of lavender chiffon velvet, richly embroidered in crystal bead design, and a shoulder bouquet of orchids completed her costume.

Following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Hall, parents of the bride, entertained with a large reception at their residence on Georgia avenue, to which several hundred guests were invited.

The interior of the house, which is considered one of the most beautiful in the city, was exceptionally beautiful for this occasion.

Receiving the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hall, the bride and bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Broyles, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carrington Marshall, of Charlotte, N. C., Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Richardson, of Atlanta, and the entire wedding party.

During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Broyles left the city for a wedding trip, and later they will be in Atlanta, where they take their places as the young couple's most exclusive younger social contingent.

Mrs. Broyles' traveling costume was an imported three-piece model of beige and the coat had a wide collar of mink that ran the length of the entire coat like wide lapels. Her small hat was of brown and her shoes and gloves to match.

The bride since childhood has held an enviable position in Macon society as one of the most beautiful and beloved of the younger set. On both the paternal and maternal sides of her family she is descended from families whose importance in the financial and social world has been unquestioned. Her mother, Miss Mamie Leonard, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Leonard, of Vienna, and it is from her exquisite mother, the bride has inherited her great personal beauty and unusual charm of manner.

She studied at Lucy Cobb in Athens and later at Gunston Hall, Washington, and the Comstock school in New York and spent the following summer touring Europe.

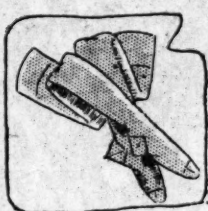

It is with sincere regret that Macon society will lose this acknowledged belle who as Mrs. Broyles will be so cordially received by Atlanta society.

hose to match and carried a bouquet of pink roses and snapdragons.

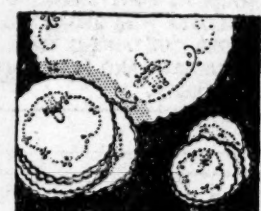

Immediately preceding the bride, who entered with her father, Pliny Hall, by whom she was given in marriage, was the little flower girl, Mary Lamar McKenzie, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett McKenzie. Her dress was a fairy-like creation of pink tulle over satin. The tulle was pleated in pin pleats and worn over a slip of heavy satin. Following the Parisian model in costumes for little children, it was exceptionally short. Over the upper arm and shoulder were straps of pink studded with rhinestones, like slippers were of pink satin and across the front they were studded in rhinestones and she carried a bouquet, smaller in size but otherwise like those of the maids.

The two pages, Masters Campbell Hall, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Hall, and Augustus Sparks, Jr., the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Sparks, wore English regulation Eton suits of broadcloth.

Savings for a Rainy Day!

Women's Hose, $1.29
—Usually $1.85. Women's gray silk hose, in service weight. Full fashioned—like garter top. Size 8 1/2 to 10.
—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

Madeira Sets $3.98
—Usually $4.95. 13-pc. sets—24-in. centers, six 10-in. doilies, six 6-in. doilies. Attractively scalloped and embroidered in sprays and eyelets!
—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Ribbon Garters, 65c Pr.
—Usually $1. Ribbon garters of all silk ribbon. Flowery and bows make them dainty. Of heavy elastic.
—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

Sewing Machines, $10 Up
—All sewing machines in perfect condition. Specially priced for Thrift Thursday! Excellent values in best makes.
—RICH'S, FOURTH FLOOR

Gilbert Clocks, $2.59
—Usually $2.95. A beautiful clock for the mantel of your living room or dining room. Gilbert clock with mahogany veneer frame.
—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Ice Wool Scarfs, $2.98
—Usually $3.95 and $4.95. Austrian hand-made ice wool scarfs. Lovely color combinations.
—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

Children's Dresses, 39c
—Usually 49c. Children's voile dresses. STAMPED on novelty voile in white, blue and pink. Sizes 1 and 2 years.
—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Powder-Puff Rayon, 48c Yd.
—Usually 59c. New rayon fabric for lingerie in the very loveliest of pastel tints. 36-in. wide. Reduced!
—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Rich's Longcloth, $1.15
—Usually $1.69. Soft finish, good quality of longcloth in 10-yd. lengths. There are only 100 bolts—limit 2 to customer—no phone, mail or C. O. D.
—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Printed Silks, $1.19
—Usually $1.95. Printed georgette, printed chiffon and printed crepe de chine in bright colors and attractive patterns for spring!
—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Hat Boxes, $1.89
—Usually $3.50. Excellent quality of black enamel hat boxes. Well built for long service. Bound edges. Attractive lining.
—RICH'S, FOURTH FLOOR

NuSilk Slips, $1.39
—Usually $1.95. Slips of lustrous material—like satin—fine wearing quality. Deep hems. Inverted pleats at side. Light and dark colors. 36 to 44.
—RICH'S, THIRD FLOOR

Axminster Rugs, $3.95
—Usually $4.50 to $6. Good quality of Axminster rugs, 27x54. Only a limited number priced specially for Thrift Thursday at savings!
—RICH'S, FOURTH FLOOR

Gossard Combinations, $1.25
—Usually $2. Gossard combinations of fancy batiste. Elastic at sides. Four hose supporters. Slightly boned in back. Sizes 36 to 44.
—RICH'S, THIRD FLOOR

5,000 Yds. Silks, $1.84
—Usually $2.50 to $2.95. 40-in. Heavy flat crepe. 54-in. Printed crepes. 36-in. Plaid and checked Taffeta. 36-in. Check surahs. 40-in. Crepe romans.
—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Linen Hdkfs., 6 for 59c
—Usually 6 for 75c. Handkerchiefs of pure linen. 1-16 in. hemstitched hems. 6 to package.
—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

Comforts, $2.95
—Usually $3.95. Warm comforts filled with good quality cotton—covered with figured silkline. Size 72x84 in. Only 50 to go!
—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Dress Woolens, $1.49
—Usually $1.95 to $2.95. 42-in. Wool crepe, in colors. 54-in. Wool jerseys in light shades. 54-in. Wool flannels. 54-in. Wool coatings.
—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

54-in. Woolens, $1.95
—Usually $2.95 to $3.95. 54-in. Diamond weave tweeds. 54-in. Twill-sheens. 54-in. Covert cloths. 50-in. Wool flannels.
—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Unbleached Sheeting, 39c
—Usually 59c. Heavy quality of unbleached sheeting, 81 in. wide. Similar shipment went out in last Thrift Thursday! No phone, mail or C. O. D. Limit 12 yards to customer.
—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Satin Charmeuse, $1
—Usually $1.59. Good quality of satin charmeuse for frocks. In black and popular colors. At savings of 59c on each yard.
—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Dresden Ribbon, 17c
—Usually 35c. Lovely Dresden for underwear or fancy work. 1 1/4 in. wide. Pastel shades. 3 yards for 50c.
—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

Muslin Gowns, $1.19
—Usually $1.50. Women's gowns of fine muslin. V-necklines. Long sleeves. Double yoke in back. Embroidered. 36 to 44—and extra sizes.
—RICH'S, THIRD FLOOR

Imported Pins, 39c
—Usually 59c. Imported brooch pins or hat ornaments. Gold plated mountings with brilliant stones.
—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

Outing Pajamas, 89c
—Usually $1.50. Children's outing pajamas. Of heavy outing flannel. Broken sizes, 8 to 14.
—RICH'S, THIRD FLOOR

Boys' Suits, $3.49
—Usually $8.95 values. Children's Oliver Twist and Midway style suits. In tweeds, Jersey—some with linen waists. Size 2 to 7.
—THE BOYS' SHOP
—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Boys' Jockey Caps, 1/2 Price
—Usually $2.29 to $3.50. Children's jockey caps in leather and velvet. Size 6 1/2 to 7.
—THE BOYS' SHOP
—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Boys' Sweaters, $3.95
—Usually $5.95. Boys' Shaker knit pull-over sweaters. All-wool. Roll collars—reinforced neck. Size 30 to 36.
—THE BOYS' SHOP
—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Children's Robes, $1.79
—Usually $3.95. Children's blanket bath robes. Good quality—beautifully colored. Size 2 to 4.
—THE BOYS' SHOP
—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Fine Sheets, $1.15
—Usually $1.55. Double-bed size—81x90. Of fine sheeting free from all starch or filling. Only 480. Specially reduced for Thrift Thursday!
—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Pillow Cases, 27c
—Usually 35c. Pillow cases—42x36-in. Of fine quality of sheeting, free from any starch and filling. Specially priced!
—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Children's Wool Hose, 49c
—Usually $1. Children's wool hose, ribbed style. Wide range of colors. All sizes.
—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

Union Suits, $1
—Men's $1.79. Tremendous reduction at the height of winter! Men's knit union suits—medium weight—long sleeves—ankle length, white or ecru. Sizes 36 to 46.
—MEN'S FURNISHINGS DEPT.
—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

Men's Sweaters, $2.95
—Usually $5. Men's all-wool sweaters in pull-over or coat styles. In gray or brown. Size 36 to 42.
—MEN'S FURNISHINGS DEPT.
—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

Men's Summer Unions, 59c
—Usually 89c. Men's summer union suits, elastic waist band. Sizes 36 to 42. Priced for Thrift Thursday only.
—MEN'S FURNISHINGS DEPT.
—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

Men's Sox, 69c
—Usually $1. Men's imported hile sox. Full fashioned. Variety of colors. Size 10 to 11 1/2.
—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

Pipe Sets, $1.95
—Usually $3.50. Men's Pipe Sets—two French Briar pipes, in velvet lined case.
—MEN'S FURNISHINGS DEPT.
—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

Girls' Dresses, $2.95
—Usually $5.95 to $8.95. Only 40 of these. Of English print, Devonshire, or Rayon. Several attractive styles. Size 6 to 10.
—RICH'S, THIRD FLOOR

Costume Velvets, $1.98
—Usually $2.95. Fine twill-back costume velvet in black and colors. 36-in. wide. Specially priced for Thrift Thursday!
—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Velours Pillows, $1.39
—Usually $1.59. Beautiful velours pillows for the living room, in soft shades of blue, tan, mulberry and red. Sateen backs and velours tops.
—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Lace Edgings, 39c Yd.
—Usually 85c to $2 yard. 2,000 yards Venice, Chantilly and Blnche laces. In white, cream or ecru. 2 to 6 in. wide.
—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

M. RICH & BROS. CO.
BROAD-ALABAMA & FORSYTH STS. PHONE WALNUT 4636

The CORRECT COIFFEUR for this social season

is easily fashioned with one of Muse's distinctive Hair Pieces. The smart styles in attractive transformations are here for your selection—at moderate prices. Experts to assist you in proper fitting and matching.

MUSE'S BEAUTY SHOP
Sixth Floor—Muse's

THE SOUTHERN ROUTE TO PARIS—THE MUSE FIFTH FLOOR

End-of-Winter Clearance

of MUSE'S READY-TO-WEAR for WOMEN

Dresses

$39.50-$49.50 DRESSES
$24

$49.50---$59.50 Dresses : $33
$59.50---$69.50 Dresses : $34
$69.50 Dresses : $42

Coats

$79.50---$99.50 Coats : $49
$119.50 Coats : $79
$139.50---$149.50 Coats : $99
$169.50 Coats : $109
$199.50 Coats : $119.50

MUSE'S

—the fifth floor
"The Style Center of the South"
Peachtree :: Walton :: Broad

Miss Gaines Weds Mr. Brown At Ceremony in Druid Hills

The marriage of Miss Marion Gaines and William Persons Brown, Jr. of Memphis, Tenn., was an interesting social event of Wednesday afternoon, assembling several hundred friends and relatives to witness the ceremony, which took place at 4 o'clock in Druid Hills Methodist church.

Altar Decorations.
Rev. Henry R. Mays performed the ceremony and the church was artistically decorated with stately palms, ferns and smilax. Pedestal baskets holding calla lilies were placed amid the greenery and these flowers were used on the altar. Seven-branched candelabra holding white tapers flanked either side of the altar. An exquisite program of music was rendered before the ceremony and the bridal party entered to the strains of wedding march from "Lohengrin."

Mrs. John Fred Clegg, the matron of honor, was becomingly gowned in a blue tulle gown with elaborate brocade in gold and silver. Her hat was a close-fitting model of velvet with trimmings of rose and gold, and her flowers were a bouquet of Ophelia roses and sweet peas.

Roy M. Hancock, of Memphis, Tenn., was the groom's best man.

Beautiful Bride.
The beautiful bride entered the church with her father, William Marion Gaines, by whom she was given in marriage, and wore a handsome gown of French blue satin-back crepe trimmed with cloth of silver. Her coat was of blue chiffon velvet, ornamented with silver buttons, and her hat was a becoming imported close-fitting model of blue felt trimmed with a rhinestone buckle. She carried a bouquet of orchids and valley lilies.

Mrs. Gaines, mother of the bride, was gowned in a lovely model of wisteria crepe trimmed with gold and lace and her corsage was of Ophelia roses and valley lilies.

Mrs. W. P. Brown, of Memphis, mother of the groom, was gowned in pink faille and her corsage was of Parma violets.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown left for New Orleans on a wedding journey and upon their return they will make their home in Memphis.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

Registered U. S. Patent Office. HISTORY

IN 1858, MINNESOTA WAS ADMITTED TO THE UNION AS A STATE. PART OF MINNESOTA HAD BEEN ACQUIRED BY THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR. THE REMAINDER WAS INCLUDED IN THE LOUISIANA PURCHASE (1803).

The Admission of Minnesota—1858.

FOR A LONG TIME MINNESOTA WAS CALLED UPPER LOUISIANA. THE FIRST SETTLEMENT IN THE REGION WAS MADE AT FORT SNELLING IN 1819. IN 1849, MINNESOTA WAS ORGANIZED AS A TERRITORY. ITS AREA CONTAINING THE PRESENT STATE OF MINNESOTA AND PARTS OF NORTH AND SOUTH DAKOTA.

SLAVERY WAS BARRED FROM MINNESOTA BY THE NORTHWEST ORDINANCE (1787) AND THE MISSOURI COMPROMISE (1820). AFTER 1844 MANY HARDY IMMIGRANTS FROM THE NORTHERN LANDS OF EUROPE CAME TO SETTLE IN MINNESOTA, ATTRACTED BY ITS VALUABLE TIMBERLANDS AND FERTILE SOIL.

MINNESOTA EARLY BECAME NOTED FOR ITS PRODUCTION OF WHEAT. THE FALLS AND RAPIDS OF ITS RIVERS OFFERED UNLIMITED WATER POWER FOR FLOUR MILLS AND TODAY MINNEAPOLIS (WITH ITS TWIN CITY ST. PAUL) IS THE GREATEST FLOUR MANUFACTURING CENTER IN THE WORLD.

TOMORROW—LINCOLN AND DOUGLAS.

Norman Hackett To Address Student Body of Agnes Scott

Norman Hackett, leading man of "The Green Hat," Michael Arlen's play, being presented at Erlanger theater this week, will address the student body of Agnes Scott college Thursday morning, his subject being "The Drama." Mr. Hackett is the only actor to whom the invitation has been extended to address the student body of the University of California. Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Hopkins will entertain at dinner Friday evening at their home on Peachtree road, the occasion honoring Miss Charlotte Walker, who takes the part of Iris Fenwick, leading character of "The Green Hat," Norman Hackett, and Miss Adrienne Batten, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Batten, at their home on West Fourteenth street.

Miss Sharpe Hostess To O. B. X. Sorority.

Miss Sarah Sharpe was hostess to the members of the O. B. X. sorority of Washington seminary Wednesday afternoon at her home on Fifteenth street. Plans were discussed for a script dance which the sorority will sponsor, the date to be announced later. Tea was served following the business meeting.

The O. B. X. officers include: Miss Katherine Howell, president; Miss Geraldine White, vice president; Miss Hannah Sterne, secretary; Miss Sarah Adair, treasurer.

E. A. Morgan's

SEAMLESS WEDDING RINGS ARE BEST
E. A. MORGAN
10-12 East Hunter St.
"There's Economy in a Few Steps Around the Corner"

:- DISTINCTIVE ODD PIECES :-

The Stately Chime Clock

Exactly as pictured. Massive Colonial design, Cathedral style. Made of solid mahogany, beautifully carved. Imported movement with Westminster tubular chimes. Sounds chimes on the quarter.

This is one of the most beautiful clocks ever shown in the South and would grace any mansion.

Stephen Philibosian, Inc.

FURNITURE RUGS DRAPERIES

Miss Stocker and Francis Peeples To Be Honored

Mrs. John W. Jeffries will entertain at a buffet supper Thursday evening at her home on Shepherd place in compliment to her sister, Miss Dorothy Stocker and Francis Peeples, whose marriage takes place Saturday, January 15, at the residence of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. G. R. Stocker, on West Peachtree street.

The engagement of Miss Stocker and Mr. Peeples was announced last Sunday and is a matter of interest to a wide circle of friends throughout the state.

Dr. Quillian To Speak To Agnes Lee Chapter.

The Agnes Lee chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will hold its regular meeting at the chapter house in Decatur Friday afternoon, January 14, at 3:00 o'clock. The principal feature of the program will be the address by Dr. Wiley Quillian, pastor of Decatur First Methodist church, whose subject will be "Robert E. Lee."

Appropriate music will be rendered with Mrs. C. W. Diekmann in charge. The committee entertaining in January are Mrs. Paul Smith and Mrs. C. W. Diekmann, chairman; Mrs. T. H. Smoot, Mrs. Frank Pittillo, Mrs. Henry Jewett, Mrs. Floyd Hammond, Mrs. A. E. Downham, Mrs. W. S. Calhoun, Mrs. J. O. Norris, Mrs. M. L. Mack, Mrs. Pearl Carroll, Mrs. F. A. Kroner, Mrs. J. L. Hoffman.

Delta Pi Delta Met With Miss Livingston.

Miss Susan Livingston entertained the members of the Delta Pi Delta sorority, of Woodberry hall, at the home of her aunt, on Maddox drive Friday afternoon. After the business was discussed a social hour was enjoyed.

The active members are Miss Eileen McKinney, president; Miss Eleanor Rose, vice president; Miss Susan Livingston, secretary and treasurer; Miss Violeta Roan, Miss Plez Alexander, Miss Nouella Sears, Miss Adeline McAuley.

French Alliance To Meet Today With Mrs. Erwin

The next meeting of the French Alliance will take place at the home of Mrs. Thomas C. Erwin, 883 Oakdale Drive, N. E., at 3:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon, January 13. On account of the holiday season that has intervened since the last meeting the class study of Victor Hugo will be postponed until the following meeting, thus giving time for the members to read and prepare their quotations from the drama "Ruy Blas," that will be specially analyzed at the next meeting. Charles Lorrains, president, will speak on current events and of Jean Richpin and Claude Monet, who died in France last month.

One-act play from J. P. Terrier entitled "Notre Candidat," will be presented by Mrs. H. E. Newton and Miss L. Landon.

Mrs. John M. Slaton, vice president, will recite "Scrupules" from Sully Prudhomme. The musical program will be furnished by Mrs. T. H. Blackstock, soprano, who will sing an aria from "Louise" by Gustave Charpentier, and one from "Thais" accompanied on the piano by Mrs. A. L. Slaton.

Mrs. A. L. Slaton will also play "Automne," from Chaminade, and "Bienaimée" waltz, by Schmitt.

Kirkwood P. T. A. Board To Meet.

The executive board of Kirkwood P. T. A. meets Friday, January 14, at 11 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. L. Slaton. Plans for the coming semester are to be outlined. Members are urged to be on time.

Fidelis Class Will Visit Childs' Home.

The Fidelis class of the West End Baptist church will go to the Atlanta Childs' home Thursday evening, January 13. Mrs. Jessie Davenport Jones, accomplished musician, has arranged the program for the entertainment of the home as well as visitors.

Cars will be at the church at 7:00 o'clock to convey any who wish to attend.

Kindergarten Show At 'Woodland.'

On Friday morning, January 14, at 11 o'clock, the pre-school age group of the Emory P. T. A. will meet at "Woodland," the home of Mrs. Arthur Tufts, in Druid Hills, for a miscellaneous show for the Emory kindergarten, which opens January 18. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock by Mrs. Tufts, Mrs. Anne Bates Walsh and Mrs. J. Sam Gray. The pre-school group includes 35 and all members are urged to be present.

Mrs. Sanders Honored At Supper Party.

A social event of Monday evening was the supper party given in Mrs. Homer Allen and Miss Clara Weeks at the home of Miss Weeks, 315 W. Ponce de Leon avenue, Decatur, in honor of Mrs. C. M. Sanders, a recent bride. Supper was served at the card tables at 7:30 o'clock and afterwards bridge and ruck were enjoyed. Pink and white prevailed in the appointments of the dinner. The prizes were won by Mrs. W. H. Reeves and Miss Rosalie Scott, and were attractive shoulder bouquets of violets. The consolation, a bottle of perfume, was cut by Miss Ruth Green. The bride was presented with a shower of useful gifts.

Thirty guests were invited to meet Mrs. Sanders.

Marietta Society Enjoys Festivities.

Mrs. Harry Cottingham entertained the Wednesday Bridge club at a bridge-luncheon, at the home of Misses Addie and Molein Seitz, on Atlanta street.

Misses Sarah Patton and Glennis Hancock left Tuesday for a two month's stay in New York. Miss Patton will study voice and Miss Hancock accompanying.

Mrs. Mills McNeal, Jr., complimented her husband with a stag dinner on Friday evening, in honor of his birthday.

Miss Lucy Tate accompanied Mrs. L. B. Sanders and Miss Julia Sanders, of Springdale Road, Atlanta, in their car on Tuesday, to Cocoa, Fla., where she will be their guest for some weeks at their winter home.

Miss Mary Louise Brunby left Tuesday for a two month's stay in New York, where she will resume her studies in music.

Miss Josephine Goodlett, of Tupelo, Ala., is the guest of Miss Margaret McNeil, on Cherokee street.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Wallace were hosts at a dinner party Friday evening, at their home on Hillside avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Northcutt returned Tuesday to their home in Rocky Mount, N. C., after a two week's visit to relatives here.

Judge N. A. Morris and Harry Hawkins have returned from a hunting trip in south Georgia.

Mrs. Lewis Litter, of Birmingham, Ala., was the guest this week of her sister, Mrs. Donald Lawrence, on Whitlock avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Dobbs, of Miami, Fla., and Mrs. Lillian E. Finn, of College Park, Atlanta, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Dobbs, on McDonald street.

R. de T. Lawrence has returned from a visit to his son, Rev. James Lawrence, in Americus, Ga.

Miss Sarah Latimer has returned to her home in Woodstock, Ga., after a visit of several weeks to friends.

DAILY CALENDAR OF SOCIAL EVENTS

Mrs. John King Ottley will be hostess at luncheon at the Piedmont Driving club in compliment to Mrs. William Marshall, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Orton Brown, of Berlin, N. H.

Mrs. Paul Dixon will entertain at the second of a series of bridge parties this afternoon at her home on Park drive.

Robert H. Martin will entertain at the Atlanta Athletic club honoring the members of the football squad at Marist college, of which his son, Robert H. Martin, Jr., is a member.

The congregation of the Central Presbyterian church will hold a reception this evening at 8 o'clock in the church parlors, the occasion to honor the pastor, Dr. W. E. Davis, and Mrs. Davis.

The Winona Park P. T. A. will sponsor a benefit bridge at the Decatur Woman's club at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. George Dexter will entertain at a small luncheon at the Piedmont Driving club today in honor of Mrs. W. H. Taylor, who will leave soon for Philadelphia, Pa.

There will be a script dance at the new clubhouse of the West End Woman's club from 10 until 1 o'clock.

There will be a family dinner at the East Lake Country club.

The Thialian Dramatic club, recently formed in the senior class of the Sacred Heart school, will give a playlet entitled "The Five Ghosts" this afternoon in the auditorium of the school.

Prominent Visitors To Be Honored By Mrs. Ottley

Mrs. John K. Ottley will be hostess at luncheon Thursday at the Piedmont Driving club at 1:30 o'clock, the occasion honoring Mrs. William Marshall, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Orton Brown, of Berlin, N. H. The guests of Mrs. Ottley are Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. Orton Brown, Mrs. J. C. and Mrs. George Howard, Mrs. Bolling Jones, Mrs. Price Gilbert, Mrs. James E. Hickey, Mrs. John S. Lester, Mrs. Marcus J. Emmert, Mrs. Albert Howell, Jr., Mrs. Leonard Phinizy, Mrs. Henry L. DeGue, Mrs. Clark Howell, Sr., Mrs. E. P. McBurney and Mrs. G. C. Crosby, of Waterson, N. J.

Atlanta Junior Music Club Has Meeting.

The first meeting of the 1927 season of the Atlanta Junior Music club held recently was called to order by the president, Frank Mitchell. The secretary, Virginia Morris, read the minutes of the last meeting which told of the Christmas party. Mrs. Bache announced that all children who wished to take part in any of the spring contests should be registered with the club before February 5, as no application would be accepted after that date.

Great interest was shown in the concert to be given by the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra. Mrs. Haines announced that all grown folks bringing five children would be allowed a ticket for 25c. Charles Beaton prepared a program which was beautifully rendered by Miss Martha Jarrett, Miss Ella M. Shillett, Jamie de la Puente, Robert Myddleton and Alton O'Steen.

The next meeting will be held at Edico Hall, January 22, Mrs. Armand Carroll is chairman.

Seven B. Y. P. U.'s Hold Public Installation.

The seven B. Y. P. U.'s of the Gordon Street Baptist church conducted a public installation service for the coming six months at the Sunday evening service January 9.

Mrs. H. R. O'Quinn, directress of the B. Y. P. U. council, presided over the meeting. A splendid musical program was given by members of the different unions. Readings were given by Miss Helen Babb and Miss Ona O'Neal. The story, "The Value of Training," was given by Mrs. O'Quinn and Miss Carolyn Dobbs.

Each president of the unions, the leaders of the junior and intermediate unions and the chairman of the board of deacons gave short talks. Mrs. O'Quinn pledged to the deacons, who were present in a body, the loyal support of the B. Y. P. U.'s during the coming term, and promised to co-operate and stand by the church in its program this year.

Morgan Blake, the speaker of the evening, talked on the subject "A Good Sportsman."

W. H. Thomas, president of the City union; H. R. O'Quinn, vice president of the City union; Frank Garrison, president of the south division, and Carlton Bruns, former state president, were present and gave short talks.

The following presidents and leaders were installed for the coming six months:

Mrs. H. R. O'Quinn, directress of B. Y. P. U. council; Joe Schillings, assistant director; C. C. Lee, secretary; V. A. Pierce, chorister; Miss Vera Tugler, pianist; Mrs. T. E. Clatt, leader junior union No. 1; Miss Leona Parker, president junior union No. 2; Miss Eileen Hiburn, leader junior union No. 2; Miss Junitt, Aycock, president junior union No. 2; J. P. Bonner, leader intermediate No. 1; Miss Catherine Howard, president intermediate No. 1; Miss Flora Benson, leader intermediate No. 2; Walter Hill, president intermediate No. 2; Ernest W. Allen, president senior No. 1; Wycliff Rountree, president senior No. 2; and Powell Ragan, president senior No. 3.

West End Club To Be Dedicated This Afternoon

Dedication and opening of the new clubhouse of the West End Woman's club, 1100 Cascade avenue, takes place Thursday afternoon, January 13, at 3 o'clock, followed by an informal reception from 3 to 5 o'clock and a reception and house warming from 8 to 10 o'clock. Mrs. B. K. Rambo, president of the City Federation will have charge of the dedication exercises. Other honor guests will include Mrs. H. G. Hastings, Mrs. Oscar Palmour, Mrs. Alonzo Richardson, Mrs. A. P. Brantley, Mrs. James E. Hayes, Mrs. Z. I. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. John K. Ottley, Mrs. Van Winkle, Mrs. Bessie Shaw Stafford, Mrs. Norman Sharp, Mrs. W. C. Jernigan, Mrs. Clifford Walker, Mrs. I. N. Ragsdale, Mrs. Dupont Murphy and Mrs. Emmett Brogdon. The receiving committee will be composed of Mrs. Chester W. Johnson, president, and members of the executive board of the club.

Following the reception and house warming a script dance will be held from 10 to 1 o'clock, under the direction of Mrs. Chester W. Johnson. To the boys and girls attending past dances of the club a special invitation is extended to be present at the opening dance in the clubhouse.

The Georgia Railway and Power company will furnish a bus line from the end of the Whitehall-Beecher street car line to the clubhouse beginning at 2:30 and continuing until 2:50 and beginning at 7:50 and continuing until 10:30. The bus will then remain at the clubhouse until 1:15, making a trip back to the center of the city to accommodate those attending the opening dance.

SPECIAL

6 More Days at This Price

Permanent Wave, Any Style, Entire Head

$7.00

New York's newest creations in permanent waves; no kinks, burns, frizzles; man and woman operator direct from New York. Call today for appointment.

MARTHA WASHINGTON BEAUTY PARLOR

Imperial Hotel
WA. 6261 and IVY 4700

Here's Heat for You!

Quick and Handy . . . Gas or Electric . . .

Radiantfires

GAS heat at its best! Gives safe, clean, efficient warmth with all the coziness of an old-time log fire.

In many beautiful period models . . . Queen Anne, Hob, or Colonial. Priced right, at easy terms. Small down-payment.

$20 up

Portable Electric Heaters

Connect to any electric outlet . . . may be easily adjusted from side to side . . . Just the thing to battle these early morning chills.

Edison Hedlite, Graybar, Westinghouse, Anderson-Pitt.

$4.95
and $7.50

Georgia Railway and Power Co.

A CITIZEN WHEREVER WE SERVE

75 Marietta 142 Sycamore—Decatur 376 Euclid
809 Peachtree 821 Gordon

"Hot Spot" Heaters

Not so handsome as "Radiantfire" . . . but extending comfortable, economical heat wherever placed in the home.

They're ready at the strike of a match! In three sizes to fit your need for portable GAS heat!

$6.50, $7.50, $8.50

Warming Pads

A nice, fluffy warming pad that gives a friendly warmth. Steady, uniform heat just as long as you want it.

Comes complete with cord and switch, two and three-way heats. In several types and sizes. Priced from $8.50 up.

There Is Something In a Name

Occasion Extraordinary in Chamberlin's Silks!

TODAY

THE heading is self explanatory. These are Chamberlin's silks. You are aware that no silks are finer or more beautiful. It is the first January Sale we ever held. You will readily see the point. We are endeavoring to make a landmark of it, a record breaker. In pursuit of this idea the buyer went to market and explained the proposition. He found splendid, admirable cooperation. He bought only such silks as we have always sold, that is to say, the very best procurable, but he bought them in quantities for special selling at reduced prices.

That is the way they will be sold, at reduced prices!

When one pauses to think of it, the occasion is very extraordinary. Finest of silks, every yard first quality, in fashionable styles and colors, at prices touching bottom. Not only are they prophetic of Spring, they are Spring silks! Not an "off" pattern or a dull style in the whole outlay. That being true, you may buy with safety, as well as with certainty of saving roundly.

$3.50 Flat Crepe

$2.95

—Washable flat crepe of exquisite quality—rich, cool, magnetic to the touch. In new shades authentically expressing the sports trend for spring—palmetto rose, peach, pink, copen, maize, popcorn, tan, oak, buff, Marie Antoinette, Nile. 40 inches.

Printed Crepe de Chine

$3.95

—Cheney's printed crepes de Chine in a kaleidoscopic preview of spring frocks to be! Fine crepe printed in patterns hot from the press of fashion—small, neat designs; new variations of the coin dot; tone on tone effects; old plaids in new guises. At a price to amaze one! 40 inches.

$2.50 Flat Crepe

$1.95

—Crepe is hailed as the Queen of Palm Beach fabrics—a sure harbinger of its spring popularity here! Small wonder when of such heavy, rich quality as this—in shades of Queen blue, palmetto, rose, beige, Athénia, Mother Goose, Pekin, crane, black, white. 40 inches.

Washable Broadcloths

$1.95

—The non plus ultra of sports dress silks! New adaptations of a fabric and design perennially in demand for their beauty and long wear. Now the new Wellesley Nassau and End-to-End patterns—in the dashing colorings of spring. 32 inches.

$2.50 Plaid Surah Silks

$1.95

—The plaids of the proud clansmen of Scotland are gathered here! Rich tartan plaids seen in the new light of fashion, superimpose themselves on supple surah silk. It does not crush or wrinkle, making stunning scarfs and travel costumes. 36 inches.

$2.95 Greenbriar Crepe

$2.69

—A charming innovation in design and fabric. A crepe of very fine texture, its faint shadow design printed in lovely colors, like a delicate woodcut. In navy, rose, pink, green and blue on white ground. Belonging decidedly to 1927! 32 inches.

Cameole Crepe

$5.19

—On the silken horizon a new luminary rises to shine with soft glory in a dual role! A sheer crepe back, with a lustrous satin face—an ambiguous fabric is Cameole Crepe. In tonal combinations of honeydew and maize, blue and gold, Nile and white, maize and white, bluetie and white. 40 inches.

Faille Back Satin Crepe

$6.50

—Cheney's lustrous satin crepe, backed with faille to double its wearing qualities and triple its smartness. The reverse side used as trimming on satin makes stunning combination! Crane, rose, rose beige, rosewood, black. 40 inches.

$3.50 Marinette Crepe

$2.79

—A wonderfully soft crepe de chine, which washes perfectly. Pure silk and pure dye is double assurance of its beauty and service. Over twenty of the newest spring shades at this remarkable price for January event only! 40-inch width.

$3.75 Marillyn Satin, $2.95

—The Ace of Crepe Satins—this exquisite, lustrous, heavy satin which falls naturally into drapery folds of distinctive elegance. In especially selected colors for this great event—orchid, black, Grecian rose, fallow, pink, peachbloom, Deauville blue, popcorn, sandalwood, monkey skin, fairway green.

$2.95 Marillyn Crepe, $2.49

—A silk of exquisite beauty, with as much of Spring in it as the song of the robin. 40 inches. Guaranteed washable. All pure silk and 100% pure dye. In Marie rose, light navy, buttercup, monkey skin, Charleston blue, Mother Goose, tiger lily, peachbloom, white, black, crane, cadet blue, ocean green, Goya, pink, midnight navy.

Silks—
Main Floor

$1.69 Foulard

$1.49

—It makes a smart appearance whatever be the time of day. The new twill weave foulard in spring's new patterns, showing the tendency to combine different shades of the same color. 35 inches.

$1.95 Broadcloth

$1.69

—Durable, washable plain broadcloth; verily a Lenglen in the field of sports fabrics. It survives the grueling strain of strenuous sports. In pink, rose, peach, tan, white and palmetto. 32-in.

$1.95 Charmeuse

$1.69

—Even spring and gentle summer occasionally turn away from their own delicate fabrics to wear a gown of charmeuse—black for perfect contrast! Genuine $1.95 quality of charmeuse. 36 inches.

$3.95 Lunette Crepe, $2.69

—Lunette, a glorified form of georgette—richer and heavier, that clings and caresses like a June breeze. For entire frocks or in combination with other fabrics. 20 shades, both dark and light. 40 inches.

$1.69 Crepe de
Chine

$1.39

—Washable crepe de chine that blooms perennially with spring and in as many colors. The yellow of the daffodil, the pink of the rose petal, the vernal green of opening leaves—white and black. 20 colors. 40 inches.

$2 Crepe de
Chine Prints

$1.69

—Usually $2 and $2.50. Like the buds that burst anew with every spring, so come fashion's gay prints—colorful, ingenious and for the most part very diminutive. Dots, geometric figures and flowers—on dark and light grounds. 39 inches.

$2.25 Silk
Georgette

$1.69

—Its sheer mistiness is deceiving, so durable is it and serviceable! Soft pastels and dark shades for street and summer travel. 30 colors in all, all the very newest. 39 inches. All-silk and pure dye.

$2.50 Georgette
Prints

$1.69

—You will find it at tea for two in a garden, or swaying to the last waltz at three o'clock in the morning. Printed georgette—gay and brilliant, or softly diffusing the colors of Spring. Light and dark grounds. 39 inches.

12 Momme Pongee
59c

Reliable, serviceable quality of pongee. Natural color only—fine for children's clothes, traveling robes, draperies, and a multitude of other uses.

$2.95

Satin Crepe

$2.49

—A fabric that serves two masters—beauty and utility—and serves both well. The famous Wexbar crepe. Black, navy, rose, flesh, copen, crane, green, tan, maize, white, orchid, Nile and peach. 40 inches.

$1.95

Broadcloth

$1.59

—Many fabrics take unto themselves the name of "sports," but the colorful stripe must have formed the original sports costume. You will find it in the new washable broadcloths in great variation. 32 inches.

Chamberlin - Johnson - DuBose Co.

SOCIAL ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Jordan, of Macon, who have recently moved to Atlanta to make this city their home, have taken an apartment at Stratford Hall, on Peachtree street. Their sister, Miss Clara Freeman, will spend the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Jordan.

Miss G. K. Gordon, of Torquay Downs, England, is spending some time at the Georgian Terrace.

Mrs. Harry English is convalescing from a recent illness at her home on West Peachtree street.

Mrs. Frances Gordon Smith leaves Friday for Augusta, Ga., to join her mother, Mrs. John B. Gordon, where they have taken a cottage for the remainder of the winter.

Miss Edith Scott, of the Atlanta Theological seminary, who has been ill at the Georgia Baptist hospital, has been removed to the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Stinson, on Clairmont drive.

Miss Elinor Whittemore, of Boston, Mass., arrives today to visit Mrs. Henry Inman at her home in the Ponce de Leon apartments. Miss Whittemore is a foremost violinist and will appear at the symphony concert Sunday afternoon, January 16.

Mrs. Z. T. Fitzpatrick, of Madison, Pa., is spending this week at her home on Peachtree road with Mr. and Mrs. John K. Otley.

Mrs. Pauline DeGivie will return Saturday from New York City with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry I. DeGivie, who leaves next Monday for their winter home, "Villa Laurent," at Rockledge, to spend the remainder of the winter.

Paul DeGivie returned Wednesday to St. Paul's preparatory school at Concord, N. H., after spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry I. DeGivie.

Miss Clara Belle King, one of the season's most popular debutantes, is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Woodruff, at her home on Glenwood road in Birmingham, Ala., and will be entertained at a series of social affairs during her visit to Mrs. Woodruff.

Miss Frances Porter has returned after spending six weeks in North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Tift have named their son, who was born Saturday, January 8, at Piedmont Sanitarium, Thomas W. Tift.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Campbell have returned from a visit to New York and Washington, D. C.

Mrs. A. H. Graham and her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Elippen, of Dallas, Texas, are spending several days at the Hotel Georgian Terrace.

Mrs. P. D. Gontas left last week for Miami, Fla., where she will visit Mrs. C. J. Anderson for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Osterberg, of Buffalo, whose marriage was a brilliant event of last week, are at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel.

Lieutenant and Mrs. A. L. Benedict, who have been stationed at Fort Mc-Pherson, will leave Saturday, January 22, by automobile for a trip across the continent, their destination being Vancouver, B. C. Lieutenant Benedict will act as guide to General Joseph D. Leitch, who leaves shortly for Vancouver.

Misses Julia Meador, Jaquelin Moore, Katherine Harris, Cornelia Orme, Adeline Winston and Eleanor Johnson and Louise Moore will motor to Athens Saturday to attend the basketball game between the teams of Georgia Tech and the University of Georgia, and the dance given after the game. They will be chaperoned by Mrs. Thomas D. Meador, Jr., and will return to Atlanta Sunday.

Mrs. Edgar B. Dunlap and Mrs. John B. Dunlap, of Gainesville, Fla., are spending a few days at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Emerson Brown, of Kalamazoo, Mich., who have been at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel for two weeks, left Wednesday to attend the Hall-Broyles wedding. They will be in the city for the latter part of the week, and on February 9 will sail for Algeria, to remain until May.

Mrs. Frank M. Inman and Mrs. Charles Northern motored to Macon Wednesday to remain until after the Hall-Broyles wedding.

Miss Nellie Beattie left Wednesday afternoon for Washington, D. C., where she will spend the latter part of her brother, Major John L. Beattie.

Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, of Hahab, Tenn., who are the parents of a daughter, who has been named Esther, January 10, at McCall hospital in Rome. The little girl was named for her paternal grandmother, Mrs. John C. Miller, of Rome. She is also a granddaughter of Colonel and Mrs. L. A. Dean, of Rome. Her mother was formerly Miss Jane A. Dean.

Mrs. John S. Lester has returned from Europe, where she spent the past six months.

Mr. and Mrs. Haynes McFadden will leave this week for New York, where they will spend two weeks.

Miss Sue Tanner, of Carrollton, is the guest of Mrs. John Woodside, Jr., at her home on Fifteenth street, for a few days. Miss Tanner will leave at an early date for Daytona Beach, Fla., where she will spend the remainder of the season at the winter home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Tanner.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Hopkins arrive Friday from Florida where they spent the past three weeks.

Tenenbaum-Hurowitz Engagement Is Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Tenenbaum announce the engagement of their daughter, Ella, to Samuel Hurowitz, of Lenoir, N. C. The wedding is to take place at an early date.

Miss Tenenbaum, Mr. Hurowitz and Miss Tenenbaum's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Tenenbaum, will be at home Thursday evening, January 13, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tenenbaum, 745 West Peachtree street, S. W., from 8 to 10 o'clock. No cards.

THE BRITISH NOW SET ENERGETICALLY TO THE TASK OF CAPTURING THE AMERICAN ARMY ON MANHATTAN ISLAND. THE EVACUATION OF THE CITY WAS NECESSARY UNDER THE OVERWHELMING THREATS OF THE BRITISH FLEET AND ARMY. ON THE RETREAT MANY OF THE AMERICAN TROOPS WERE THROWN INTO A PANIC AND DISPLAYED SHAMEFUL COWARDICE. WASHINGTON WAS SO DISGUSTED WITH THEM THAT HE EXCLAIMED: "ARE THESE THE MEN WITH WHOM I AM TO DEFEND AMERICA?" WASHINGTON WAS FORCED TO ABANDON A LARGE AMOUNT OF MILITARY STORES ON THIS TERRIBLE DAY. THE HOT AUGUST SUN POURED DOWN A BLISTERING HEAT. THE TERROR, CONFUSION AND SUFFERING OF THIS UNTRAINED ARMY SURPASSED IMAGINATION. THE RETREAT WAS ENCUMBERED WITH WOMEN AND CHILDREN, MOANING, CRYING, FAINT, THIRSTY AND EXHAUSTED. THERE IS PERHAPS NO MORE TERRIBLE SCENE IN THE PAGES OF AMERICAN HISTORY.

Pageant Representatives Requested to Meet at Church

All those who are represented in the pageant at Wesley Memorial church Sunday night, January 18, at 7:30 o'clock are requested to meet in the church Friday, January 14, at 3:30 o'clock, for a rehearsal.

Mrs. Payne Will Honor Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Hopkins

Mrs. J. Carroll Payne will entertain at a buffet luncheon Tuesday, January 18, at her home on Peachtree road in compliment to her daughters, Mrs. John C. Smith, Jr., and Mrs. Charles Hopkins, Jr.

Missionary Society Elects Officers

The members of the Young Peoples Missionary society of Martha Brown Memorial church were entertained Friday evening at the home of Kennedy W. Woodland and elected officers.

Officers for the ensuing year are: President, Quigg Hollingsworth; vice president, Annie Katherine Pittman; secretary, Grace Fincher; corresponding secretary, Emily Jones; treasurer, Montgomery Fincher; superintendent of publicity, Rosena Burton; superintendent of supplies, Ruth Ball; superintendent of social service, Edgar Kilpatrick. The circle chairman are: Hazel Strickland, Ruth Hardin and Louise Strickland.

Pi Pi Sorority Meets With Miss Corker

The members of the Pi Pi sorority met at the home of Miss Myrtle Corker, on Fairview road, Wednesday afternoon.

Plans were formulated for the sorority's formal dance, which will be a brilliant event of Friday, February 11, taking place at the Druid Hills Golf club. Tea was served, following the business meeting. The officers of the club include Miss Bettie Davidson, president; Miss Dorothy Baine, vice president; Elizabeth Kimball, secretary; Miss Phoebe Rhiatt, treasurer.

Miss Irene Clinton Honored at Luncheon

Mrs. Edwin S. Chadwick entertained informally at luncheon Wednesday at her home at the Georgian Terrace, the occasion commemorating Miss Irene Clinton, of California, who is visiting Mrs. Edgar Dunlap at her home on Oakdale road in Druid Hills.

Mrs. Chadwick and Miss Clinton formerly resided in Boise, Idaho, where their families are socially very prominent.

Georgia Chapter O. E. S. Officers Are Installed

The officers of Georgia chapter Order of the Eastern Star were installed at Oglethorpe lodge, on Georgia avenue, Wednesday evening, by Mrs. Rose Mae Ashby, worthy grand marshal of the general grand chapter. She was assisted by Mrs. Mamie Schepert, grand chaplain; Mrs. Nora Lanford, grand marshal; Mrs. Belle Haley, grand organist and several hundred members of the O. E. S. witnessed the impressive ceremonies.

Officers installed were: Mrs. Myrtle Pattillo, worthy matron; Ben O. Holtzendorf, worthy patron; Mrs. Clara Mae Foster, associate matron; Mrs. Eva Maxwell, secretary; Miss Mattie Conkle, treasurer; Miss Braden Lanford, conductress; Mrs. Alma Allen, associate conductress; Mrs. Annie Huff, Ada; Mrs. Sophie Thomas, Ruth; Miss May Hatcher, Esther; Mrs. Ruth Strickland, Martha; Mrs. Ruby Williams, Electa; Mrs. Lulu O'Neil, marshal; Mrs. Dora Hamilton, organist; Mrs. Luella Hamilton, chaplain; Mrs. Pauline Dillon, warder; John Davis, sentinel.

Mrs. Nora Lanford, worthy matron, was presented with a past master's jewel, silver salad forks and other gifts from the chapter and officers and friends, in appreciation of the splendid work. Walter Lee Pattillo, past patron, was presented with a jewel and other gifts from the chapter for his faithful services.

Mrs. Rose Mae Ashby, installing officer, was presented a blue and amber bowl, etched in gold. Mrs. Belle Haley, Mrs. Mamie Schepert, Mrs. Myrtle Pattillo, Mrs. Clara Foster, A. C. Minihinnett, Jr., were also presented with gifts from the chapter. Mrs. Roseanna Ward, past grand marshal of Georgia, was presented with gifts, and "I Love You" was sung as Mrs. Ward was welcomed by her many admirers.

The Joy of Motherhood

JUST how to make motherhood a joy is one of the most important things in the world for you to know, right now. Mother-to-be, use the simple method of an eminent physician who dedicated his life's work to this great accomplishment for your benefit. "I was in labor only 25 minutes with my last child, but suffered agonies for three previous children," writes an enthusiastic mother who used Mother's Friend. Great has been the praise of Mother's Friend for over three generations. Mother's Friend aids the skin and muscles to expand during the constant readjustment of expectancy, month after month, right up to childbirth. Mother's Friend is safe for you to use because it contains no harmful drugs and is applied externally. Mother! Insist on Mother's Friend—the same as used by our mothers and grandmothers—don't wait—start using tonight—and measure the joy of Mother's Friend. It tells how Mother's Friend can help you during expectation and childbirth. Mother's Friend also tells you many other things you want to know. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all druggists—everywhere.

DAILY CALENDAR OF WOMEN'S MEETINGS

The garden committee of the Atlanta Woman's club, Mrs. Joel Hunter, chairman, will meet at 10:30 o'clock at the clubhouse. W. L. Monroe, of the Monroe Nursery and Landscape company, will give a lecture on the "Planting and Care of Shrubbery."

Formal dedication and opening of the new clubhouse of the West End Woman's club, 1100 Cassard road, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock; followed by an informal reception from 3 to 5 o'clock; and reception and house-warming from 8 to 10 o'clock.

There will be a meeting of the Leaders Association of the Girl Scouts at 3:30 o'clock at headquarters.

There will be a joint meeting of all P. T. A. safety education and all P. T. A. presidents in the fifth district and the Atlanta P. T. A. council in the assembly room on the fourth floor of M. Rich's.

The O'Keefe Junior High P. T. A. will meet this evening at 8 o'clock at the school.

The meeting of the Fulton High School Alumni association will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at the school.

The annual meeting of the Home for the Friendless and Industrial School will be held this morning at 10:30 o'clock at the home.

There will be a regular meeting of Georgia chapter, No. 127, O. E. S., this evening at 7:30 o'clock, in Oglethorpe Masonic temple, corner of East Georgia avenue and South Pryor street.

The P. T. A. safety chairmen will meet at 10 o'clock this morning in the assembly room on the fourth floor of M. Rich & Bros. company.

The Georgia Avenue P. T. A. will hold a daddies' meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the school auditorium.

The Twentieth Century coterie will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. M. Sanders, 227 King's highway, Decatur.

There will be a meeting of the Virginia Highlands Civic Improvement club this evening at the Associated Reformed Presbyterian church, corner Highland avenue and Hudson drive, at 7:30 o'clock.

The Mary Latimer McLendon W. C. T. U. will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. H. W. Warren, 804 Moreland avenue, N. E.

The members of the executive board of the city mission board of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, will hold an all-day session at 10:30 o'clock at Wesley house, 306 Whitehall street.

Phi Psi Discuss Plans for Dance

The Phi Psi sorority of Washington University met at the home of Miss Mary McCord Wednesday afternoon. The sorority will give a brilliant dance Friday evening, January 21, at the Druid Hills Golf club. Plans for the dance were discussed at the meeting, which was followed by a social hour, when the hostess served tea.

Virginia Highlands Civic Club To Meet Tonight

There will be a meeting of the Virginia Highlands Civic Improvement club to be held at the Associated Reformed Presbyterian church, corner of Highland avenue and Hudson drive, Thursday evening, January 13, at 7:30 o'clock.

This will be a most important meeting of the club, which will make their reports and new officers will be elected. All members are urged to be present and also are requested to bring with them the interest of neighbors and friends.

Mary Branan Society Meets With Miss Allen

The Ladies' Missionary society of Mary Branan Memorial church held their meeting Monday afternoon at Wesley house, Miss Bessie Allen acting as hostess.

Mrs. S. A. F. Wagner gave an interesting reading, Mrs. Etta Smith and Mrs. Katie Lee Reeves offered prayer. Mrs. J. C. White, South Atlanta district secretary, gave a talk on the Belle Benette memorial, committee was appointed to raise the balance of the quota for this society. The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. J. C. White. A social hour followed, during which the hostess, assisted by Miss Virginia Gowan, served tea.

Miss Newell To Be Honored At January Tea

Mrs. Alfred Newell and Miss Ellen Newell will entertain at a large tea, Thursday afternoon, January 27, at their home on Clifton road, in Druid Hills, in honor of Miss Ann Lane Newell, one of the most attractive members of the debutante coterie.

Mid-Week Dinner-Dance Takes Place at Biltmore

The dinner-dance Wednesday evening at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel was a delightful event of the week. Dinner was served at 8:30 o'clock in the Georgian ball room, after which dancing was enjoyed until midnight.

Miss Mary Harris entertained the largest party of the evening in company with Miss Sara Hurt and Miss Louise Arnold, two popular debutantes of the season. Covers were placed for Misses Hurt, Arnold, Anne Lane Newell, Gray Poole, Anne Kessnick, Anne Spalding, Bootsie Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morgan, Lonnie Lyde, Burnam McGhee, Sunny Monroe, Bill Gordy, Dan Clarke, Sid Hardie, James Campbell, Marion Camp and Miss Harris. Others present were Misses Mary Middleton, Harry Rhorer, Mary McCarty, Lucille Stone, Henrietta Mikell, Virginia Torrence, Yolande Gwin, Sara Smith, Alice Smith, Frances Floyd, Martha Miller, Callie Orme, Irene Clinton, of San Francisco, Calif.; Beverly Northrup, of Wilmington, N. C.; Mary Knight and others.

George Washington

By DR. ELLIOTT SHORING, NOTED HISTORIAN

AT THE NORTH END OF MANHATTAN ISLAND WASHINGTON ESTABLISHED HIS FORTIFIED CAMP. HERE THE YOUTHFUL ALEXANDER HAMILTON WON THE ATTENTION AND ADMIRATION OF WASHINGTON BY THE INTELLIGENCE AND SKILL HE DISPLAYED IN THROWING OUT FORTIFICATIONS. THE NEXT DAY THE BRITISH ATTACKED A REPOURT AND TOOK IT. THE FOLLOWING DAY WASHINGTON SENT OUT TROOPS. THEY MET THE BRITISH IN THE OPEN FIELD AND DECISIVELY DEFEATED THEM. THIS VICTORY, THOUGH WITHOUT IMPORTANCE, GREATLY REVIVED THE LOW SPIRITS OF THE AMERICANS.

THE FAILURE OF THE BRITISH TO CRUSH THE AMERICANS AT THIS TIME DEFIES EXPLANATION, UNLESS THE BRITISH LEADERS, CERTAIN OF VICTORY, WERE GROSSLY NEGLIGENT. WITH A HIGHLY DISCIPLINED FORCE, SUPERBLY EQUIPPED AND SUPPORTED BY A POWERFUL FLEET, THE UNTRAINED, HALF-STARVED, POORLY EQUIPPED AMERICAN FARMERS SHOULD HAVE BEEN DESTROYED IN ONE WEEK. NO STUDENT OF MILITARY EVENTS CAN EXAMINE THESE OPERATIONS WITHOUT ASTONISHMENT THAT WASHINGTON COULD HAVE MAINTAINED SO UNEQUAL A CONFLICT.

SPECIAL SESSION TO NAME WARDEN

The state prison commission will hold a session in a few days to select a successor to Peter V. Rice, who resigned Wednesday as warden of the state prison at Milledgeville after serving 11 days in that position. Mr. Rice was appointed warden by the commission in December and assumed his new duties January 1. Resignation of Mr. Rice as warden came unexpectedly. Two members of the prison commission visited the state prison farm Monday and talked with Mr. Rice about his work and he gave them no intimation at the time that he intended to retire. In a conversation over the telephone with members of the commission Wednesday he stated that the more he saw of his new job the more he wanted to get out of it.

Mr. Rice was named warden to clarify a situation which developed when the contention was made that no official of the prison was qualified to execute prisoners in Georgia under the laws which substituted the electric chair for the gallows. This question was raised by attorneys for Mel Gore, convicted for the murder of W. H. Cheek, Buckhead grocer. It is now pending before the supreme court for settlement.

At the time Mr. Rice was appointed warden, the commission had on file several applications for the position. It is expected the body will fill the place in a few days.

BANK SUPERINTENDENT LOSES IN LAWSUIT

T. R. Bennett, state superintendent of banks, Wednesday lost his suit against the Maryland Casualty company for $30,000 insurance alleged to be due in the failure of a bank at Carrollton, when a jury in United States court found for the defendant company.

Bennett alleged that the insurance money was payable because of misconduct of the bank officers, but the jury disagreed with this view. The insurance policy covered loss to the bank through misconduct of officers. Drville Park and Carl Davies represented Bennett, while Leonard Haas, Buford Boykin and Sid Holderness represented the company.

Man and Wife Held on Charge Of Having Liquor

John Wilson, of Hapeville, was arrested Wednesday night at Grady hospital, where he was taken after being injured in a jump from an automobile, in which he and his wife, Mrs. Vivian Wilson, were captured late Tuesday night by County Officers A. A. Stovall and Bob Hughes on Piedmont road after a chase of more than three miles.

Mrs. Wilson was lodged in Fulton county tower under $500 bond, charged with violation of the prohibition law, and her husband also will be moved in the tower as soon as his condition will permit, officers stated. The automobile and 30 gallons of liquor were confiscated by officers on Piedmont road, near Cheshire Bridge after Wilson had leaped from the speeding machine.

After Wilson leaped from the car, his wife attempted to steer it, but in a traffic jam lost control and crashed into three cars, officers stated. She then jumped out and ran, but was overtaken by Officer Stovall and placed under arrest.

While on the way to the hospital with Wilson, the wife, with a nail file, ripped open a side curtain on the police car in an attempt to leap out, but was prevented from escaping, officers reported. Later, in the drive from the hospital to Fulton county tower, Mrs. Wilson opened the door and again attempted to escape, but was frustrated by the officers.

Harman at Lumber Session

C. B. Harman, of Atlanta, secretary of the Southern Millwork Manufacturers' association, is in Richmond, Va., to attend the annual convention of the Virginia Refill Lumber Dealers' association. He will address that body on "Profits and Losses." While in Virginia, he will also visit Danville, Norfolk and Suffolk.

MAN HELD TO ANSWER MOTOR LAW CHARGE

Charged with transporting an alleged stolen automobile from Atlanta to Alabama in violation of the motor vehicle law, Roy Crawley Wednesday was held for the United States grand jury under $200 bond following a preliminary examination before Commissioner L. S. Ledbetter.

Colds can be stopped in 24 hours. Fevers and headaches cease. Then the bowels are opened, the poisons eliminated, the whole system toned. Millions of people know that from experience. All this is done by one perfect compound—HILL'S. It is so quick, so efficient, so free from ill results that we paid $1,000,000 for it. Every home should keep HILL'S on hand. Take it at the first sign of a cold, so the trouble can't get started. That saves much discomfort. But if the cold has started, HILL'S is the way to end it. Begin it now. Every hour of delay adds injury. Do nothing else, for the best helps are combined in HILL'S.

Be Sure It's HILL'S Price 30c CASCARA QUININE with portrait

Protection at Small Cost For Constitution Readers

Protection! Since the birth of the world men have striven for it.

From the age of wooden clubs and stone knives to modern times, the history of civilization has been one of inventions against dangers.

The insurance policy is your only protection against the daily average hazard of automobile and train wrecks, pedestrian accidents and a score of other types of mishaps.

Cheapest protection against these ever-growing perils is afforded you in the form of The Constitution's $7,500 travel accident insurance policy, issued at a cost of only $1.25 per year through the North American Accident Insurance company, an old reliable institution.

You cannot know when tragedy will chain you as one of its victims. Today may find you dead or maimed as the result of a wreck, or crushed under the wheels of a speeding automobile. Every day you read of such things in the newspapers.

It is your solemn duty to your wife or your children—those dependent on you for the necessities and comforts of life—to safeguard them with the greatest amount of insurance you can possibly carry.

The Constitution's reader insurance service supplies substantial protection at a cost that is within the means of every man and woman in Georgia, one that can prove a drain on no pocketbook. All you have to do to secure this great protection is to become a subscriber to The Daily and Sunday Constitution—"the south's standard newspaper"—and pay $1.25 for the policy, which increases in value at the rate of 10 per cent for five years.

When you see a good thing seize and hold it.

This offer is a good thing.

A hint to the wise is sufficient.

MANY BOOKS LOANED BY CARNEGIE LIBRARY

More than 600,000 books were issued for home reading in 1926 by the Carnegie library of Atlanta, and more than 100,000 persons used the reference rooms and reading rooms during the year, according to a report made to the Carnegie library board at its annual meeting held Wednesday. P. E. Glenn was re-elected president of the board and other officers were named as follows: Mrs. George Matson, secretary and treasurer, and W. C. Dumas, vice president. Charles M. Ford and W. T. Smith, members of the library committee of city council, attended the session of the board.

Lamps, Framed Pictures, Mirrors, Small Furniture, China, Glassware, Bronzes, Book Ends, Costume Jewelry, Novelties, Greeting Cards.

Picture Framing Our Specialty
BINDER'S
"The Gift Shops of Atlanta"
117 Peachtree 107 Peachtree Arcade

ASK for Horlick's The ORIGINAL Malted Milk

Take the Original Package Home

Safe Milk and Food

For Infants, Convalescents, the Aged, Nursing and Expectant Mothers, Children, etc.

Best Diet for Invalids

A well-balanced, delicious, easily assimilated Food-Drink that nourishes and up-builds. Use when tired or hungry, or at meals, or hot, upon retiring. Endorsed by physicians for over 40 years. Prepared at home in a minute by briskly stirring or beating the powder in a little hot or cold water, then add water or milk.

THE ATLANTA City Directory

Is Now Being Compiled and Will Soon Go To Press

No corrections can be made after January 22d

If you have moved or made any change in your business connections since our enumerator called, please get in touch with us at once.

"It is to your advantage to be properly listed in your City Directory."

Atlanta City Directory Co.

Publishers
415 Wesley Memorial Building

SALE

OVER 800 PAIRS

Every material, high and low heels.

A footwear sale unheard of in the history of this store!

BAKER'S

1 Whitehall St. On the Viaduct

One lot of high-grade shoes consigned from factory... $1.95

Enjoy Mild Winter Months In Hot Springs National Park, Arkansas.

It's springtime there all winter long! Sunlit golf courses... Mountain trails for riding and hiking... a congenial social life...

Invigorating mineral baths, famous the world over for their health-building qualities; a delightful, healthful winter awaits you in Hot Springs National Park!

Quickly Reached via Missouri Pacific Lines

THREE FAST SERVICES DAILY

Lv. Memphis	9:30 am	2:50 pm	11:15 pm
Ar. Little Rock	1:10 pm	6:45 pm	3:15 am
Ar. Hot Springs	3:10 pm	9:00 pm	7:00 am

Standard drawing room sleepers on night train. Observation parlor car, reclining chair cars and coaches on morning train. Parlor car, coaches and chair cars on afternoon train. Superior dining car service.

Secure tickets, reservations and illustrated literature from—

MISSOURI PACIFIC LINES

"A Service Institution"

Garland Yahn, Gen. Agt., Pass. Dept., MISSOURI PACIFIC RAILROAD CO., 322-33 Wesley Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

Hot Springs is the Home of Healthful Mountain Valley Water

Amusements

Erlanger Theater.

"Perhaps no more erroneous opinion prevails about the theater than the popular idea that the life of an actress is one continued round of pleasure," declares Charlotte Walker, who is appearing in Michael Arlen's great play, "The Green Hat," at the Erlanger theater this week.

"An actress' obligations to her work are not solely confined to her work in the theater, for extravagant living and good acting cannot be reconciled. It is necessary that she care for herself, the strains of playing a part eight or more times a week being not only nerve racking but a physical strain as well.

"To succeed on the stage and to strive to interpret life with truth and beauty, it is necessary, in other words, to know and understand life."

Coming to Erlanger Theater.

Seats will be placed on sale at the box office of the Erlanger theater this morning for the coming week's engagement of "Beau Geste," the Herbert Brenon Paramount film, the success of which following its first show-

ERLANGER THEATRE
PEACHTREE, AT NORTH AVENUE
TODAY AND ALL WEEK
MATINEE SATURDAY AT 2:30
Michael Arlen's Darling Romantic Story of a Woman's Soul.

THE GREEN HAT
WITH
CHARLOTTE WALKER
NORMAN HACKETT
AND A GREAT SUPPORTING COMPANY
Prizes: Nights, 50c to $2.50; Saturday Matinee, 50c to $2.00

SEAT SALE STARTS

TODAY AT

ERLANGER THEATRE
BOX OFFICE FOR THE LATEST AND GREATEST SCREEN SENSATION.

Beau Geste
Dead men stand to arms!

The fallen are spirited away!
These happenings, strange and terrible—are but a part of the story of three brothers, whose love for each other proved stronger than their fear of death.

Herbert Brenon's
"BEAU GESTE"
A Paramount Picture
COMING TO Erlanger Theater Monday Night, Jan. 17
Thereafter Twice Daily at 2:30 and 8:30
PRICES: Nights, 50c to $1.00; Mats., 50c, 75c, $1.00

FAIRFAX
Theater East Point
Today and Tomorrow
Saturday—"The Set Up."
Now showing
FRED THOMSON
in
A GREAT SCOUT
News Comedy
TUDOR

ATLANTA'S METROPOLITAN
Better Pictures, Better Music
NOW PLAYING
The Ultimate in Screen Drama
"MISMATES"
—with—
DORIS KENTON WARNER BAXTER
Leads and Controls the Metropolitan Orchestra
News and Views
BEN TURPIN
in Mack Bennett's Comedy—
"When a Man's a Prince"
BARGAIN MATINEE EACH DAY
11 A. M. TO 1 P. M.—25c

THE WINNING OF BARBARA WORTH
with RONALD COLMAN and VILMA BANKY
From the famous novel by HAROLD BELL WRIGHT
Coming Next Monday
ATLANTA'S METROPOLITAN
"An Atlanta Institution"

ing many weeks ago at the Criterion theater in New York, has become a matter of minor importance among film followers. It is to have its first Atlanta showing at the Erlanger theater next Monday night, and plays twice daily thereafter.

Roland Coleman is entrusted with the title role, while surrounding characters are interpreted by such favorites as Alice Joyce, Mary Brian, Neil Hamilton, Ralph Forbes, Noah Berry, William Powell, and others, without number.

The Rialto.

Reginald Denny the popular Universal farce comedy star, whose latest picture, "Take It From Me," is now showing at the Rialto theater, may return to the stage very shortly, according to the plans of Universal Pictures corporation. Carl Laemmle, head of the film company, plans to enter the legitimate stage production field, and is thinking of starting the popular farceur in a stage presentation between pictures within the next year. No vehicle has been selected for Denny as yet.

"Take It From Me" is from the stage musical comedy of the same name, which concerns the affairs of a ne'er-do-well rich young man.

The Forsyth.

"The Dove," greatest drama of the past few years, according to critics, starring Miss Ellis Dakin and John Warner of the Forsyth, is now proving wonderfully popular this week at the Forsyth.

With the two new leading figures in outstanding roles, supported by more than 20 members of the Forsyth Players and an equal number of popular Atlanta amateur players, the week promises to be the banner one of this season.

"The Dove" is a long the highest-priced plays ever brought to this city, and is perhaps the most powerful drama of its kind ever seen here.

More than passing interest is centered in the two new stars, Miss Dakin and Mr. Warner, both coming to this city with high recommendations and after successful seasons in some of the largest cities in the country.

Keith's Georgia.

The travesty skit presented this week at the Keith-Georgia theater, by Charles Harrison, Sylvia Dakin and Billy Hogue, is something out of the ordinary and creates laughs aplenty. Rigolito, the opera, and bits from Shakespeare, came in for some good-humored buffoonery highly enjoyed by the audience. Long Tack Sam, noted Chinese magician is mystifying everyone with his tricks. His company of 12 present magic, plate spinning, balancing and acrobatics. "Butterflies in the Rain" is the title of the featured photo play which gives Laura LaPlante and James Kirkwood the principal roles.

Loew's Grand.

Fun is the dominating note at Loew's Grand theater this week where Kimberly and Page, internationally famous artists, are appearing as a headliner in the screaming burlesque sketch "The Heart Breaker."

LOEW'S GRAND
CONTINUOUS 11 TO 11 P. M.
VAUDEVILLE 3:30-6:45-9 P. M.
THE INTERNATIONAL ARTISTS
KIMBERLY & PAGE
DIPLOMA OF THE CONTINENT
in "THE HEART BREAKER"
A Satire on "Adeline the Lover"
OTHER LOEW ACTS
PHOTOPLAY 2-4:30-7:45-10 P. M.
TOM MIX
IN "HARD BOILED"
Afts., 15c-25c. Nights, 15c-30c and 50c

10TH STREET THEATRE
Today and Tomorrow
"Duchess of Buffalo"
Saturday
"Forlorn River"

WEST END THEATRE
TODAY AND TOMORROW
"Sporting Lover"
SATURDAY
"The Brown Derby"

PALACE
THURSDAY AND FRIDAY
"THE DANIELS"
SATURDAY
"KID BOOTS"

KEITH-ALBEE GEORGIA
A GREAT SHOW
LONG TACK SAM
CHINESE MAGICIAN
COMPANY OF 12 WONDER WORKERS FROM THE ORIENT

HARRISON & DAKIN
—with—
BILLY HAGUE
DAVE SCHOOER
PEGGY HART ESTELLE MCNEAN
Music Hath Charms

ERVEL & DEL
VERSATILITY GIRLS
JED DOOLEY
The CAMO COMIC and AUDREE EVANS

FEATURE PHOTO PLAY
"Butterflies in the Rain" with LAURA LAPLANTE
CONTINUOUS 11 TO 11
Mats., 25c Nights, 50c

The skit is full of clever lines and Kimberly and Page are past masters in the delineation of this kind of comedy. The Earl Lindsay Revue is a pretentious dancing act in seven gorgeous scenes with eight good-looking girls who feature "The Black Bottom" dance. More fun is found in the act of George Morton, story teller, singer and dancer. The Loew picture is "Hard Boiled" with Tom Mix.

The Tudor.

Now showing at the Tudor is the latest Fred Thomson picture, "A Regular Scout," a thrilling story of the west, of a man embittered by a wrong and seeking revenge, bumping into a Boy Scout troop, helped by them and in a thrilling finish fight with a gang of desperadoes.

For fast and thrilling action, unusual entertainment, "A Regular Scout" has seldom been equaled, and the picture is one of the best ever made by Thomson, who is aided materially by the Boy Scouts and his horse, Silver King.

The Metropolitan.

Drama at its best is to be found in First National's big photoplay, "Mismates," starring Doris Kenton and Warner Baxter, which is the current attraction at the Metropolitan theater, where it is entertaining large crowds at each performance. "Mismates" is a film adaptation of Myron C. Fagan's successful stage play which was one of the most successful plays on Broadway last season. Enrico Leide and his Metropolitan orchestra, Ben Turpin in his latest Mack Bennett comedy, "When a Man's a Prince," are also features.

Coming to Metropolitan.

Fresh from its triumphant run on Broadway, Harold Bell Wright's "The Winning of Barbara Worth," starring Vilma Banky and Ronald Colman, is coming to Atlanta next week and will be the attraction extraordinary at the Metropolitan theater. Booklovers and theatergoers alike are greatly interested in this picture, and it is a foregone conclusion that the Metropolitan theater will enjoy record-breaking attendance during the run of "The Winning of Barbara Worth."

Tenth Street Theater.

A Russian train, complete in every detail, recently thundered into a railway terminal in the heart of Hollywood and disgorged hundreds of picture-quipped passengers who then trudged through the snow and climbed into waiting sleighs. It happened at the Pickford-Fairbanks studios where "The Duchess of Buffalo," Constantine Talmadge's starring vehicle, which is playing today and tomorrow at the Tenth Street theater, was made. It is a delightful comedy from start to finish.

The Howard.

"Sorrows of Satan," that ironic spectacle of the devil-on-earth which was written so expertly and so palpitantly by Marie Corelli, and which is playing at the Howard theater this week, is a triumph. The performances by Ricardo Cortez and Mr. Menjou are just about perfection. Art Landry and his internationally famous Victor Recording orchestra, who, by the way, have proven to be one of the most popular bands ever heard in this city, is the chief stage attraction this week. Zimmerman and Grandville, Swiss yodelers, appear as an added stage offering.

Howard Next Week.

A double treat is in store for Atlanta theatergoers at the Howard theater next week. In addition to the showing of Harold Lloyd's latest gigantic fun fest, "The Kid Brother," Art Landry and his Victor Recording orchestra, who have scored

RIALTO
REGINALD DENNY
IN
"TAKE IT FROM ME"

Forsyth
Exclusive Stock Theater
The Forsyth Players —Present—
David Belasco's
Star Success
"THE DOVE"
A Pulsating Drama of Intrigue and Love

HOWARD
Incomparable Entertainment
D. W. GRIFFITH'S
"SORROWS OF SATAN"
ADOLPHE MENJOU
Ricardo Cortez, Carol Dempster and Lyn de Pott
ON THE STAGE
ART LANDRY
And His Internationally Famous
VICTOR RECORDING ORCHESTRA
Shoppers' Bargain Matinee
11 A. M. to 1 P. M.
25c

NEXT WEEK
HAROLD LLOYD in his latest masterpiece of mirth
"THE KID BROTHER"
A N
D
ON THE STAGE
SECOND BIG WEEK
By Popular Request
ART LANDRY
And His Famous
VICTOR RECORDING
ORCHESTRA

FRIEDA HEMPEL
In Concert at CITY AUDITORIUM
Jan. 14, 8:30 P. M.
Seats on Sale at Phillips & Crew
$1 to $2.50, Plus Tax
Southern Musical Bureau

such a tremendous hit this week, will be held over for another week. The story of "The Kid Brother" is set in a hard town nestled in the mountain foothills. Lloyd gets away from the stereotyped feud yarn, which has been done to death in motion pictures, and throughout the entire picture not a gun is fired. It's just a human interest comedy ripe with carefully correlated romance, drama, and thrills, the type of plot in which the best-comic comedian revels.

West End Theater.

A gambling pot in which are staked a stable of thoroughbred racing horses forms the exciting prelude to a series of thrilling incidents in "The Sporting Lover," which is playing today and tomorrow at the West End theater. "The Sporting Lover" was adapted to the screen from the famous Drury Lane play, "Good Luck," and combines romance, horse races and the war with a lot of ginger and pep. It is said, and provides a decided departure from the usual run of pictures. Conway Tearle and Barbara Bedford are starred.

Fairfax Theater.

Before the old-time wailing guns seen in "The Barrier," the photoplay of the Rex Beach novel, which is showing at the Fairfax theater today and tomorrow, could be used it was necessary for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer to employ the owner as well. Bill Stokes, former whaler, insisted on standing by at all times to see that the gunnery was correct. Only the most careful search revealed the guns in the possession of Stokes, who has retired from active life on a whaling ship and lives at San Pedro. "The Barrier" boasts one of the season's best casts. Norman Kerry, Henry B. Walthall, Lionel Barrymore and Marceline Day have prominent roles.

Palace Theater.

The inimitable Eddie Cantor and the fascinating Clara Bow combine their fun making talents at the Palace theater Thursday and Friday to produce a big laugh called "Kid Boots." The picture is one long succession of secondarily funny situations revolving around Tom Sterling, Kid Boots, Carmen Mendoza and Jane Martin. It is a matrimonial tangle with a fortuitous stake and the acting of Cantor, Clara Bow, Lawrence Gray as Tom Sterling, and Natalie Kingston as Carmen Mendoza, is the height of perfection.

FAMOUS FRENCH PHYSICIAN HERE ON BRIEF VISIT

Dr. Joseph Riviere, one of the world's noted physicians, was in Atlanta Wednesday as guest of Dr. George Z. Brown, prominent local physician. Dr. Riviere was the first to use X-ray and radium in the treatment of cancer, and is recognized throughout the world as a pioneer in this field.

He is an officer of the French Legion of Honor and an officer of the French Academy. He rendered a great service during the world war, the grand palace being turned over to him for a hospital. He treated thousands of patients at the front and many more at his private offices.

This is his first visit to America, and he came to Atlanta especially to see Dr. Brown. They met about 30 years ago in Paris and a warm friendship between the two resulted. Dr. Riviere holds many degrees from universities and has been honored by institutions both in Europe and America.

TECH FINANCES IN GOOD SHAPE, TRUSTEES REPORT
School finances and general conditions at the Georgia School of Technology were topics discussed at the regular semi-annual meeting of the board of trustees Wednesday morning in President Dr. M. L. Brittain's office at Tech.

It was stated that finances of the school are now in good shape but there will not be much surplus at the end of the school term in June.

Former Governor Nat E. Harris, chairman of the board of trustees, who had not missed a meeting in 41 years, presided.

Others at the meeting were Dr. Brittain, John W. Grant, G. M. Stout, W. H. Glenn, Y. F. Freeman, N. P. Pratt, and Ned Hodgson, of Athens, Ga.

STATE COURTS' POWER DEFINED IN NEW RULING
State courts have no authority to issue injunctions against a regularly chartered national bank so long as such banks are performing the functions for which they were organized according to a decision handed down Wednesday by the supreme court in the case of C. E. Hill against the First National bank, of West Point.

Hill had sought to enjoin the bank from collecting notes he had given for stock in the institution. He contended that the stock was "unloaded" on him by an officer of the bank and that afterward the bank's affairs were placed in liquidation and that it was consolidated with another bank.

DUPONT COMPANY OPENING SALES MEETING TODAY
The sectional sales meeting of the paint and varnish division of E. I. DuPont de Nemours and company will open today at the Henry Grady hotel, with a number of officials from the main office in Wilmington, attending. The conference will close Friday night.

J. W. Elms, division manager; William M. Zintl, director of sales of the division, and William A. Hart, director of advertising, will attend the meeting. Salesmen and others of the Atlanta section of the paint and varnish division will meet for the purpose of discussing sales.

DANFORTH ADDRESSES AERONAUTS OF TECH
Future aviators, consisting of 80 members of the Georgia Tech Aeronautical association, were addressed by Lieutenant Colonel Charles B. Danforth, air officer of the fourth corps area. This was the first meeting of the association since the Christmas holidays. Colonel Danforth, center, is seen in the foreground of the group, standing with the problem of "making airplanes fool-proof and keeping fools out of airplanes."

PEGRAM WILL BE HOST TO TEN CLUB MEMBERS
Robert Baker Pegram, of the Ten club, will provide entertainment for that society at its meeting at 4:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel, according to announcement Tuesday by Frederic J. Paxson, secretary of the club. The meeting will be the reading of a paper by W. W. Orr on "Georgia From Reconstruction to the Present."

Light Rains Due In Atlanta Today; To Grow Warmer

General unsettled weather conditions with light rains this afternoon is the forecast for Atlanta today by C. F. von Herrmann, local meteorologist.

Although overcasts are to be in vogue in Atlanta during the day the thermometer will show considerable rise over the past week, he promised. The temperature will not go below freezing point this morning and will rise to near the 50 mark during the day.

Much damage was reported to tender truck crops in southern Georgia and Florida but the weatherman said the cold wave has been beneficial. The severe cold wave, the worst of the season, swept to the southern end of Florida and killed truck crops through the Okeechobee section, according to dispatches.

The United States department of agriculture was advised Wednesday that although the damage was heavy on truck crops the citrus escaped damage. Tangerines in Manatee county were slightly damaged and but slight damage was done to celery in the Sanford and Ocala sections.

The highest temperatures recorded in Atlanta Wednesday was 40 degrees and the lowest was 22 degrees, three degrees higher than Tuesday's lowest.

SUPREME COURT UPHOLDS TERM GIVEN ALVIN HALL

The supreme court Wednesday upheld a 66-day jail sentence imposed upon Alvin Hall, of Baxley, following his conviction in the Appling superior court on the charge of running his automobile over a calf. The records in the case showed the man drove his car several feet out of the road in order to hit the animal and that he narrowly missed striking a child. He also was fined $150. This was the first case ever appealed to the supreme court in which a man was sentenced to serve a jail term for striking an animal with his automobile.

JAMES PRYOR BURIAL TO BE IN KENTUCKY

The body of James M. Pryor, 80, of Owen, Ky., who died Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Evans in Hapeville was sent Wednesday to Owen for funeral services and interment. Mr. Pryor had spent his winters in Hapeville for the past several years to be near his daughter and son, who live there. He is survived by five daughters, Miss Margaret Pryor, teacher in the Georgia Baptist orphanage; Mrs. Fred W. White, of Charlotte, N. C.; Mrs. J. T. Orr and Mrs. J. T. Waldrop, of Owen; and Mrs. H. T. Turpin, of Dry Ridge, Ky.; two sisters, Mrs. S. F. Orr and Miss Mary E. Pryor, and three sons, Claude E. Pryor, of Owen; H. P. Pryor, of Louisville, Ky., and Noble Pryor, of Hapeville.

MONROE MAN HEADS BOARD OF EMBALMERS

E. L. Almond, of Monroe, was re-elected president of the Georgia State Board of Embalmers Wednesday at the annual two-day convention being held at the Wyncoff hotel. Other officers named Wednesday are J. Freeman Hart, of Macon, secretary-treasurer; Nathaniel Le Master, of Americus, vice president; M. M. Bostein, of Athens, and Lester F. Elliott, of Augusta, members of the executive board.

The convention will close with a short business session this afternoon. During the morning members of the board will visit West View cemetery and place a wreath upon the grave of H. M. Patterson, a former president of the board. They will also visit the state capitol.

Twenty-five applicants from Georgia and surrounding states are being examined in conjunction with the two-day session, but those reports will not be made public until a later date.

HAT SHOP DAMAGED BY MYSTERY FLAZE

The Southland Hat Shop, at 10 East Mitchell street, was damaged by fire of undetermined origin early Wednesday night, according to fire reports. The fire was quickly extinguished, but considerable damage was done by smoke and water. It was investigated by Call Officers W. C. Duncan and J. H. Crankshaw.

A roof at the home of C. A. Turner, of 57 Sixth street, was damaged by fire late Wednesday afternoon.

GYPSIES ARE FINED AND MOVED ALONG

Waycross, Ga., January 12.—(Special.)—Failure to secure a license before opening fortune telling camps in Ware county cost a band of gypsies $200, and the outfit was ushered out of the county.

Four members of the party were fined $50 each.

ATLANTA TEACHERS DEPLORE PASSING OF DR. M. M. PARKS

Resolutions deploring the tragic death of Dr. M. M. Parks, president of the Georgia State College for Women, who was killed recently in an automobile accident in Florida, were adopted at a meeting of the Atlanta Public School Teachers' association executive committee.

Several other routine matters, relative to the Atlanta school system, were discussed at the meeting it was stated.

Footwear--DeLuxe

The Sensational Style

SALE

of

I. Miller Slippers

Includes:
Pump Effects
Strap Slippers
Tailored Shoes
Novelties

In All the Fashionable Shades

Sale Price
$9.85 $11.85

$12.50 to $20.00 Values

Choose! Many Dainty Styles!
Many Sizes! Many Shades in This Remarkable Style Sale
De Luxe—Second Floor

Buck's
27-29 WHITEHALL ST.

Boys, A Coaster Wagon FREE!

Body 16x36 Inches, Strong and Durable

Large Balloon-Like
Tires

The Atlanta Constitution has a few "Constitution Express" wagons on hand. Any boy or girl who will secure three new six-month subscriptions, acceptable to The Constitution, or its out-of-town dealer, after verification, can have one of these wagons. The wagon will be delivered at The Constitution office to city contestants, and sent by express, charges collect, to out-of-town contestants.

ROLLER SKATES FREE!

The Atlanta Constitution offers the boys and girls of ATLANTA and suburbs, also Georgia towns where it has a regular carrier service, high-grade sidewalk roller skates FREE.

They are made especially to withstand the wear and tear of sidewalk use. These safety roller skates instantly win the admiration of all who see them—and REMEMBER—they are safe because the wheels cannot lose off.

Any boy or girl who will secure two NEW six-month subscriptions, acceptable to The Constitution, or its out-of-town dealer, after verification, can have a pair of these roller skates.

"Constitution Express" Wagon Coupon

Atlanta Constitution,
Circulation Dept.,
Atlanta, Ga.

Send a subscription book and instructions for getting a "Constitution Express" coaster wagon, without paying or collecting any money. I promise to abide by the requirements and verification decision of your office or your dealer.

NAME .....
NO. .... ST. ....
P. O. ....
STATE .....

CUT OUT COUPON

and bring or send to The Atlanta Constitution, Circulation Department, Atlanta, Ga., and full and complete instructions will be given or mailed you at once.

GET A WAGON OR ROLLER SKATES NOW, BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE.

Roller Skate Coupon

Atlanta Constitution,
Circulation Dept.,
Atlanta, Ga.

Send a subscription book and instructions for getting a pair of Roller skates without paying or collecting any money. I promise to abide by the requirements and verification decision of your office.

NAME .....
NO. .... ST. ....
P. O. ....
STATE .....

Only Complete Closing Reports

QUOTATIONS IN STOCKS, BONDS, COMMODITIES, CURRENCY, WHEAT

Markets of World Fully Covered

BOND MARKET

N. Y. Stock Transactions

CURB MARKET

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Table with multiple columns listing bond transactions, including bond names, prices, and yields. Includes sections for New York, January 12, and various government and corporate bonds.

Table with multiple columns listing stock transactions, including stock names, prices, and volumes. Includes sections for New York, January 12, and various industrial and financial stocks.

Table with multiple columns listing commodity and currency transactions, including wheat, cotton, and various international market data. Includes sections for Chicago, January 12, and various agricultural and industrial commodities.

Hubbard Bros. & Co., Cotton Merchants. Hanover Square, New York. Members New York Cotton Exchange, New Orleans Cotton Exchange, New York Produce Exchange, associate members Liverpool Cotton Association. Orders solicited for the purchase and sale of cotton and cottonseed oil for immediate delivery. Special attention and liberal terms given for consignments of spot cotton for delivery. Correspondence invited.

ROOMS AND BOARD

68c—Hotels and Restaurants
IVY INN—Tourist hotel, lovely heat, spacious rooms, $1.00 cordiality. 135 Ivy street.
LUCKIE HOTEL—110 Luckie street, under new management; steam heat, hot and cold water; daily rates $1. Extra special for the next few days we are offering very attractive weekly rates. Five minutes to getting. H. B. Thompson, Manager, Ivy 9210.

MID-TOWN HOTEL
 "Just around the corner from the business district." A respectable place for respectable people. Reasonable rates, steam heat, hot water, first-class restaurant operated in connection. 138 North Pryor street.

Rooms for Housekeeping
BILMORE SECTION—Bedroom, housekeeping privileges, heat, reasonable. H. B. Thompson, 4222-W. 10th.
CENTRAL, 412—Three furnished rooms, kitchenette, private bath and home. Main 1019.

GLENN ST., 220—Three rooms, conveniences, $4 per week; also two rooms on Georgia avenue, $5 per week. Walnut 4952.

INMAN PARK—Large furnished room and kitchenette, heat, all conveniences. Walnut 4040.

WEST PEACHTREE, 275—Large front room and kitchen, completely furnished, heat, H. B. Thompson, 4106-J.

Room and Kitchenette, nicely furnished for housekeeping, $4.50 weekly. 154 Dawson street, S. W.

Where To Dine
394 PEACHTREE
 Opposite Georgia Terrace. Good things to eat. Club breakfast. Luncheon a la carte. Dinner—$1.00. Special Weekly Rates—Hemlock 5002.

Wanted Room or Board
 TWO BUSINESS girls desire room with board or small furnished apartment on the north side. Address X-370, Constitution.

REAL ESTATE FOR RENT

Apartment Furnished

COOPER STREET, 330—New Whitehall, two rooms, modern, private entrance. Owner, H. B. Thompson, 7027-W.

GRANT PARK section, two rooms, kitchenette, bath, porch, heat, conveniences, $35. Main 3294-J.

PEACHTREE CIRCLE—Near Seventeenth street, completely furnished apartment. Hemlock 1283.

PONCE DE LEON, 887—Five rooms, front, rear, mahogany furniture, linen, silver, Janitor. Hemlock 1283.

THREE or four-room apartment, completely furnished; new vacant. Walnut 4912.

THREE, four and five rooms, $40 to $70, walking distance. Mrs. J. B. Hewitt, manager. IVY 2913 or IVY 2914.

686 QUEEN ST.—Nicely furnished, three-room apartment, to permanent couple, private home, bath and entrance, $37.50. Adults only.

907 HIGHLAND VIEW, N. E.—Two-room apartment, Murphy bed, furnace heat. Hemlock 3263-J.

Apartments Unfurnished

BATHROOM APARTMENTS
 One room with twin Murphy beds and bath, north side. Call Walnut 2723.

DURANT PL., 686—Five rooms with two connection bedrooms, $25. Dearborn 2320-J.

NORTH SIDE—450 Angler avenue, N. E., five large rooms and bath, steam heat, only $50. Walnut 4952.

WASHINGTON ST.—Five-room, steam heated apartment, all conveniences; reasonable. Main 1991-J.

APARTMENT FOR RENT—Phone Walnut 2723. W. L. & John O. DuPree.

ATTRACTIVE APARTMENTS—Weyman & Connors, Brown Bldg. Walnut 2162.

EXCELLENT second-floor, 4-room, modern apartment, steam heat, janitor service, garage, sublease expiring September 1, 1932. Call Mr. DeLoach, Decatur, 855. Dearborn 1009-W.

DESIRABLE near-in six-room lower duplex, extra kitchen, reasonable, owner, H. B. Thompson, 2527-J.

FOR APARTMENTS—Fitzhugh, Knox & Sons, Norris building. Walnut 8947, 233 Peachtree street.

FOUR ROOMS, sun parlor and bath, steam heat, apartment $2, second floor. 802 West Peachtree street; $35. Call Walnut 2922.

LOWER four, large rooms and bath, porch, good location, $30. Main 2253-J.

NINE-ROOM house or 6-room apartment, garage, conveniences, best section. Fairfax 1013-J.

THREE apartments, 924 Pryor street. See owner, 20 Pryor street.

TWO large rooms, bath, kitchenette, newly decorated, adults, good location. Walnut 2877.

5-ROOM flat, all conveniences, walking distance, $25. Main 2911.

619 W. PEACHTREE
 Five rooms with large porch and yard, immediate possession. Call Walnut 2723. W. L. & John O. DuPree.

Business Places for Rent

PEACHTREE ARCADE—Two floors being changed into offices, display rooms and shops. $50 and up. Garage in basement; postoffice, information desk and every service all under one roof.

DEAD and dumb party who called at 629 Candler building Tuesday regarding rental of store kindly call by again and leave address or have someone phone Hemlock 6068. W. L. & John O. DuPree.

FOR RENT—UNDER LEASE, BRICK STOREHOUSE, 2220, PROMINENT STREET, OFFICE FOR POT PRODUCE, MEATS AND GENERAL MERCHANDISE. J. H. HOPKINS, SECOND FLOOR PALMER BUILDING, ATLANTA, GA.

NEW 5-room bungalow in West End, newly furnished, private garage, $75 month to responsible party. IVY 0473.

6-ROOM upper duplex, near school and car line. Hemlock 4034-J.

Houses for Rent, Unfurnished

KIRKWOOD—Furnished or unfurnished, two or three rooms, garage, sink, hot water, phone, bath. Dearborn 011-W.

ROSEDALE AVE., 778—Grant park section, near Girls' High, 5-room house, all conveniences, hot and cold water. Call Madison 5777.

BEAUTIFUL 6-room residence and garage reduced to $55. E. L. Harling, Walnut 2620.

ONE new brick bungalow, side drive and garage. West 1463-J.

5-ROOM house 15 Lot street, first from Capitol avenue, splendid condition. Owner, Walnut 2047 or West 0109-J.

SMALL bungalow, living room, two bedrooms, breakfast room and kitchen, very reasonable rent. Call West 2270-W.

208 WEST 14th street, 10 rooms, $75; suitable two families. Hemlock 4034-W.

Office Space for Rent

PETERS Bldg., at Five Points; most central, located in single and suitable units. Apply Suite 410-11.

OFFICE SPACE for rent, Candler, Candler Annex, Forsyth building, desirable office space or no office; location the best; service unexcelled. Ask G. Candler, Jr., agent, 1710 Candler building. Walnut 8070. Mr. Clegg Mr. Smith.

Suburban for Rent

PEACHTREE ROAD SECTION
 Two-story brick home, has four bedrooms, two baths, oil-matic steam heat, tile roof, beautiful lot with plenty of shrubbery. Owner is moving from city and will sell at a bargain. Phone Mr. Blair, Walnut 2723. W. L. & John O. DuPree.

REAL ESTATE FOR RENT

Wanted—To Rent
 WANTED—Furnished apartment for family of three, must be on north side. Phone IVY 2660 after 5 p. m.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

Brokers in Real Estate
 ATLANTA Trust Company real estate department, 214 Atlanta Trust Co. Bldg., Walnut 5471.

ADAMS-CATERS CO.—204 Grant building, Walnut 5471.

A. GRAVES SELLER, home, lots, income property and farms, 124 Wall street.

B. M. GRANT CO.—Ground floor Grant building, Forsyth street entrance. Walnut 1920.

BURDET REALTY CO.—We negotiate any kind of real estate problems.

COLLIER PARK REALTY CO.—Farm lands and city property. Fairfax 2129.

COLUMBIA TRUST & REALTY COMPANY, 401 Metropolitan building, Walnut 2550.

FOR BUSINESS lease and properties, S. P. Cronheim, 317 Hunter building.

MERCHANTS & MECHANICS BANK—35 North Forsyth street. Walnut 1000.

NUTTING, J. R. & CO.—1901 Georgia Avenue Bank building. Walnut 0156.

PONDER REALTY CO.—Candler road, R. F. D. No. 1, Phone West 4030.

RICHARD C. SHOUPE AND ASSOCIATES, 5 Carnegie Way, Walnut 1458. Opposite library.

ROBERT L. W. REALTY & TRUST CO.—210-23 Ashland street, Walnut 4100.

RANKIN-WHITTEN CO.—Real estate and rental, 51 North Forsyth street, Walnut 0336.

SALES—BUSINESS LEASES—Hass & Howell, 214 Hunter building.

SESSIONS LOAN AND TRUST CO.—Rents, Leases, Sales and Finance. Wynne-Clatskanie Bldg. Walnut 0999.

SOUTHERN REALTY & TRUST CO.—Lots, acreage, business properties. 608-12 Atlanta Trust Company building.

SHARP & ROYSTON—38 Luckie street, Walnut 2930.

TRUST COMPANY OF GEORGIA—Real estate and rental, 214 Hunter building, Walnut 0101.

THE JETER-STEWART CO.—401 North Main street, IVY 4551.

TURMAN-BROWN CO.—210 Georgia Avenue Bank building, Walnut 4274.

Business Property for Sale
 FORD service station, close in, good lease, cheap. $200. West 2773. Equipment.

SUBURBAN HOME—Investment, 80 acres with lake, 1000 ft. of frontage, fruit trees, large beautiful lake well stocked with trout and bass, suitable for high-class dining, chicken farm, golf club or camp site; only 30 minutes ride from Five Points, concrete highway to within one block of Atlanta, right at bus line, railroad; free taxes for 10 years; total price $4,700; terms, 101 Decatur street, Walnut 7415.

Farms and Land for Sale
 BARGAIN—1111 say it is: 20 acres, near south end of city, beyond river, two small 4-room houses, two springs and branch, ideal spot for fish pond and a lot of fine timber. It's just the place you've been looking for. Assume loan of $1,000. R. Kellum, care Bank of Hawaii, Honolulu, Hawaii.

PALMYRA COMPANY, owner of Palmyra Pecan Estates, 11 Poplar street, room 202.

KIRKWOOD bungalow, two-story, eight-room, only $5,000; strictly modern 7-room bungalow, large lot at 629 Dearborn 0536-J.

NEW 6-room bungalow, $4,750; can use as double house, 1000 ft. of frontage, large lot; $300 cash, $30 month. Madison 0940-J.

"CHEAPER TO MARRY" will be offered next week by the Forsyth Players, if Mrs. Earl H. Green, of 642 Grand Circle, will present this ad to the classical advertising department she will be given two tickets to next Monday night's performance.

CONSULT us before building a home. Better Homes, Inc., 7 Carnegie Way, Walnut 0102.

FOR DECATUR bungalow in real estate, Burford Real Estate Co., Dearborn 2238-J.

GOOD duplex, good condition, take auto part pay. Hemlock 4255.

BONE BUILDERS, Atlanta Realty and Construction Co., Healey Bldg. IVY 3180.

HOMES without loans, W. D. Healey, 221 Trust Company of Georgia building, Walnut 2811.

NEW 6-room bungalow, lot 50x120; liberal terms, trade. Walnut 1211-7373.

OWNER—Leaving city, must sacrifice eight-room, two-story brick house; north side. Hemlock 2678.

OWNER offers three very attractive new north side brick homes, 711 and 705 Elmwood drive, Boulevard park, and 750 Elmwood drive, just off Park drive, if looking for a real home inspect these today. Hemlock 6028. Walnut 1900.

SEE these Hopkins bungalows on Glen Iris drive, P. B. Hopkins & Son, 423 Palmer building.

3-ROOM brick bungalow, large lot; must sell within 15 days. 1117 Austin avenue, N. E., half block Moreland school, 11 blocks from Glen Iris. Owner, IVY 7220.

1083 SOUTH MORELAND AVE.—Brand-new, five rooms and bath, something like only $5,750. Terms, G. P. Howard, Walnut 5629.

1148 DELAWARE AVE., S. E., at South Moreland, very attractive five-room bungalow, practically new, oak floors throughout, elegant side drive and garage, shady lot. Price $12,500, $200 cash, no loan to assume; look at it and call Geo. R. Northern, Walnut 5101, 801 Grant building.

LOTS for Sale
 ANSLY PARK LOT 10x120, Chas. L. Greene, Walnut 4309.

DEARBORN 0116, DEARBORN 8231.

HAYNES MANOR—The subdivision beautiful Peachtree Battle avenue.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Real Estate

CASCADE HEIGHTS LOTS

Are wonderful values for a home site or investment.

$600 to $750—Terms, 15% Cash, $15 Month

Field Office—Cascade Road, R. F. D. No. 1—West 4030

Personals

AFTER EVERYTHING ELSE HAS FAILED

If you are sick and really want to get well in the shortest possible time, you must stop treating "effects." You must have the "cause" of your ailment "adjusted" by a qualified specialist. The "effect" may be in the Head, Eyes, Ears, Throat, Heart, Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Stomach, Bowels or Limbs but the "cause" of the trouble may be in the blood. When it comes to disease there is nothing in a name—it is a matter of "cause" and "effect." Our scientific stimulation of the nervous system has been recognized by many prominent specialists as the most scientific treatment, for results are noticeable in a few treatments—a permanent recovery is certain.

Public Health Doctors

344 Peachtree St., Atlanta, Ga.

Hours 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. Daily; Sundays, 10 to 1.

Wanted—To Rent

THREE-ROOM furnished apartment, north side, heat, reasonable. Address X-351, Constitution.

WANTED—Small furnished apartment, two or three rooms, steam heat, must be reasonable. 1-642, Constitution.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

Lots for Sale
 BEAUTIFUL Peachtree road home site, Nelson Realty & Trust Co., Walnut 3067.

LOT 51x100 on East Peach Ferry road, about 400 feet west of Piedmont avenue. See this and make me offer. H. B. Thompson, 211 Candler building, Walnut 1011.

VACANT LOT on car line, west side, Owner, 1008 Fourth National Bank building.

Property for Colored
 $200 To $350—Terms. A few good lots near West Hunter. Call Mr. Morris, 484 W. Hunter, West 1418.

$4,000—Five-room bungalow, garage, fourth ward, John Allen, IVY 2760, Auditorium building.

Suburban—For Sale
 81 ACRES on Peyton road, just a short distance from Cascade avenue and the beautiful Cascade Heights subdivision. If sold at once I can deliver this tract for $2,500. I also have 12 acres just off Gordon road; this has five-room cottage on same. Can deliver for $5,000. If you are looking for a small tract close in you can't beat these. See Copeland, 211 Candler building, Walnut 1011.

To Exchange Real Estate
 ALL CASH to pay for good negro income property. Walnut 0250.

CORNER LOT—Davis Island, Tampa, Fla., H. B. Thompson, 211 Candler building, Walnut 7189.

FAIRBURN, GA.—Six-room house and three acres of land, fronting 185 feet on Fayetteville road. What about this for $1,001? Will sell or trade for lots in Atlanta. See Copeland, 211 Candler building.

WILL TRADE clear farm in actual cultivation for high-class city investment property. Hemlock 4063.

WILL EXCHANGE a fine $20,000 home in Inman park on lot 100x200 for good farm or other property; let me know at what you have to offer. E. J. Harling, Walnut 5620.

Wanted Real Estate
 FOR QUICK SALE—List your property with us. Brannan-Reckham & Co., Wynne-Clatskanie Bldg., Walnut 4488.

REAL ESTATE WANTED—There are buyers in all parts of the country; our method reaches them. If you want to sell it will pay you to use it. E. J. Harling, 723 to 725 Atlanta National Bank Bldg., Walnut 1086.

WANT north side brick bungalow, about $7,500, large cash payment. IVY 1259.

WANTED—Five or six-room brick bungalow, north side. Must be bargain, not over $5,000. Address X-370, Constitution.

WANTED—Vacant colored lot, fourth ward, will pay all cash. J. L. 100, care Constitution.

Auction Sales
 GLENNY REALTY AUCTION COMPANY—Furniture, Broads, Automobiles, Auctioneers. 141 IVY 1100.

SMYTH BROS. REAL ESTATE CO.—Hemlock 4229.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Rentals

La Salle Ct., 907 N. E., Piedmont, 5 rooms, $90.00

Park Crest, 278 N. E., 4th, 5 rooms, $5.00

Bonaventure Ct., 652 Bonaventure Avenue, N. E., 5 rooms, $5.00

1055 N. E. Piedmont Ave., 3 and 4, $60-$75

10th Street Ct., 425 N. E. 10th, 4 rooms, $5.00

Fifth Street Ct., 423 N. E., Piedmont, 4 rms., $5.00

232 N. E. 12th St., $5.00

Weyman & Connors Walnut 2162 58 Marietta

Real Estate

DRUID HILLS

$500 CASH—Small notes, 7 rooms; hardwood floors; brick; 11 L. B. ROOF, call Mr. MORRIS.

Robert Thompson Co. Realtors

Walnut 3372, 1329 Candler Bldg.

375 STATE STREET

NEXT to corner of West Tenth street. Attractive five-room bungalow. Look this over; the price and terms will sell you. This won't last long. Act quick.

Weyman & Connors 58 MARIETTA STREET, ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

REAL BARGAINS

DRUID HILLS—7 room, 2-story home, steam heat, prominent drive, $12,000.

BRICK DUPLEX—On Clifton road, one-story, oil heat. A BEAUTY. $12,000.

$4,500—5-room brick bungalow; fur; tile floor; brick bungalow.

CREW ST.—Near Bass, 6-room, modern home $2,700.

WESLEY DRIVE—Lot 50x100, $2,700.

CARL FISCHER, WAL 3241

$6,750—New six-room brick, best section North Decatur; every convenience. Notes only $50 per month. Small cash payment.

$7,500—Reduced from $8,500. Peachtree road section. Pretty, level lot. New 4x8, $200 cash, $200 cash, no loan to assume; look at it and call Geo. R. Northern, Walnut 5101, 801 Grant building.

$8,500—New tapestry brick bungalow, seven rooms, all bedrooms extra large; beautiful sun parlor. Tile bath and tiled porch. Located best part North Highland section. An outstanding value. $500 cash, notes very easy.

ROGERS REALTY &amp; TRUST CO.

Realtors

220-3 Atlanta Trust Co. Bldg. Walnut 4100.

Are You Rolling the Stone Of Sisyphus?

Sisyphus was supposed by the ancient Greeks to have been condemned to roll a large stone up a steep hill from which it always rolled back before reaching the top—thus making his punishment permanent.

Some of us are rolling the stone of Sisyphus—and naturally are gathering no moss. We glance through the well indexed opportunities in the A-B-C Classified Section, but we don't answer the ads that interest us. We intend to—but we don't get around to do it.

And so the next day we are right back where we started!

We'll never reach the Top of the Hill that way! If we expect to make the grade we've got to seize the opportunities at hand—to act upon them—and let them react to our advantage.

We've got to read the A-B-C Ads carefully—and answer them quickly!

The A-B-C Classified Ads Always the Same—In Service Always Different—In Opportunity Walnut 6565

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Real Estate

SALE OR EXCHANGE

$7,500—Red brick bungalow, new and well built; piped walls, concrete street, one block car line. Will take vacant lot or small property as part payment. Call Mr. Cook.

DOLVIN REALTY CO. WAL 3585, Realtors, Candler Bldg.

VIRGINIA-HIGHLAND SECTION
 SEVEN-ROOM brick bungalow. Large lot, well located. Daylight basement. A very attractive new brick bungalow. Price less than $8,000. Terms arranged. See

